House Bill No. 217
(By Mr. Trent)

[Passed February 25, 1949; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section twenty-one, article four, chapter thirty-three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, relating to exemptions from fire insurance statutes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section twenty-one, article four, chapter thirty-three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty­ one, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 21. Exemptions; Right to Secure Information;
2 Adjustments Obligatory at Request of Any Company;
3 Charges.—This article shall not apply to farmers' mutual
4 insurance companies organized under the laws of this 5 state; nor to the rolling stock of railroad corporations, or 6 property in transit while in the possession of railroad
7 companies or other common carriers, nor to the property of such common carriers used or employed by them in their business of carrying freight, merchandise or passengers: Provided, however, That any company, association, or person, licensed under the insurance laws of this state, may at their request be entitled to receive any or all of the rates, bulletins, and other information published or prepared by such rate making association, on payment of such reasonable charges as may be made: Provided further, That it shall be obligatory upon any adjuster, adjusting bureau or corporation making adjustments on any property or properties, insured in this state by more than one company, to make adjustments for any or all companies making request for same, charging each company making such request a pro rata amount of the expenses incurred in making such adjustment.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
