House Bill No. 254
(By Mr. Martin, of Jefferson)

[Passed February 25, 1935; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section eighteen, article eight, chapter thirty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended and reenacted by chapter six, acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, relating to limitations on loans by banking institutions and to the valuation of securities purchased by them.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 18. The total liabilities to any banking institution of any person, firm or corporation, for money borrowed by note, bond, certificate of indebtedness or other device, including in the liabilities of the firm, the liabilities of the several members thereof, including in the liabilities of any corporation an 6 investment by such banking institution in the stock of such 7 corporation shall at no time exceed ten percent of the unim-8 paired capital stock, including debentures and surplus fund 9 of such banking institution: Provided, however, That such lia-10 bilities to a banking institution in excess of the maximum herein 11 provided, outstanding at the date this act takes effect, but not 12 exceeding twenty percent of the unimpaired capital stock, in-13 cluding debentures and surplus fund of such banking institu-14 tion, may be renewed, refunded or extended until December 15 thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six; at such time 16 the limit of such liabilities to such banking institution shall be 17 reduced to fifteen per cent of such unimpaired capital stock, 18 debentures and surplus fund of such banking institution and 19 such limit may continue until December thirty-first, one thou-20 sand nine hundred thirty-seven; after which time such limit 21 shall be reduced so that it will not exceed ten per cent of such 22 unimpaired capital stock, debentures and surplus fund of such 23 banking institution. But the discount of commercial or business 24 paper actually owned by the person, firm or corporation nego-25 tiating the same shall not be considered as money borrowed 26 within the limitation of this section; and the obligations of any person, firm or corporation, in the form of notes or drafts secured by shipping documents, warehouse receipts or other such documents transferring or securing title covering readily maretable nonperishable staples when such property is fully covered by insurance, if it is customary to insure such staples, shall be considered money borrowed within the meaning of this section but shall be subject to the exception that with respect thereto the limitation of ten per cent of the unimpaired capital stock, including debentures and surplus fund, to which reference has hereinbefore been made, may be increased to twenty-five per cent when the market value of such staples securing such obligations is not at any time less than one hundred and fifteen per cent of the face amount of such obligations, and may be increased up to fifty per cent of such unimpaired capital stock, including debentures and surplus fund, with a corresponding increase in market value of such staples securing such obligation up to not less than one hundred and forty per cent of the face amount of such additional obligation, but this exception shall not apply to obligations of any one person, firm or corporation arising from the same transaction and/or secured upon the identical staples for more than ten months. This section shall not apply to the Enrolled H. B. No. 254] 4

48 obligations of the United States or general obligations of any 49 state or of any political subdivisions thereof, or obligations is-50 sued under authority of the Federal Farm Loan Act, as 51 amended, or issued by the Federal Home Loan Bank, or the 52 Home Owners Loan Corporation. Neither shall this section 53 apply to the obligations of a corporation owning the building 54 in which the banking institution is located, when such banking 55 institution has an unimpaired capital and surplus of not less 56 than one million dollars, or when approved in writing by the 57 commissioner of banking. Nothing herein shall be construed to 58 forbid the sale upon credit of a bank building owned by a 59 banking institution at the time this act takes effect.

60 Indebtedness to a banking institution in excess of the maxi-61 mum prescribed in this section, outstanding at the date this act 62 takes effect, shall not be renewed, refunded or otherwise ex-63 tended for a period longer than the limitation provided by this 64 section. Not later than May first, one thousand nine hundred 65 thirty-seven, every banking institution shall proceed to collect 66 such indebtedness by appropriate proceedings to enforce security 67 of personal liability. Violation of this section shall be a misde-68 meanor and shall be punishable under the provisions of section thirty-nine of this article.

No officer, director, clerk or other employee of any banking institution or the commissioner of banking or any employee of the department of banking shall borrow, directly or indirectly, from the banking institution with which he is connected, or is subject to his examination, any sum of money without the written approval of a majority of the board of directors or discount committee thereof filed in its office, or embodied in a resolution adopted by a majority vote of such board, exclusive of the director to whom the loan is made. If an officer, director, clerk or other employee of any bank shall own or control a majority of the stock of any other corporation, a loan to such corporation shall, for the purpose of this section, constitute a loan to such officer, director, clerk or other employee.

Securities purchased by a banking institution shall be entered upon the books of the bank at actual cost but may be carried thereafter at market value. For the purpose of calculating the undivided profits applicable to the payment of dividends, securities shall not be estimated at a valuation exceeding their present cost as determined by amortization; that is, by deducting from 89 the cost of a security purchased at a premium, and charging to 90 profit and loss a sum sufficient to bring it to par at maturity, 91 or adding to the cost of a security purchased at a discount, 92 and crediting to profit and loss a sum sufficient to bring it to 93 par at maturity.
