WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1949

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 391

(By Mr. ____________________)

PASSED March 14, 1949

In Effect 90 days from Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended, relating to the tax commissioner, and authorizing the attorney general, upon the request of the tax commissioner, to select and appoint an assistant attorney general, to perform, under the supervision and direction of the attorney general, such duties as may be required of him by the tax commissioner.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article one, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as last amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 1. Tax Commissioner; Appointment of Assistant Attorney General to Perform Duties of Commissioner.—

2 There shall be a tax commissioner who shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate. The tax commissioner in office when this code takes effect shall, unless sooner removed, continue to serve until his term expires, and his successor has been appointed and has qualified. On or before the first day of March, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, and on or before the first day of March of each sixth year thereafter, the governor shall appoint a tax commissioner for a term of six years, commencing on said first day of March. The person so appointed shall take the oath or affirmation prescribed by section five of article four of the constitution. He shall give bond with good security, to be approved by the governor, in the penalty of five thousand dollars. The salary of the tax commissioner shall be eight thousand dollars a year. He shall be repaid his actual disbursements for traveling expenses. He shall be provided with an office in the capitol, and with such furniture and clerical assistance as shall be necessary.
The tax commissioner, if he deem such action necessary, may request the attorney general to appoint an assistant attorney general, who shall perform, under the supervision and direction of the attorney general, such duties as may be required of him by the tax commissioner.
The attorney general, in pursuance of such request, may select and appoint an assistant attorney general, to serve during the will and pleasure of the attorney general, and such assistant shall receive a salary not in excess of six thousand dollars per annum, to be paid out of any funds made available for that purpose by the Legislature to the office of the tax commissioner.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
