WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1935

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL No. 58

(By Mr. Bethune)

PASSED February 25, 1935

In Effect from Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact chapter five, acts of the Legislature, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, relating to the appointment of conservators for, and the reorganization of and rehabilitation of banking institutions under the supervision of the banking commissioner.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That chapter five, acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three, be amended and reenacted so as to read as follows:

ARTICLE VIII.

Section 43. Whenever the commissioner of banking shall 2 deem it necessary, in order to conserve the assets of any 3 banking institution for the benefit of the depositors and other 4 creditors thereof, he may appoint a conservator for such 5 banking institution. The conservator may be an employee of 6 the department of banking, and may be required to give such 7 bond and security as the commissioner deems proper.
8 The conservator, under the direction of the commissioner 9 of banking, shall take possession of the papers, books, records 10 and assets of every description of such banking institution, 11 and take such action as may be necessary to conserve such 12 assets pending further disposition of the business of such 13 institution.
14 The conservator shall have all the rights, powers and priv-15 ileges now possessed by or hereafter given receivers of in-16 solvent banking institutions and shall be subject to all the 17 liabilities, obligations and penalties, not inconsistent with the 18 provisions of this article, to which receivers are now or may 19 hereafter become subject.
20 During the period that such conservator remains in pos-21 session of such banking institution, the legal relations of all 22 parties with respect thereto shall, subject to the other pro-23 visions of this section, be the same as if a receiver had been 24 appointed therefor.

25 All expenses of any such conservatorship shall be paid out 26 of the assets of such banking institution and shall be a lien
27 thereon, which shall be prior to any other lien. The conserva-28 tor shall receive a reasonable compensation for his services to 29 be fixed by the commissioner of banking, but in no event shall 30 such compensation exceed that paid to employees of the de-31 partment of banking for similar services.

32 (a) Immediately upon taking charge of such banking in-33 stitution, the conservator, in conjunction with a representative 34 of the bank designated by the directors thereof, shall make 35 in duplicate a complete inventory of all assets and an itemized 36 list of all liabilities of such institution. The original and 37 copy of such list shall be subscribed and sworn to by the 38 persons making the same and the original shall be filed with 39 the department of banking as soon as practicable, and the 40 copy shall be retained by the conservator.

41 (b) If the commissioner of banking becomes satisfied that 42 such a course of action may be pursued safely and that it will 43 be in the public interest, he may, in his discretion, terminate the conservatorship and permit such banking institution to resume the transaction of its business subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions and limitations as he may prescribe.

(c) While such banking institution is in the hands of the conservator, the commissioner of banking may require such conservator to set aside and make available for withdrawal by depositors and payment to other creditors, on a ratable basis, such amounts as in the opinion of the commissioner may be used safely for this purpose, subject to such priorities and preferences as are provided by law. The commissioner may, in his discretion, permit the conservator to receive deposits. Such deposits shall not be subject to any limitation as to payment or withdrawal. The deposits shall be segregated and shall not be used either to liquidate any indebtedness of such banking institution existing at the time that the conservator was appointed for it or any subsequent indebtedness incurred for the purpose of liquidating any indebtedness of such banking institution existing at the time such conservator was appointed.

Deposits received while the banking institution is in the hands of a conservator shall: (1) Be kept on hand in cash;
65 or, (2) be deposited with a federal reserve bank or deposited 66 with such banking institution organized under the United 67 States national bank act, or the law of this state as the com-68 missioner of banking may, in his discretion, designate; or,
69 (3) be invested in the direct obligations of the United States 70 or the state of West Virginia or the funded obligations of 71 any political subdivision of this state approved by the com-72 missioner of banking.

73  (d) In any reorganization of any banking institution under 74 a plan of a kind which, by its own terms or under existing 75 law, requires the consent, as the case may be, (a) of depositors 76 and other creditors; or (b) of stockholders; or (c) of both 77 depositors and other creditors, and stockholders, such reor-
78 ganization shall become effective only (1) when the commis-79 sioner of banking shall be satisfied that the plan of reorgani-80 zation is fair and equitable to all depositors, other creditors
81 and stockholders, and that the plan is in the public interest 82 and when he shall have approved the plan subject to such 83 conditions, restrictions and limitations as he may prescribe;
84 and (2) when, after reasonable notice of such reorganization, 85 as the case may require, (a) depositors and other creditors of such banking institution representing at least seventy-five per cent in amount of its total deposits and other liabilities; or (b) stockholders owning at least two-thirds in amount of its outstanding capital stock; or (c) both depositors and other creditors representing at least seventy-five per cent in amount of the total deposits and other liabilities and stockholders owning at least two-thirds in amount of its outstanding capital stock, shall, as the plan may require, have consented in writing to the plan of reorganization. Claims of depositors or other creditors which will be satisfied in full under the plan of reorganization shall not be included among the total deposits and other liabilities of said banking institution in determining the seventy-five per cent thereof as above provided.

When such reorganization becomes effective, all books, records, and assets of the bank shall be disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the plan and the affairs of the bank shall be conducted by its board of directors in the manner provided by the plan and under the conditions, restrictions and limitations which may have been prescribed by the banking commissioner. In any reorganization which shall have been approved and shall have become effective as provided 107 herein, all depositors and other creditors and stockholders of 108 such bank, whether or not they shall have consented to such 109 plan of reorganization, shall be fully and in all respects sub-110 ject to and bound by its provisions, and claims of all depositors 111 and other creditors shall be treated as if they had consented 112 to such plan of reorganization.
113  (e) Fifteen days after the affairs of a banking institution 114 shall have been turned back to its board of directors by the 115 conservator, either with or without a reorganization as pro-
116 vided in subsection (d) hereof, the provisions of subsection
117 (c) hereof shall no longer be effective. Before the conservator 118 shall turn back the affairs of the institution to its board of 119 directors he shall publish in a newspaper published in the 120 municipality or county in which such bank is located, and 121 if no newspaper is so published, then in a newspaper of gen-122 eral circulation in the county in which the bank is located, a 123 notice in form approved by the commissioner, stating the 124 date on which the affairs of the banking institution will be 125 returned to its board of directors and that the said provisions 126 of subsection (c) will not be effective fifteen days after such 127 date. On the date of the publication of such notice the conservator shall send a copy of such notice by registered mail to the last known address of every person who is a depositor as shown by the records of the institution. The conservator shall send similar notice in like manner to every person making deposit in such institution under subsection (c) after the date of such newspaper publication and before the time when the affairs of the bank are returned to its directors.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair in any manner any powers of the governor or the commissioner of banking.

(g) The commissioner of banking is hereby authorized to prescribe such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary in order to carry out the provisions of this section.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
