AN ACT to amend and reenact section nine, article three, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to eligibility of mayor, recorder, treasurer and councilmen of municipalities, and providing exemption from certain requirements to honorably discharged veterans of World War II.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section nine, article three, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 9. Eligibility of Mayor, Recorder, Treasurer and Councilmen.—The mayor, recorder, treasurer and councilmen must be residents of such municipality, must be legal voters entitled to vote for members of its council, and for the year preceding their election must have

6 been assessed with and paid taxes upon at least one hun-
7 dred dollars worth of real or personal property therein:
8 Provided, That, for two years after the date of his dis-
9 charge, the eligibility of any honorably discharged vet-
10 eran of World War II for any of such offices in any mu-
11 nicipality of this state, whether such municipality shall
12 have been created under general law or by special law,
13 shall not be affected or impaired by reason of his not
14 having been assessed with or paid taxes.
