(BY MR. LAFON, Mr. President)

[Passed March 10, 1939; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section four, article four, chapter three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to presidential preference in general primary elections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section four, article four, chapter three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 4. Presidential Preference. In presidential election years, in addition to the candidates hereinbefore required to be nominated at the general primary election, the

4 qualified voters of each political party shall have the oppor-
5 tunity of voting for their choice among those aspiring to be 6 the candidates of their respective parties for president of the 7 United States. The names of such aspirants shall be printed 8 on the official election ballot of their respective parties, as 9 provided in section twelve of this article, upon the filing with 10 the secretary of state the announcement as provided in section 11 seven of this article, and the ballot shall be marked and the 12 vote shall be counted, canvassed and returned under the same 13 conditions as to names, certificates and other matters, as the 14 names and certificates of the party aspirants for the party
15 nomination for the office of governor.
