COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE FOR

House Bill No. 81

[Passed February 27, 1941; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section four, article eleven, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to state inheritance taxes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section four, article eleven, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Article 11. Inheritance and Transfer Taxes.

Section 4. Exemptions.—(a) All property transferred to the state or to any county, school district or municipal corporation thereof for public purposes shall be exempt from taxation under this article.

(b) No transfer of less than one hundred dollars shall be taxable under this article. For this purpose all transfers from a decedent to the same transferee shall be treated as a unit.

(c) In computing the tax upon property transferred to a widow of a deceased person, an exemption of fifteen thousand dollars shall be allowed.

(d) In computing the tax upon property transferred to any person within the classes described in sub-section (a) of section two, other than a wife, an exemption of five thousand dollars shall be allowed.

The decedents of any child referred to in sub-section (a) of section two shall be allowed the exemption of the person they represent per stirpes and not per capita.

(e) There shall be exempt from taxation under this article all property transferred to a person or corporation, in trust or for use solely for educational, literary, scientific, religious or charitable purposes: Provided, however, that the property so transferred for the purposes herein mentioned and the rentals, profits and proceeds thereof, are used exclusively in this state.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
