WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1939

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 300

(By Mr. [Signature])

PASSED March 8, 1939

In Effect ninety days from Passage

House Bill No. 300

(By Mr. Speaker, Mr. Thomas)

[Passed March 8, 1939; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to provide for the submission to the voters of the state of an amendment to article eight of the constitution of the state of West Virginia, to be known as the "Judiciary Amendment".

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 1. Submitting an Amendment to Article Eight of the Constitution. The question of the ratification or rejection of an amendment to the constitution of the State of West Virginia, proposed in accordance with the provisions of section two, article fourteen of said constitution, amending article eight of said constitution, by substituting a new article eight in lieu of said article as it now exists, shall be submitted to the voters of the state at the next general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred forty, which proposed amendment is as follows:
Proposed Amendment

Article 8. Judicial Department.

Section 1. Judicial Department. The judicial power of the State shall be vested in a Supreme Court of Appeals, in circuit courts, in such inferior courts and tribunals as are herein authorized, and in the judges of each of said courts and tribunals.

Sec. 2. Supreme Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court of Appeals shall consist of five judges. They shall be elected by the voters of the State and shall hold office for the term of twelve years, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution. They shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by law, and the salary of no judge shall be diminished during the term for which such judge shall have been elected. Any judge in office when this article takes effect shall continue in office until his term shall expire, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution. A majority of the judges of such court shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

Sec. 3. Provisions for Filling Supreme Court Vacancies.

If from any cause a vacancy shall occur in the Supreme Court of Appeals, the Governor shall issue a writ of election to fill such vacancy at the next general election for the residue of the term; and in the meantime, he shall fill such vacancy by appointment until a judge shall be elected and qualified. But if the unexpired term be less than two years, the Governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term. The Legislature shall make provision by law for selection of a substitute judge to act in lieu of any judge of such court during his temporary incapacity to perform the duties of his office and shall fix the compensation of such substitute judge.

Sec. 4. Scope of Jurisdiction of Supreme Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court of Appeals shall have original jurisdiction in cases of habeas corpus, mandamus, prohibition and certiorari. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in civil cases where the matter in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, is of greater value or amount than three hundred dollars; in controversies concerning the title or boundaries of land, the probate of wills, or the appointment or qualification of a personal representative, guardian, committee or curator; in controversies concerning a mill, road, way, ferry, or landing, or concerning the right of a corporation or county to levy tolls or taxes; in cases of quo warranto, habeas corpus, mandamus, certiorari, and prohibition; and in cases involving freedom or the constitutionality of a law. It shall have appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases where there has been a conviction of a felony or a misdemeanor in a circuit court, and such appellate jurisdiction where there has been a conviction in a criminal case in an inferior court as may be conferred upon it by law. It shall have such other appellate jurisdiction, in both civil and criminal cases, as may be prescribed by law. It shall have general supervisory control over all circuit and inferior courts and tribunals under such regulations as may be prescribed by law. In cases relating to the public revenue, whether civil or criminal, the right of appeal shall belong to the State as well as the defendant.

Sec. 5. Writ of Error, Supersedeas and Appeals; Scope and Form of Decisions. A writ of error, supersedeas, or appeal for review by the Supreme Court of Appeals of any action, suit or proceeding shall be allowed only by the Supreme Court of Appeals, or a judge thereof, upon a petition assign-6 ing error in the judgment, decree or procedure of the cir-7 cuit or inferior court, and then only after said court or 8 judge shall have examined and considered the record and as-9 signment of errors and shall be satisfied that there is error 10 in such judgment, decree or procedure, or that the record 11 presents a point proper for the consideration of the Supreme 12 Court of Appeals.
13 No decision rendered by the Supreme Court of Appeals 14 shall be considered as binding upon any of the circuit or in-15 ferior courts of the State, except in the particular case de-16 cided, unless at least three judges of said court concur therein.
17 When a judgment or decree is reversed, modified or af-18 firmed by the Supreme Court of Appeals, every point fairly 19 arising upon the record shall be considered and decided; the 20 reasons therefor shall be concisely stated in writing and pre-21 served with the record; and it shall be the duty of the court 22 to prepare a syllabus of the points adjudicated in each case 23 in which at least three judges of said court concur. The 24 syllabus shall be prefixed to the published report of the 25 case.

