ENROLLED

House Bill No. 42

(By MR. GOSHORN)

[Passed March 13, 1953; in effect July 1, 1953.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section two, article eight, chapter fifty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to librarian, bond, assistants, compensation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section two, article eight, chapter fifty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 2. Librarian; Bond; Assistants; Compensation.—

2 The supreme court of appeals, or the judges thereof in 3 vacation, shall appoint a competent librarian to have im-
4 mediate custody and charge of the West Virginia law
5 library under the direction of the court. Such librarian
6 shall give bond in a penalty fixed by the court of not less
7 than two nor more than five thousand dollars, with surety
8 thereon, to be approved by the court, and conditioned as

9 provided for official bonds. Such bond shall be deposited
10 for safekeeping with the clerk of the court. The librarian
11 shall be an officer of the court and shall hold his office
12 and be removable at its pleasure. Vacancies in the office
13 of librarian occurring during a vacation of the court may 14 be filled by appointment in writing made by the judges
15 of the court, or any three of them. When, in the opinion
16 of the court, other employees are needed for the proper 17 protection and use of the library, it may employ such 18 assistants as may be necessary for that purpose. The salary 19 of the librarian shall be fixed by the court and shall be 20 not more than six thousand dollars per annum payable in 21 monthly installments, and the expense of such assistants
22 shall be fixed by the court and shall be paid upon order 23 of the court.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
