ENROLLED
SENATE COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
Senate Bill No. 212

[Passed March 12, 1943; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact article four, chapter three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, by adding two new sections thereto, to be known as sections four-a and four-b, relating to the qualifications of judges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article four, chapter three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, be amended and re-enacted by adding thereto two new sections, numbered four-a and four-b, to read as follows:
Section 4-a. Qualifications for Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals. A candidate for the office of judge of the supreme court of appeals must have attained the age of thirty years and have been a citizen of the state for five years next preceding the date of his election, and shall be an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the courts of this state, and shall have been admitted to practice in the supreme court of appeals for at least ten years prior to the date of his election.

Sec. 4-b. Qualifications for Judges of Courts of Record. A candidate for the office of judge of the circuit court or judge of a court of record of limited jurisdiction other than a county court must have attained the age of thirty years and have been a citizen of the state for five years next preceding the date of his election and shall be an attorney duly licensed to practice law in the courts of this state, and shall have been admitted to practice for at least five years prior to the date of his election.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
