ENROLLED
House Bill No. 33

(By MR. MAXWELL)

[Passed February 16, 1953; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact sections one and two, chapter one hundred five, acts of the Legislature, regular session, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, empowering the judge of the circuit court of the fifteenth judicial circuit to employ a competent stenographer, defining duties, and providing for the manner of payment.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections one and two, chapter one hundred five, acts of the Legislature, regular session, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 1. Stenographer for Fifteenth Circuit.—The circuit court of the fifteenth judicial circuit, or the judge thereof in vacation, is hereby empowered and authorized to employ and appoint a competent stenographer to aid said judge in the performance of all his official duties. Said

6 appointment and employment of such stenographer may
7 be made by the judge of said court by an order entered
8 of record in said court, and said stenographer so appointed
9 shall hold office during the pleasure of the court.

Sec. 2. Stenographer's Salary.—The compensation of 2 said stenographer shall be fixed by said judge at such
3 sum as he shall from time to time deem proper, and an
4 amount not to exceed one hundred dollars per month, but
5 subject to approval by the county court of Harrison coun-
6 ty, shall be paid by said county court in addition to the
7 amount paid out of the state treasury under the authority
8 of section six, article seven, chapter six of the code of 9 West Virginia, as amended.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