Sec. 6. Officers of the Supreme Court of Appeals. The 2 officers of the Supreme Court of Appeals, except the reporter, shall be appointed and may be removed by the court or, in vacation of the court, by the judges thereof. Their duties and compensation shall be prescribed by law.

Sec. 7. Terms of Supreme Court of Appeals. At least two terms of the Supreme Court of Appeals shall be held annually at such times and places as may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 8. Circuit Courts and the Judges and Terms Thereof.
The existing judicial circuits shall remain as they are until changed by law, but the Legislature may rearrange the circuits at any session thereof next preceding any general election of the judges of said circuits, and may increase or diminish the number thereof. A judge of a circuit court in oflice at the time of any such change shall continue a judge of the circuit in which he shall reside after such change until the expiration of the term for which he shall have been elected, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution.

The judges shall be elected in each circuit by the voters thereof. The number of judges to be elected in each circuit shall be in proportion to the population of the circuit to be determined by the latest official census of the United States. The Legislature shall determine the proportion, which shall be as nearly as practicable uniform for all the circuits in the State. Each of the judges so elected shall hold office for the term of eight years, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution, but the Legislature shall, if necessary, fix at less than eight years the first term of the first judge elected to fill any newly created circuit judgeship in order that the terms of all circuit judges may expire at the same time. A vacancy in the office of judge of the circuit court shall be filled in the same manner as a vacancy in the office of judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals. During his continuance in office, a judge of a circuit court shall reside in the circuit of which he is a judge. Any judge of a circuit court in office when this article takes effect shall continue in office until his term expires, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution.

At least three regular terms of the circuit court shall in each year be held in every county in the State. Provision by law may be made for holding special terms of the circuit court. Provision by law may also be made for holding regular and special terms thereof when, from any cause, a judge shall fail to attend or cannot properly preside. A judge of any circuit may be authorized by the Legislature or may be authorized or required by the Supreme Court of Appeals to hold court in any other circuit. Until action is taken by the Supreme Court of Appeals, the Legislature shall by law make provision for dividing the business of those circuits in which there shall be more than one judge among the judges thereof so as to promote and secure the convenient and expeditious transaction of such business.

Sec. 9. Jurisdiction of Circuit Courts. The circuit courts shall have supervision and control of all proceedings before all inferior tribunals in their respective counties by mandamus, prohibition and certiorari. They shall, except in cases confined exclusively by this Constitution to some other tribunal, have original and general jurisdiction of all matters at law where the amount in controversy, exclusive of interest and costs, exceeds two hundred dollars; of all cases of habeas corpus, mandamus, quo warranto and prohibition; and of all crimes and misdemeanors. They shall have ex-exclusive, original and general jurisdiction in all cases in equity. They shall have appellate jurisdiction in all cases, civil and criminal, where an appeal, writ of error, or super-seas may be allowed to the judgment or proceedings of any county court, summary court, or inferior tribunal. The circuit courts shall have all judicial power, authority, and jurisdiction not vested by this Constitution or by the laws consistent therewith in some other court or tribunal. They shall also have such other jurisdiction, whether supervisory; original, appellate, or concurrent, as is or may be prescribed by law.

Sec. 10. General Provisions Relating to Judges. All judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals and of the circuit courts shall be commissioned by the Governor and shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by law. The salary of no judge shall be diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected. Such judges may receive the mileage provided by law. No judge, during his term of office, shall practice the profession of law; nor shall he hold any other office than that of judge, or accept any appointment or public trust, under this or any other government, except as provided by law; nor shall he, during his continuance in office, be eligible to any political office, or become a candidate for any elective office or nomination thereto, except a judicial office; and the violation of any of these provisions shall vacate his office.

