ENROLLED

House Bill No. 112

(By MR. HANSBARGER)

[Passed February 15, 1945; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended by chapter eighty-two, acts of the Legislature, regular session, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, relating to the tax commissioner, and authorizing the attorney general, upon the request of the tax commissioner, to select and appoint an assistant attorney general, to perform, under the supervision and direction of the attorney general, such duties as may be required of him by the tax commissioner.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 1. Tax Commissioner.—There shall be a tax
2 commissioner who shall be appointed by the governor,
3 by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The 4 tax commissioner in office when this code takes effect
5 shall, unless sooner removed, continue to serve until his 6 term expires, and his successor has been appointed and 7 has qualified. On or before the first day of March, nine-
8 teen hundred thirty-five, and on or before the first day
9 of March of each sixth year thereafter, the governor
10 shall appoint a tax commissioner for a term of six years,
11 commencing on said first day of March. The person so
12 appointed shall take the oath or affirmation prescribed 13 by section five of article four of the constitution. He shall 14 give bond with good security, to be approved by the 15 governor, in the penalty of five thousand dollars. The 16 salary of the tax commissioner shall be six thousand dol-
17 lars a year. He shall be repaid his actual disbursements 18 for traveling expenses. He shall be provided with an of-19 fice in the capitol, and with such furniture and clerical
20 assistance as shall be necessary.

21 The tax commissioner, if he deem such action neces-

22 sary, may request the attorney general to appoint an 23 assistant attorney general, who shall perform, under the 24 supervision and direction of the attorney general, such 25 duties as may be required of him by the tax commis-
26 sioner. The attorney general, in pursuance of such re-
27 quest, may select and appoint an assistant attorney gen-
28 eral, to serve during the will and pleasure of the attor-
29 ney general, and such assistant shall receive a salary
30 not in excess of five thousand dollars per annum, to be 31 paid out of any funds made available for that purpose
32 by the Legislature to the office of the tax commissioner.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
