(Originating in the committee on Education)
(By Mr. ________________________________)

PASSED March 5, 1943

In Effect July 1, 1943
AN ACT to amend and renact section one, article twelve, chapter eighteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended, relating to State Teachers' Colleges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article twelve, chapter eighteen of the code of West Virgignia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 1. Change of Names; Continuation and Management.—The state teachers' colleges heretofore established and known as state normal schools shall be continued and shall be known respectively, as follows: “Fairmont State College,” “Shepherd College,” “Glenville State College," "West Liberty State College" and "Concord College." The educational affairs of the aforesaid institutions shall be under the control, supervision and management of the state board of education, as provided in section thirteen, article two of this chapter, and their financial and business affairs shall be under the charge and control of the state board of control, as provided in section four, article one, chapter twenty-five of this code. The functions of these colleges shall continue to be the preparation of teachers through such courses of study as the faculties thereof may prescribe with the approval of the state board of education, and also the offering of such curricula in general and vocational education as the state board of education may direct or approve. The colleges are authorized to grant the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science to students completing the curricula for such degrees as approved by the state board of education. The rules and regulations made by the presidents and faculties of these colleges for their general government, for the admission of students thereto, the standards of scholarship to be maintained therein and the graduation of students therefrom shall be submitted to the state board of education for its approval. The president and teachers of each of the colleges shall be persons of broad and liberal education, as evidenced by the possession of a bachelor's degree from a standard college or university, or the equivalent thereof, as a minimum requirement.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