Sec. 11. How Judges May be Removed from Office. Any judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals or of a circuit court may be removed from office by a vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each House of the Legislature, each House voting separately, when from age, disease, mental or bodily infirmity, or intemperance, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office. No judge shall be removed by virtue of this section unless he shall have had an opportunity to be heard in a joint meeting of both Houses, nor unless he shall have received notice of the proceeding, with a statement of the cause or causes alleged for his removal, at least twenty days before the day on which action is taken. Such notice may be given only upon the vote of a majority of the members of each House present. In case of removal, a statement of the cause or causes of removal shall be entered upon the journal of each House.
Sec. 12. Clerks of Circuit Courts. The voters of each county shall elect a clerk of the circuit court, whose term of office shall be six years. His duties and compensation and the manner of removing him from office shall be prescribed by law. He may be required by law to perform duties in addition to those pertaining to his office as clerk of the circuit court. When a vacancy shall occur in the office, the circuit court or the judge or judges thereof in vacation shall fill the same by appointment until the next general election. If the vacancy shall not be filled within ten days, then it shall be filled by the Governor by appointment. In any case in respect to which the clerk shall be so situated as to make it improper for him to act, the said court shall appoint a clerk to act therein. The clerks of said courts in office when this article takes effect shall remain therein for the term for which they were elected, unless sooner removed in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 13. Summary Courts. The Legislature shall establish in each county in the State a summary court. The Legislature shall determine the number of judges to be elected for each summary court and may provide for the election of one or more judges to preside over the summary courts of two or more contiguous counties. Each summary judge shall be elected by the voters of the county or counties in which he shall preside. Each of the judges so elected shall hold his office for the term of four years, unless sooner removed in a manner prescribed by this Constitution. No person shall be entitled to hold the office of summary judge unless at the time of his election and during his continuance in office he be a resident of the county or of one of the counties for which he is elected. The minimum age requirement for a judge of the summary court shall be twenty-five years, but nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring that a summary judge be a lawyer. A summary judge shall be commissioned by the Governor, shall receive such salary, allowance and mileage as may be fixed by law, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected, and shall be paid, in the manner prescribed by law, by the county or counties for which he shall have been elected. Except as provided by law, no judge, during the term of his office, shall practice the profession of law; nor, except as provided by law, shall he hold any other office than that of 30 a judicial office; and the violation of any of these provisions shall vacate his office. A summary judge may be removed from office by the Supreme Court of Appeals when from age, disease, mental or bodily infirmity, or intemperance, he is incapable of discharging the duties of his office. The procedure for such removal shall be prescribed by law. Any judge against whom a proceeding for removal from office is to be instituted shall, prior thereto, receive reasonable notice of the cause, or causes, alleged for such removal.

39 In those counties where there shall be more than one summary judge, the Legislature shall, until action is taken by the Supreme Court of Appeals, make such provision for the distribution, assignment and conduct of the business of such court as shall promote and secure the convenient and expeditious transaction thereof. A summary judge shall not be absent from his official duties except as may be prescribed by law. Provision shall be made by law for the conduct of the business of a summary court in cases where it is improper for a summary judge to act, or when he is absent, or when, for any reason, he cannot exercise the jurisdiction of such court, and for filling a vacancy in the office of summary judge.

The jurisdiction of a summary court shall extend throughout the county, shall be uniform for all counties of the State, and shall be subject to such regulations as to the venue of actions and the counties in which process may be executed or served on parties or witnesses as may be established by law.
Times and places for holding such court may be regulated by law, but, in the absence of such regulation, such court may be held at any time and anywhere within the county.

Summary courts shall have such jurisdiction, original or appellate, in criminal matters as may be prescribed by law.

In criminal cases, the procedure may be by information or warrant of arrest, without presentment or indictment by a grand jury. They shall have original jurisdiction in all civil actions at law wherein the amount in controversy or the value of personal property in controversy, or the aggregate of such amount and value, exclusive of interest and costs, shall not exceed five hundred dollars, except such actions as may be excluded from their jurisdiction by law; and in actions of unlawful detainer of real estate when the title thereto is not in controversy.

Appeals or writs of error shall lie from the judgments of a summary court to the circuit court of the county, and writs of error shall lie from the Supreme Court of Appeals to judgments of a summary court, in such cases and in such manner as may be prescribed by law.

No judgment of a summary court in any action involving real estate or any right pertaining thereto shall bar the title of any party or any remedy therefor; and no person shall be put in jeopardy of life or liberty for a felony in such court.

A trial jury in a summary court shall consist of six jurors.

