WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1951

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 238

(By Mr. Eddy)

PASSED March 9, 1951

In Effect Ninety Days from Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact sections one, two, six, seven, eight, nine, ten and fourteen, article seven, chapter thirty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, and to further amend said article seven, chapter thirty-one, by adding thereto a new section to be designated section nine-a, all relating to industrial loan companies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections one, two, six, seven, eight, nine, ten and fourteen, article seven, chapter thirty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted, and that said article seven, chapter Enr. S. B. No. 238

thirty-one, be further amended by adding thereto a new section to be designated section nine-a, all to read as follows:

Section 1. Definition.—The term "industrial loan company," as used in this chapter, shall mean any corporation formed under the provisions of this article with the approval of the commissioner of banking of this state.

Sec. 2. Incorporators; Name; Capital Stock.—Any number of persons, not fewer than thirteen, citizens of this state, may become an industrial loan company on the terms and conditions and subject to the liabilities prescribed by this article. The name of any corporation formed under this article may contain the words "industrial loan company," but such name shall not be that of any other existing corporation of this state. The capital stock of any such corporation shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall consist of shares of common stock. The voting power and control of the corporation during its life shall be vested in the common stock only if more than one class of stock is to be issued. Such common stock, with which it will commence business, shall be paid in before such corporation shall be authorized to engage in business, except such business as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization.

Sec. 6. Powers.—In addition to the general powers conferred upon corporations by the law of this state, each industrial loan company shall have power to exercise by its board of directors or duly authorized officers or agents, subject to law, all such powers as shall be necessary to:

(a) Lend money to any person, firm or corporation, secured by the obligation of such person, firm or corporation, or otherwise; and, in addition, to receive and require uniform periodical installments for the repayment of the loan;

(b) Sell or offer for sale its secured or unsecured evidences or certificates of indebtedness;

(c) Buy and sell bonds or choses in action of any person, firm or corporation;

(d) Impose a charge of five cents for each default in the payment of one dollar, or fraction thereof, at the time at which any periodical installment for the repayment of a loan becomes due;
(e) Demand and receive for loans or for notes, bills of evidences of debt discounted or purchased, such rate of interest as may be agreed upon by the parties, not exceeding the lawful rate of interest, and it shall be lawful to receive such interest in advance;

(f) Charge for a loan made pursuant to this section, one dollar for each fifty dollars, or fraction thereof, loaned, for expenses including any examination or investigation of the character and circumstances of the borrower, co-maker or surety, and the drawing and taking the acknowledgment of necessary papers, or other expenses, incurred in making the loan. No additional charge shall be made except to reimburse the corporation for money actually expended for additional service actually rendered the borrower. No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made as the result of such examination or investigation;

(g) Purchase, hold and convey real estate as follows:

(1) Such as shall be necessary for the convenient transaction of its business, including with its office other apartments or offices to rent as a source of income, which investment shall not exceed twenty-five per cent of its paid in capital stock and surplus;

(2) Such as is mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans made or money due to such industrial loan company;

(3) Such as is conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings;

(4) Such as it acquired by sale on execution or judgment or decree of any court in its favor.

Industrial loan companies shall not purchase, hold or convey any real estate in any other case or for any other purpose whatever. Real estate shall be conveyed only by authority of the board of directors of such industrial loan company. No real estate acquired in the cases contemplated in the second, third and fourth paragraphs of subdivision (g) shall be held for a longer time than five years, unless such period shall be extended by the commissioner of banking.

Sec. 7. Limitations.—A corporation under the provisions of this article shall not:

(a) Make any loan under the provisions of this article for a longer period than two years from the date thereof, except upon express authorization of the board of directors of such company; (b) Hold at any one time the primary obligation or obligations of any one person, firm or corporation, for more than ten per cent of the amount of the paid up capital and surplus of such industrial loan company; (c) Hold at any one time the obligation or obligations of persons, firms or corporations purchased from any person, firm or corporation in excess of twenty per cent of the aggregate paid up capital and surplus of such industrial loan company;
(d) Hold at any one time the obligation or obligations of persons, firms or corporations secured by real estate aggregating more than one-third of the aggregate paid up capital and surplus of such industrial loan company; (e) Make any loan or discount on the security of its own capital stock (controlling and voting stock, if there be more than one class), unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith. Stock so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale or otherwise disposed of within ninety days from the time of its purchase or acquisition;

(f) Have outstanding at any time its evidences or certificates of indebtedness, in an aggregate sum in excess of ten times the aggregate amount of its paid up capital (voting and controlling stock) and surplus;

(g) Deposit any of its funds with any other money corporation unless such corporation has been designated as such depository by a vote of the majority of the board of directors;

(h) Pledge or hypothecate any of its securities to any creditor, except that such companies shall have the power to rediscount or to borrow money from any source in addition to selling its evidences or certificates of indebtedness, but the aggregate amount of such rediscounting and borrowing shall at no time exceed the sum total of the capital, surplus and reserve funds of such company, and the security so pledged therefor shall not exceed two times the amount borrowed and rediscounted;

(i) Pay any fees, bonuses, commissions, rewards, or other consideration to any person, firm or corporation for the privilege of using any plan of operation, scheme or device for the organization or carrying on of business under this article, or the use of any name, trade-mark or copyright to be so used; nor shall any corporation under this article enter into any contract for such purpose or purposes, or for the purpose of giving to or vesting in any other corporation any power or authority over the organization or management of corporations under this article.

