WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1935

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 5

(By Mr. Thomas)

PASSED Feb 5th 1935

In Effect from Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact sections one and five, chapter sixteen, acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, as amended by chapter forty-five, acts of the Legislature, second extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, relating to forfeited and delinquent lands.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections one and five, chapter sixteen, acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, as amended by chapter forty-five, acts of the Legislature, second extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 1. That the owner of any land and real estate in this state, his heirs, devisees or assigns and any person holding a lien thereon, or having the right to charge the same with a debt, which land and real estate has been returned delinquent and/or forfeited for the nonpayment of taxes levied and assessed against the same, including forfeited land and real estate certified to the commissioner of school lands of the respective counties on which suits may or may not have been instituted or may still be pending in which no sale and/or confirmation of sale has been made, may redeem such land and real estate from such delinquency and/or forfeiture, or for any other cause, by the payment to the auditor of the state of West Virginia of the taxes so levied and assessed together with all taxes which would have been levied and extended on the land books against said real estate had there been no such forfeiture, without interest or costs, if the same shall be paid on or before December thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five. Such payment shall include all taxes assessed and in arrears for any and all years prior to the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, and prior to such redemption, and any legal costs as now provided by statute that have accrued by reason of the prosecution of any suit shall be paid by the commissioner of school lands in the county in which the land is situated, when approved and so ordered by the court by order entered of record from any funds in his hands for which said commissioner shall have credit in his settlement of accounts, as such commissioner and commissioners of school lands shall be allowed in their settlements such reasonable sums as the court shall determine and allow for work done and services rendered by them and their attorneys in relation to the tracts, lots and parcels of land which have been heretofore certified to them and which have not before this act becomes effective been disposed of, and such sums so allowed may be, by order of the court, paid out of funds in the hands of the commissioners or which shall come into their hands: Provided, however, That where two or more claimants have filed their petition as required by law asking to redeem the same tract or tracts of land, said tract or tracts of land shall not be certified to the auditor by the circuit clerk as provided in section three of this act, nor be redeemed from the auditor as provided in section one of this act as amended, but the party declared by the court to be entitled to redeem said land by paying all costs accumulated as taxed by the clerk thereof, by reason of the contest of title, together with the portion of the taxes as above set forth unto the commissioner of school lands.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the auditor of this state to 2 receive payment of the taxes mentioned in the lists certified to 3 him by virtue of sections two and three of this act, and to ac-4 count for and disburse the same as other taxes received by him, 5 and in the payment of such taxes as is mentioned in section one 6 of this act, as amended, he shall charge no fees, costs nor interest, 7 if redeemed on or before December thirty-first, one thousand nine 8 hundred thirty-five, after which date all such redemptions shall 9 be made as provided in section thirty, article ten, chapter eleven 10 of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-11 one. The auditor shall make written reports every thirty days to 12 the assessor of each county in this state of all forfeited lands 13 redeemed, and upon the payment of such taxes to the auditor as 14 aforesaid he shall execute triplicate receipts, retain and file one 15 in his office and deliver two thereof, including the original, to 16 the party paying the same in the following form or to the fol-17 lowing effect:
18