Sec. 14. Municipal Courts. The Legislature may provide for the establishment in any incorporated city, town or vilage of a municipal, police or mayor's court, which shall have jurisdiction to enforce municipal ordinances, subject to appeal to the circuit court. All such courts heretofore established shall, until otherwise provided by law, remain as at present constituted insofar as their jurisdiction to enforce 8 municipal ordinances is concerned, but any other jurisdiction now exercised by such a court shall cease with the expiration of the term of office of the judge thereof.

Sec. 15. Jurisdiction and Terms of Office of Superseded Courts, Judges and Justices; Transfer of Causes. The terms of office of all justices of the peace and constables, elected or appointed, and qualified and serving at the time of the adoption of this article, are hereby extended to and including the thirty-first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred forty-two. A vacancy appointment of a justice of the peace or constable, made after this article is adopted, shall terminate on the thirty-first day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred forty-two. No justice of the peace shall hold office after the thirty-first day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-two; nor shall a judge of an inferior court of record of limited jurisdiction elected to office in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty hold office after the thirty-first day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-four. Otherwise, the adoption of this article shall not affect the term of office, or the jurisdiction during such term, of a judge of any inferior court of record of limited jurisdiction in office, or elected to office, at the time when this article takes effect, or the jurisdiction of such court during such term of office; or the term of office, or the jurisdiction during such term, of any justice of the peace in office, or elected to office, at such time. All actions, suits and proceedings pending in any inferior court of record of limited jurisdiction in any county at the time when the jurisdiction of such court shall cease with the expiration of the term of office of the judge thereof shall be transferred to the circuit court of the county and be prosecuted therein as if originally instituted in such circuit court. Whenever the jurisdiction of any justice of the peace shall cease with the expiration of his term of office, all matters then pending before him shall be transferred to the summary court of the county, if it has jurisdiction thereof; otherwise, to the circuit court of the county. After such transfer, such matters shall be disposed of in the summary court or the circuit court as if originally pending therein.

Sec. 16. Issuance of Writs, Warrants, and Process; Admission to Bail. The Legislature may designate courts, tribunals or officers who shall have the power to issue such 4 writs, warrants and other process as may be prescribed by law; may provide for the selection of other persons for the purpose of exercising such powers; and may specify before what courts, tribunals, officers, or persons such writs, warrants or other process shall be returnable. The Legislature may also designate courts, tribunals, or officers who shall have the power to admit persons to bail and may provide for the selection of other persons for the purpose of exercising such power. The powers mentioned in this section shall be exercised under such regulations as shall be prescribed by law; but no person exercising such powers shall be compensated therefor on a fee basis.

Sec. 17. Parts of Common Law Effective; Matters Pending in Circuit Courts. Such parts of the common law and of the laws of this State as are in force when this article goes into operation, and are not repugnant thereto, shall be and continue the law of the State until altered or repealed by the Legislature. All civil and criminal suits and proceedings pending in the circuit courts of this State shall remain and be prosecuted in the circuit courts of the counties in which they are pending.
Sec. 18. County Courts. Except as otherwise provided in this article, there shall be in each county in the State a county court composed of three commissioners. Two of said commissioners shall be a quorum for the transaction of business. Four regular sessions of said court shall be held in each year, at such times as may be fixed and entered of record by the said court. Provision may be made by law for holding special sessions of said court.

Sec. 19. County Commissioners. The commissioners shall be elected by the voters of the county and shall hold their office for the term of six years, except that, at the first meeting of said commissioners, if all shall have been elected at the same time, they shall designate by lot, or otherwise, in such manner as they may determine, one of their number who shall hold his office for the term of two years, one for four years, and one for six years, so that one shall be elected every two years. No two of said commissioners shall be elected from the same magisterial district. If two or more persons residing in the same district shall receive the greater numbers of votes cast at any election, then only the one of such persons receiving the highest number shall be de-
Enrolled H. B. No. 3001

14 clared elected, and the person residing in another district 15 who shall receive the next highest number of votes shall be 16 declared elected. A commissioner in office at the time when 17 this article takes effect shall remain therein until the ex-18 piration of his term of office, unless sooner removed in the 19 manner provided by this Constitution. Said commissioners 20 shall annually elect one of their number president. Each 21 commissioner shall receive such salary as may be prescribed 22 by law and no commissioner shall receive for his services, 23 other than such salary, any reward, compensation or benefit 24 out of public funds; nor shall he be interested in any con-25 tract with the county.

