ENROLLED

House Bill No. 190

(By MR. KIDD, of Gilmer)

[Passed February 27, 1951; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section three, article three, chapter five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to assistant attorneys general.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section three, article three, chapter five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 3. Assistants to Attorney General.—The attorney general may appoint four assistants to serve at his pleasure and to perform such duties as he may require of them. One of such assistants shall receive a salary not in excess of six thousand three hundred dollars per annum, and three of them shall each receive a salary not in excess of six thousand dollars per annum. And upon finding of the necessity therefor by the governor and at-

9 torney general, the attorney general may appoint not
10 more than one special assistant to serve at his pleasure
11 and to perform such duties as he may require of him for
12 such time as the governor and attorney general deter-
13 mine the necessity to continue, and he shall for the time
14 actually employed receive a salary not to exceed five
15 hundred dollars per month.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