Sec. 8. Cash Reserve.—Every industrial loan company, under the provisions of this article, shall at all times maintain a cash reserve equal to five per cent of its issued and outstanding evidences or certificates of indebtedness;

Sec. 9. Annual and Special Meeting of Stockholders; Voting; Proxy; Fiscal Year.—The stockholders of each industrial loan company shall meet annually in the month of January, a majority of the outstanding voting stock to constitute a quorum; and it shall be the duty of the secretary to prepare and submit to the stockholders a clear and concise statement of the financial condition of the corporation as of the close of business on the first day of the month next preceding. At such meeting the stockholders shall elect a board of directors of not less than five, a majority of which shall be bona fide residents of the State of West Virginia. Special meetings may be called by order of the board of directors or by request in writing of ten per centum of the stockholders.

In all elections of directors of the corporation each stockholder shall have the right to cast one vote for each share of stock owned by him and entitled to vote, and he may cast the same in person or by proxy, for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or he may cumulate such votes and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal; or he may distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates and in such manner as he may desire, and the directors shall not be elected in any other manner, and on any other question to be determined by a vote of shares at any meeting of stockholders each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him and entitled to vote, and he may exercise this right in person or by proxy, but if by proxy, in no instance can it be voted in any meeting other than which it was first intended.

Sec. 9-a. Directors.—The affairs of every industrial loan company shall be managed by a board of not less than five directors who shall meet at least once each month, a majority of whom shall at all times be bona fide residents of this state, and shall own and hold in his own name at least five hundred dollars par value in un-pledged shares of the capital stock or voting stock of such company.

Immediately upon the adjournment of the stockholders' meeting or as soon thereafter as convenient, they shall meet and every director elected shall take an oath that he will, so far as duty devolves on him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such company, and will not knowingly and willingly violate, or permit to be violated, any of the provisions of this article, and that he is the owner in good faith, and in his own right, of at least five hundred dollars par value in shares of the capital stock of the company, as required by this section, 19 subscribed by him or standing in his name on the books 20 of said company, and that the same are not hypothecated 21 or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt.
22 Such oath, when subscribed by the director making it, 23 and certified by the officer before whom it was taken, 24 shall immediately be transmitted to the commissioner of 25 banking, and shall be filed and preserved in his office.
26 Should a director fail to subscribe to the oath herein pro-27 vided for within sixty days after notice of his election or 28 at any time after qualifying as such, sell or dispose of, 29 or in any manner hypothecate or pledge as security for 30 a debt or obligation, such qualifying shares, or any num-31 ber thereof, necessary for his qualification, or due to 32 death, resignation or inability to serve of any elected 33 director, thereupon the remaining directors shall elect 34 another director in his stead.
35 It shall be the duty of the board at their organization 36 meeting or as soon thereafter as convenient to elect a 37 president who shall be a director, one or more vice presi-38 dents, a secretary or manager, treasurer and such other 39 officers necessary for the conduct of business as may be designated in the by-laws.

Sec. 10. Chief Executive Officer to be Bonded.—The 2 directors of every industrial loan company shall require 3 the manager or other chief executive officer appointed 4 by them in lieu of a manager, before he performs or 5 enters upon any duties as such manager or chief executive 6 officer, to give a bond or bonds, with a surety company 7 authorized to transact business in this state as surety 8 thereon, the amount to be fixed by them, but in no case 9 shall the penalty be less than five thousand dollars. Other 10 officers and personnel to be bonded in amounts com-11 mensurate with their duties and responsibilities, to be 12 fixed by the board of directors, and all bonds to be ap-13 proved by the commissioner of banking and a copy filed 14 with his department; and it shall be the duty of the 15 directors of such industrial loan company, as often as 16 once in every year, to pass upon the sufficiency of such 17 bond or bonds, and if insufficient, to require without 18 delay new and additional bonds and securities to be given.
19 If the directors of such industrial loan company shall fail to perform any or all of the requirements of this section, they shall be jointly and severally liable to the industrial loan company to the extent of any defalcation of or de-ciciency in the funds of such company created or caused by such manager, not in excess of the penalty of his bond, the same to be recovered by such industrial loan company in any court of competent jurisdiction of this state.

Sec. 14. Amendments to By-Laws.—The stockholders at any regular, or special meeting called for that purpose, may amend the by-laws of any industrial loan company organized under the provisions of this article, but before they become operative must be approved by the commissioner of banking.
