Jacob D. Smith

Chairman Senate Committee.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 1. The time within which real estate sold for the 2 non-payment of taxes and purchased by individuals may be 3 redeemed, and the time within which a deed may be procured
4 therefor, as provided in section sixteen, article ten, chapter
5 eleven of the code of West Virginia, for each of the years nine-6 teen hundred and twenty-nine and nineteen hundred and 7 thirty, shall be extended for a period of three years, from the 8 time now fixed by statute, and, for the year nineteen hundred 9 and thirty-one, shall be extended for a period of two years, from 10 the time now fixed by statute.

Sec. 2. The time within which real estate sold for the 2 non-payment of taxes and purchased by the state may be re-
3 deemed as provided in section thirty, article ten, chapter eleven
4 of the code of West Virginia, for each of the years nineteen
5 hundred and twenty-nine and nineteen hundred and thirty,
6 shall be extended for a period of three years, from the time now
7 fixed by statute, and for the year nineteen hundred and thirty-
8 one, shall be extended for a period of two years, from the time
9 now fixed by statute.

Sec. 3. The time within which the auditor shall certify
2 to the commissioner of school lands of the proper counties
3 copies of the certificates of the clerks of the county courts of 4 such counties of lands purchased for the state at sales thereof
5 for taxes, as provided in section five, article three, chapter
6 thirty-seven, of the code of West Virginia, shall be extended 7 for a period of three years in addition to the time now fixed by 8 statute. The commissioner of school lands shall cause no pro-
9 ceedings to be started against any forfeited lands, heretofore 10 certified to him, by the auditor, for a period of three years, from 11 the taking effect hereof, except at the instance and request 12 of the owner or owners of any particular tract or tracts or 13 of a redeemable interest therein to enable such owner or own-
14 ers to redeem such tract or tracts, or unless the court for good 15 reasons otherwise orders and directs.
