WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1937

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 326

(By Mr. Calvert)

PASSED March 11, 1937

In Effect January 1, 1938

Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact section three, article three; to repeal sections two, three and four, article seven, and to enact sections two to two-g, inclusive, three to three-c, inclusive, and four to four-b, inclusive, article seven, all of chapter twenty of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to hunting and fishing licenses.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections two, three and four, article seven, chapter twenty of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be repealed and that section three, article three of said chapter be amended and reenacted, and sections two to two-g, inclusive, three to three-c, inclusive, and four to four-b, inclusive, be added to article seven, all of chapter twenty of the Article III.

Section 3. No person, not a citizen of the United States of America, shall at any time hunt, pursue, kill, or catch any wild animals or wild birds or wild fowl in this state, or have in his possession firearms of any kind, or fish for, capture, catch or kill any fish, frogs or turtles in this state, except when licensed as provided by section two-f, article seven, of this chapter.

Article VII.

Sec. 2. Licenses to hunt and fish shall be of the kinds and classes and shall be conditioned upon the payment of the fees, set forth in sections two-a through two-g of this article. A resident of the state sixty years of age or over shall not be required to obtain a license to fish with hook and line in the waters of the state.

Sec. 2-a. A class A license shall be a state-wide hunting and fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to hunt and fish in all counties of the state. It shall be issued only to a citizen of the United States who is a resident of this state. The fee shall be two dollars.
Sec. 2-b. A class B license shall be a non-resident hunting and fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to hunt and fish in all counties of this state. It shall be issued only to a citizen of the United States who is a non-resident of this state. The fee shall be fifteen dollars.

Sec. 2-c. A class C license shall be a non-resident fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to fish in all counties of this state. It shall be issued only to a citizen of the United States who is a non-resident of this state. The fee shall be five dollars.

Sec. 2-d. A class D license shall be a tourist fishing license, and shall entitle the licensee to fish in all counties of this state for a period not to exceed one day. The license shall state in hours the exact time at which the license expires, and shall be returned by the licensee to the office of issue within forty-eight hours after expiration. It shall be issued only to a citizen of the United States who is a non-resident of this state. The fee shall be one dollar.

Sec. 2-e. A class E license shall be an Ohio River hunting and fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to hunt and fish in the Ohio River only. It shall be issued only to a citizen of the United States who is a resident of Ohio. The fee shall be one dollar.

Sec. 2-f. A class F license shall be an alien hunting and fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to hunt and fish in all counties of this state. It shall be issued only to an alien who is not a resident of the United States, and to whom a permit has been issued in accordance with section three of this article. The fee shall be fifteen dollars.

Sec. 2-g. A class G license shall be a courtesy hunting and fishing license and shall entitle the licensee to hunt and fish in all counties of this state. It shall be issued by the director upon application made to him and without fee to:

1. Members and agents of the United States biological survey and bureau of fisheries.
2. Members of state commissions of other states extending similar courtesies.
3. Diplomatic and consular representatives of foreign countries.
4. Persons engaged in scientific research.

Not more than fifty courtesy licenses shall be issued in one year.
Sec. 3. A person eligible for a license under section two-a to two-f inclusive of this article shall make application as follows:

1. A resident of this state shall make application to the clerk of the county court in which he resides.

2. A non-resident of this state may make application to the clerk of the county court of any county in this state.

3. A citizen of Ohio applying for a class E license shall make application to the clerk of the county court of a county bordering upon the state of Ohio.

4. An alien, making application for a class F license, shall first apply to the director for the issuance of a permit to obtain a class F license. The director shall issue the permit if he is satisfied that the applicant is legally entitled to a class F license and has bona fide intentions to exercise the license in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. After issuance of the permit an alien may apply to the clerk of the county court of any county in the state for the issuance of a class F license in the same manner as a non-resident of this state. A permit shall remain in force until revoked.

Sec. 3-a. Application may be made in person or by mail.
The applicant shall pay the license fee at the time of making application. If application is made by mail the applicant shall include postage for the return of the license.

The applicant shall make out and sign the application under oath. The application shall be sworn to in the presence of a person authorized to take affidavits. In the case of a non-resident, the application may be sworn to before a person authorized to take affidavits in the state of the applicant's residence, and such person shall affix his seal to the application.

Sec. 3-b. Applications shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the director. The application shall state at least the following:

1. The class of license for which application is made.
2. The name, age, occupation or profession of the applicant.
3. The residence and citizenship of the applicant.
4. The weight, height, color of hair, and eyes, and the complexion of the applicant.

Sec. 3-c. The clerk of the county court to whom application is made shall issue the license if, to the best of his knowledge and information,

1. The applicant is legally entitled to obtain the license.

2. The proper license is applied for.

3. The application form contains the required information and the information is accurate.

4. The fee has been paid.

A license shall be signed by the clerk of the county court, shall bear the seal of the county court of the county where issued, and shall bear a serial number. With the license the clerk shall deliver the badge provided for by section four of this article.

The clerk shall keep an accurate record, in the form prescribed by the director, of all licenses issued and of all moneys collected as license fees.

Sec. 4. The director shall prepare and furnish to the clerks of the county courts of the state:

1. Application form for each class of license authorized by this article.

2. Licenses to be issued to applicants.

3. Badges to be issued with licenses, without additional fee. The badge shall show the class of license.
Sec. 4-a. A licensee shall, while exercising the privilege of the license, have his license and the badge upon his person at all times. The licensee shall display the badge upon his outer garment so as to be plainly visible.

Sec. 4-b. At least forty per cent of the moneys derived from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses shall be used for the protection and propagation of game and fish.

I certify that the foregoing act, having been presented to the Governor for his approval, and not having been returned by him to the House of the Legislature in which it originated within the time prescribed by the constitution of the state, has become a law without his approval.

This the 19th day of March, 1937.
