ENROLLED

House Bill No. 446

(By Mr. LaFon)

[Passed March 13, 1937; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend article three by adding thereto section ten-a; to amend and reenact section three, article seven; and to amend article seven by adding thereto sections three-a, three-b and three-c; all of chapter nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as enacted by chapter one, acts of the Legislature of West Virginia, first extraordinary session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six, relating to institutional care under the public welfare law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section ten-a be added to article three, section three of article seven be amended, and sections three-a, three-b, and three-c be added to article seven, all of chapter nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended by chapter one, acts of the first extraordinary session of one thousand nine hundred thirty-six so as to read as follows:

Article III.

Section 10-a. Temporary Assembly Institutions. The state

- 2 department, upon the approval of the advisory board, may
- 3 maintain such temporary assembly institutions as are neces-
- 4 sary for the temporary care, maintenance, and training of
- 5 children and persons needing institutional protection.

Article VII,

- Section 3. Two or More Counties. The county courts of two
- 2 or more adjoining counties may establish jointly an institution
 - 3 for general relief and contribute to the expense of establishing
 - 4 and maintaining it in the proportions and under the regula-
 - 5 tions agreed upon, or a county court of one county may con-
 - 6 tract for the maintenance of persons eligible for institutional
 - 7 care with the county court of another county maintaining an
 - 8 institution, and the second second
- 9 Where an institution is jointly established the management
 - 10 shall be in the county court of the county where the institu-
- 11 tion is situated unless otherwise agreed by the county courts
- 12 concerned.
- Sec. 3-a. Assistance by County Council. If a county court
 - 2 has complied with the maximum levy requirements of section

- 3 five of article ten and there is still an insufficient amount to
- 4 maintain a county infirmary or institution the county council
- 5 may contribute to the support of that institution or infirmary.

Sec. 3-b. County Council Management. A county court

- 2 and county council may transfer by written agreement the
- 3 management and operation of a county infirmary or institu-
- 4 tion from the county court to the county council. The trans-
- 5 ference of management and operation, however, shall not re-
- 6 lieve the county court from the obligation to levy for the
- 7 support of such institution or infirmary according to the pro-
- 8 visions of section five of article ten of this chapter.

Sec. 3-c. Maintenance of Institutional Cases in Other

- 2 Counties. If the maintenance of persons in a county institu-
- 3 tion or infirmary within the county is determined to be un-
- 4 economical, undesirable, or impractical by the county council,
- 5 the council may contract with the county court or county
- 6 council of another county for the institutional care and main-
- 7 tenance of such persons.
- 8 If the state director determines that efficiency and economy
- 9 in the administration of the department can be achieved by
- 10 the transference of persons from a county infirmary or insti-
- 11 tution in one county to an institution in another county he
- 12 may order such transference if such transfer does not result
- 13 in unreasonable separation of persons.
