ENROLLED

Senate Bill No. 3

(BY MESSRS. CARRIGAN AND MARTIN)

[Passed February 5, 1958; in effect July 1, 1958.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section two, article eight, chapter fifty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to librarian, bond, assistants and compensation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section two, article eight, chapter fifty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 2. Librarian; Bond; Assistants; Compensation.—

2 The supreme court of appeals, or the judges thereof in 3 vacation, shall appoint a competent librarian to have im-
4 mediate custody of the West Virginia law library under

5 the direction of the court. Such librarian shall give bond 6 in a penalty fixed by the court of not less than two nor 7 more than five thousand dollars, with surety thereon, to 8 be approved by the court, and conditioned as provided for 9 official bonds. Such bond shall be deposited for safekeep-
10 ing with the clerk of the court. The librarian shall be an 11 officer of the court and shall hold his office and be re-
12 movable at its pleasure. Vacancies in the office of librarian 13 occurring during vacation of the court may be filled by 14 appointment in writing made by the judges of the court,
15 or any three of them. When, in the opinion of the court,
16 other employees are needed for the proper protection 17 and use of the library, it may employ such assistants as 18 may be necessary for that purpose. The salary of the li-
19 brarian shall be fixed by the court, and shall be not more
20 than seven thousand dollars per annum payable in monthly 21 installments, and the expense of such assistants shall be 22 fixed by the court and shall be paid upon order of the court.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
