(SECOND EXTRAORDINARY SESSION, 1933)

House Bill No. 326

(By Mr. Randolph)

Passed February 23, 1934

In Effect _______ Passage
AN ACT to amend an act of the Legislature of West Virginia, second extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, and known as house bill number two hundred thirty-four, relating to tax levies, by adding thereto a new section to be known as section nineteen-(a).

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That an act of the Legislature of West Virginia, second extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, known as house bill number two hundred thirty-four, relating to tax levies, be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as section nineteen-(a), to read as follows:

Section 19-(a). When the levy rates apportioned to municipalities for debt purposes are not required in whole or in part therefor, and there is no other taxing district, which in keeping 4 with the principles of equality and uniformity as herein pro-
5 vided, can use such remainder of rates, or the same is not re-
6 quired by any other taxing district, the municipality may then
7 utilize the balance of such debt levies, unused and not required
8 for debt purposes, for current expense purposes, when required
9 therefore, provided the consent of the tax commissioner be had.
