[Passed March 9, 1953; in effect July 1, 1953.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section seven-f, article three, chapter twenty of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to sealing beaver pelts or skins.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section seven-f, article three, chapter twenty of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 7-f. Sealing Beaver Pelts or Skins.—Each licensee holding a resident state-wide beaver trapping license shall present for sealing, within thirty days after the close of a legal open season, all beaver pelts or skins

5 taken under said license to a designated representative
6 of the conservation commission. The resident state-wide
7 beaver trapping license, countersigned by the owner,
8 lessee or other person entitled to the possession of such
9 lands, on which beaver were trapped, shall accompany
10 all such pelts or skins. A seal provided by the conserva-
11 tion commission shall be affixed to each beaver pelt or 12 skin and shall remain attached to the skin until such pelt
13 or skin has been tanned and processed into commercial
14 fur. The sealing fee shall be one dollar per pelt.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