Sec. 20. Powers of County Courts. The county courts, 2 through their clerks, except as may be otherwise provided by 3 law, shall have the custody of all deeds and other papers pre-4 sented for record in their counties, and the same shall be 5 preserved therein, or otherwise disposed of, as prescribed by 6 law. They shall, under such regulations as may be pre-7 scribed by law, have the superintendence and administra-8 tion of the internal police and fiscal affairs of the county, in-9 cluding, where such functions are not required by law to be performed by some other agency, the establishment and regulation of roads, ways, bridges, public landings, ferries and mills, and shall have authority to lay and disburse county levies; but no license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in any incorporated city, town or village shall be granted without the consent of the municipal authorities thereof first had and obtained. They shall, in all cases of contest, judge of the election, qualification and return of their own members, and of all county and district officers, subject to such regulations, by appeal or otherwise, as may be prescribed by law. Such courts may exercise such other powers, and perform such other duties, not of a judicial nature, as may be prescribed by law. Such tribunals as have been heretofore established by the Legislature and are now in existence under and by virtue of the thirty-fourth section of the eighth article of the Constitution of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, for police and fiscal purposes, shall, until otherwise provided by law, remain and continue as at present constituted in the counties in which they have been respectively established, and shall be and act as to police and fiscal matters in lieu of the county court created by this article until otherwise provided by law. And, until otherwise provided by law, such clerk as is mentioned in the twenty-second section of this article shall exercise any powers and discharge any duties heretofore conferred on, or required of, any court or tribunal established for judicial purposes under said article and section of the Constitution of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, or the clerk of such court or tribunal, respectively, respecting the recording and preservation of deeds and other papers presented for record.

Sec. 21. Jurisdiction in Matters of Probate, Etc. Jurisdiction in all matters of probate, the appointment and qualification of a personal representative, guardian, committee, or curator, and the settlement of their accounts, and in the matter of apprentices, shall be in such courts or tribunals and the clerks thereof as may be prescribed by law, such jurisdiction to be exercised by such courts, tribunals or clerks, respectively, to the extent and in the manner to be prescribed by law; but, until the Legislature shall provide otherwise, jurisdiction in all such matters shall remain in the county courts and the clerks thereof, under such regulations as are now or may be hereafter prescribed by law.
13 Should jurisdiction in such matters be changed, provision 14 shall be made by law for the transfer of all such matters 15 then pending in the county courts to the courts or tribunals 16 to which such jurisdiction shall have been transferred, and 17 such disposition shall be made of records and papers in the 18 offices of clerks of the county courts relating to matters of 19 probate, the appointment and qualification of personal repre-20 sentatives, guardians, committees, and curators and the set-21 tlement of their accounts, and in the matter of apprentices, 22 as shall be prescribed by law.

Sec. 22. Clerk of the County Court. Except as otherwise 2 provided by law, the voters of each county shall elect a clerk 3 of the county court, whose term of office shall be six years.
4 His duties and compensation and the manner of his removal 5 from office shall be prescribed by law. The clerks of said 6 courts now in office shall remain therein for the terms for 7 which they have been elected, unless sooner removed there-8 from in the manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 23. Districting of Counties. Each county shall be laid 2 off into districts, not less than three nor more than ten in number, and as nearly equal as may be in territory and population. The districts as they now exist shall remain until changed by the county court.

Sec. 24. Re-formation of County Courts. The Legislature shall, upon the application of any county, reform, alter or modify the county court established by this article in such county, and, in lieu thereof, with the assent of a majority of the voters of such county voting at an election, create another tribunal for the transaction of the business required to be performed by the county court created by this article; and in such case, all the provisions of this article in relation to the county court shall be applicable to the tribunal established in lieu of said court. Any such tribunal now established, or which shall be established, shall continue to act in lieu of the county court until otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 25. Vacancies in Offices. Vacancies in the office of a commissioner and in the office of clerk of the county court in any county shall be filled by the county court of the county until the next general election. If there be at the same time in the same county more than one vacancy in the office of commissioner, such vacancies shall be filled by the Sec. 26. Office of Constable Abolished. The provisions of section thirteen of article six and the provisions of sections two and seven of article nine of this Constitution, to the extent only that they provide for the office of constable, are hereby repealed after the thirty-first day of December in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

Sec. 2. Amendment to be Known as the Judiciary Amendment. For convenience in referring to said proposed amendment and in the preparation of the form of the ballot hereinafter provided for, said proposed amendment is hereby designated and shall be known as the "Judiciary Amendment."

