JOE F. BURDETT
SECRETARY OF STATE
ENROLLED

Senate Bill No. 349
(Originating in the Committee on the Judiciary)

[Passed March 12, 1959; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to provide for the submission to the voters of the state an amendment to the constitution of the state, amending article six thereof by adding thereto a new section designated section fifty-four, providing for continuity of governmental operations in event of enemy attack.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

Section 1. Submitting an Amendment to the State Constitution.—That the question of the ratification or rejection of an amendment to the constitution of West Virginia, proposed in accordance with the provisions of section two, article fourteen of said constitution, shall be submitted to the voters of the state at the next general election, to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty, which proposed amendment is as follows: Article VI. The Legislature.

Sec. 54. Continuity of Government Amendment.—The Legislature of West Virginia, in order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency resulting from disasters caused by enemy attack, shall have the power and the immediate duty (1) to provide for prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of public offices, of whatever nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which may become unavailable for carrying on the powers and duties of such offices, and (2) to adopt such other measures as may be necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations.

Sec. 2. Amendment to be Known as the "Continuity of Government Amendment".—For convenience in referring to said proposed amendment, and in the preparation of the form of the ballot hereinafter provided for, said proposed amendment is hereby designated as the "Continuity of Government Amendment".

Sec. 3. Form of Ballot Election.—For the purpose of enabling the voters of the state to vote on the question of said proposed amendment to the constitution at the said general election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty, the board of ballot commissioners of each county is hereby required to place upon, and at the foot of, the official ballot to be voted at that election, the following:

Ballot on “Continuity of Government Amendment”.

☐ For ratification of Continuity of Government

Amendment.

☐ Against ratification of Continuity of Government

Amendment.

The said election on the proposed amendment at each place of voting shall be superintended, conducted and returned, and the result thereof ascertained by the same officers and in the same manner as the election of officers to be voted for at said election, and all provisions of the law relating to general elections, including all duties to be performed by any officer or board, as far as practicable, and not inconsistent with anything herein contained, shall apply to the election held under the provisions of this act, except when it is herein otherwise pro-24 vided. The ballots cast on the question of said proposed 25 amendment shall be counted as other ballots cast at said 26 election.

Sec. 4. Certificates of Election Commissioners; Canvass
2 of Vote; Certifying Result.—As soon as the result is ascer-3 tained, the commissioners, or a majority of them, and 4 the canvassers (if there be any), or a majority of them, 5 at each place of voting, shall make out and sign two cer-6 tificates thereof in the following form or to the following effect:

“We, the undersigned, who acted as commissioners (or 9 canvassers, as the case may be) of the election held at 10 Precinct No. —, in the district of ————, in the 11 county of ————, on the fourth day of November, 12 one thousand nine hundred sixty, upon the question of 13 the ratification or rejection of the proposed constitutional 14 amendment, do hereby certify that the result of said elec-15 tion is as follows:

“For ratification of Continuity of Government Amend-
17 ment — votes.
18 “Against ratification of Continuity of Government
19 Amendment — votes.
“Given under our hands this — day of November, one thousand nine hundred sixty.”

The said two certificates shall correspond with each other in all respects and contain the full and true returns of said election at each place of voting on said question. The said commissioners, or any one of them (or said canvassers or any one of them, as the case may be), shall, within four days, excluding Sunday, after that on which said election was held, deliver one of said certificates to the clerk of the county court of his county, together with the ballots, and the other to the clerk of the circuit court of the county.

The said certificates, together with the ballots cast on the question of said proposed amendment, shall be laid before the commissioners of the county court at the courthouse at the same time the ballots, poll books, and the certificates of elections of the members of the Legislature are laid before them; and as soon as the result of said election in the county upon the question of such ratification or rejection is ascertained, two certificates of such result shall be made out and signed by said commissioners as a board of canvassers, in the form or to the following effect:

“We, the board of canvassers of the county of ________, having carefully and impartially examined the returns of the election held in said county, in each district thereof, on the fourth day of November, one thousand nine hundred sixty, do certify that the results of the election in said county, on the question of the ratification or rejection of the proposed amendment is as follows:

“For ratification of Continuity of Government Amendment — votes.

“Against ratification of Continuity of Government

Amendment — votes.

“Given under our hands this — day of November, one thousand nine hundred sixty.”

One of the certificates shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and the other forwarded by mail to the secretary of state, who shall file and preserve the same until the day on which the result of said election in the state is to be ascertained, as hereinafter stated.

Sec. 5. Proclamation of Result of Election by Governor.

2—On the twenty-fifth day after the election is held, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the said certificates shall be laid before the governor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain therefrom the result of said election in the state, and declare the same by proclamation published in one or more newspapers printed at the seat of government. If a majority of the votes cast at said election upon said question be for ratification of said amendment, the proposed amendment so ratified shall be in force and effect from and after the time of such ratification, as part of the constitution of the state.

Sec. 6. Publication of Proposed Amendment by Governor.—The governor shall cause the said proposed amendment, with the proper designation for the same as here-inbefore adopted, to be published one time at least three months before such election in some newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is printed, at a price to be agreed upon in advance, in writing, and the cost of such advertising shall in the first instance, if found necessary by him, be paid out of the governor's contingent fund and be afterwards repaid to such fund by appropriation of the Legislature.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
