WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1959

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 348

(By Mr. Stuart)

PASSED March 13, 1959
In Effect 90 days from Passage

Filed in Office of the Secretary of State of West Virginia MAR 20, 1959
JOE F. BURDETT
SECRETARY OF STATE
AN ACT to amend and reenact section six, article seven, chapter fifty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to recovering damages in wrongful death actions.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section six, article seven, chapter fifty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 6. Plaintiff in Such Action; Damages; Distribution; Limitation.—Every such action shall be brought by and in the name of the personal representative of such deceased person, and the amount recovered in every such action shall be distributed to the parties and in the proportion provided by law in relation to the distribution of personal estate, left by persons dying in-
In every such action the jury may give such damages (a) as they shall deem fair and just, not exceeding ten thousand dollars: Provided, however, (b) That if the plaintiff in such action shall prove by a preponderance of the evidence financial or pecuniary loss sustained by a distributee or distributees of such deceased person, the jury may give such further damages as shall equal such financial or pecuniary loss to such distributee or distributees, not exceeding the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars as the total of all damages recoverable in such action, and the amount so recovered shall not be subject to any debts or liabilities of the deceased.

Items of pecuniary loss or expenses recoverable under general law by the personal representative of the deceased for the benefit of the estate of the deceased, including but not limited to loss or expense caused by damage to property of the deceased, reasonable and necessary expense incurred in medical or surgical treatment, hospitalization, and burial of deceased shall not be admissible in evidence or considered by the jury in such action. Nothing herein contained shall bar the recovery of such items of loss or expense in an action proper for such purpose.

In every case in which the jury shall give damages for financial or pecuniary loss in such action, the jury shall state in their verdict the part thereof given for such financial or pecuniary loss.

Every such action shall be commenced within one year after the death of such deceased person.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to actions brought for the death of any person occurring prior to the effective date hereof.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