Sec. 3. Form of Ballot; Election. For the purpose of enabling the voters of the state to vote on the question of said proposed amendment to the constitution at the general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred forty, the board of ballot commissioners of each county is hereby required to place upon, and at the foot of, the official ballot to be voted at said election, the following:

Ballot on constitutional "Judiciary Amendment" amending article eight of the state constitution.
For ratification of "Judiciary Amendment".

Against ratification of "Judiciary Amendment".

The election on the proposed amendment, at each place of voting, shall be superintended, conducted and returned, and the result thereof ascertained by the same officers and in the same manner as the election of officers to be voted for at said election; and all of the provisions of law relating to general elections, including all duties to be performed by any officer or board, as far as applicable and not inconsistent with anything herein contained, shall apply to the election held under the provisions of this act, except when it is herein otherwise provided. The ballots cast on the question of said proposed amendment shall be counted as other ballots cast at said election.

Sec. 4. Certificates of Election Commissioners; Canvass of vote; Certifying Result. As soon as the result is ascertained the commissioners, or a majority of them, and the canvassers (if there be any), or a majority of them, at each place of voting, shall make out and sign two certificates thereof in the following form or to the following effect:

"We, the undersigned, who acted as commissioners (or canvassers, as the case may be), of the election held at precinct number............, in the district of ................., in the county of ................., on the ........ day of November, one thousand nine hundred forty, upon the question of the ratification or rejection of the proposed constitutional amendment to article eight, do hereby certify that the result of said election is as follows:

Amending article eight:

For ratification of "Judiciary Amendment"............. votes
Against ratification of "Judiciary Amendment"........ votes

Given under our hands this ....... day of November, one thousand nine hundred forty.''

The said two certificates shall correspond with each other in all respects, and contain the full and true returns of said election at each place of voting on said question. The said commissioners, or any one of them (or said canvassers, or any one of them, as the case may be), shall within four days, excluding Sunday, after that on which said election was held, deliver one of said certificates to the clerk of the county court of his county, together with the ballots, and the other to the clerk of the circuit court of his county.
The said certificates, together with the ballots cast on the question of said proposed amendment, shall be laid before the commissioners of the county court at the courthouse at the same time the ballots, poll books and the certificates of the election for the members of the Legislature are laid before them; and as soon as the result of said election in the county upon the question of such ratification or rejection is ascertained, two certificates of such result shall be made out and signed by said commissioners, as a board of canvassers, in the following form or to the following effect:

"We, the board of canvassers of the county of................., having carefully and impartially examined the returns of the election held in said county, in each district thereof, on the ..........day of November, one thousand nine hundred forty, do certify that the result of the election in said county, on the question of the ratification or rejection of the proposed constitutional amendment to article eight, is as follows:

For ratification of "Judiciary Amendment".................votes.

Against ratification of "Judiciary Amendment"...........votes.

Given under our hands this........day of...................., one thousand nine hundred forty."

One of the certificates shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and the other forwarded by mail to the secretary of state, who shall file and preserve the same until the day on which the result of said election in the state is to be ascertained, as hereinafter stated.

Sec. 5. Proclamation of Result of Election by Governor.

On the twenty-fifth day after the election is held, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the said certificates shall be laid before the Governor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain therefrom the result of said election in the state, and declare the same by proclamation published in one or more newspapers printed at the seat of government. If a majority of the votes cast at said election upon said question be for the ratification of the said amendment, the proposed amendment so ratified shall be of force and effect from and after the time of such ratification as part of the constitution of the state.

Sec. 6. Publication of Proposed Amendment by Governor.

The Governor shall cause the said proposed amendment, with the proper designation for the same as hereinbefore adopted, to be published one time, at least three months before such election, in some newspaper in every county in this state in which a newspaper is printed, at a price to be agreed upon in advance in writing, and the cost of such advertising shall in the first instance, if found necessary by him, be paid out of the Governor's contingent fund and be afterwards repaid to such fund by appropriation of the Legislature.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
