Sec. 12. Form and Contents of Ballots. The official primary ballot shall contain at the left of each column of names of candidates, a perpendicular column, and shall be so printed as to leave a square at the left of each name on the ballot.

On such primary ballot, the names of candidates for president of the United States, for United States senator, for representative in congress, and for delegates and alternate delegates for the national convention of the party, shall be placed in the first column of candidates; the names of candidates for all state offices, and all other offices to be filled by the voters of a political division greater than a county, including the state executive committee but excluding candidates for the offices of judge of the first judicial circuit, in the second column; the names of all candidates for county offices, including members of the house of delegates, and congressional, judicial and senatorial executive committees but excluding candidates for the office of judge of any inferior court of record in any county of the first judicial circuit, shall be placed in the third column; and the names of all candidates for office in the magisterial districts shall be placed in the fourth column.

The face of every primary election ballot shall conform as nearly as practicable to that used at the general election.

The secretary of state, or the circuit court clerk, as the case may be, shall arrange the names of the candidates to be printed on the ballot in alphabetical order, according to the surname, under the title of the respective ofices upon the ballot.

Immediately below the space so provided on the bal-

The names of the candidates for nomination to the reber of candidates for which each voter is entitled to vote shall be printed beneath said caption, without reference to political party affiliation.

In printing each set of ballots the position of the names of the candidates shall be changed in each office division as many times as there are candidates in that office division. As nearly as possible an equal number of ballots shall be printed after each change. In making the change of position, the printer shall take the line of type containing the first name in the office division concerned and place it at the bottom of the list of names in that division and move up the column so that the name that before was second shall be first, after the change. After the ballots are printed they shall be kept in separate piles, one pile for each change in position, and shall then be gathered by taking one from each pile. Sample ballots shall be in the same form as the official ballot, but the order of the names thereon need not be alternated.

All ballots used in primary elections shall be printed on paper conforming as nearly as practicable in weight, texture, and color to the samples furnished by the secretary of state, and the paper shall be sufficiently thick so that the printing cannot be discernible from the back.
On the back of the ballot shall be printed in black ink and in plain, legible, black face pica type, the name of the political party as contained in the heading, followed by the word "ballot." Under this designation shall be printed two blank lines followed by the words "poll
