151

ENROLLED
House Bill No. 155
(By MR. AMOS)

[Passed March 6, 1941; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section eighteen, article nine, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to the adoption of the new method of street paving.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section eighteen, article nine, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 18. Proceedings Liberally Construed and New

2 Method Cumulative.—In order to secure a speedy com-
3 pletion of the work at a reasonable cost, and the speedy
4 collection of the assessments after the time has elapsed
5 for their payments, proceedings with respect to improve-
6 ments shall be liberally construed by council or court,
7 and merely formal objections in such cases shall be dis-

8 regarded; and the adoption of the new method of paving
9 streets shall not be deemed to be the adoption of an
10 exclusive method but shall be deemed and construed as 11 the adoption of an available method additional to any 12 others which may have theretofore been available by 13 charter or general law or which may hereafter become 14 available.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
