JOE F. BURDETT
SECRETARY OF STATE
ENROLLED

House Bill No. 281

(By MR. SPEAKER, MR. SINGLETON, and MR. SEIBERT)

[Passed March 1, 1961; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend article three, chapter forty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, by adding thereto four new sections, designated sections eight, nine, ten and eleven, relating to devises and bequests made by will to the trustee or trustees of an existing trust or a trust subsequently established by the testator or others by adopting the uniform testamentary additions to trusts act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article three, chapter forty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended by adding thereto four new sections, designated sections eight, nine, ten and eleven, to read as follows:

Section 8. Testamentary Additions to Trusts.—A devise or bequest, the validity of which is determinable by the law of this state, may be made by a will to the trustee or trustees of a trust established or to be established by the testator or by the testator and some other person or persons or by some other person or persons (including a funded or unfunded life insurance trust, although the trustor has reserved any or all rights of ownership of the insurance contracts) if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument (other than a will) executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will or in the valid last will of a person who has predeceased the testator (regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust). The devise or bequest shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the will or after the death of the testator. Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed (a) shall not be deemed to be held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become a part of the trust to which it is given and (b) shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the instrument or will setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before the death of the testator (regardless of whether made before or after the execution of the testator's will), and, if the testator's will so provides, including any amendments to the trust made after the death of the testator. A revocation or termination of the trust before the death of the testator shall cause the devise or bequest to lapse.

Sec. 9. Effect on Prior Wills.—This act shall be effective with respect to any devise or bequest described in section eight made by the will of a testator dying after the effective date of this act whose will shall have been executed prior to such date.

Sec. 10. Uniformity of Interpretation.—This act shall be so construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

Sec. 11. Short Title.—This act may be cited as the uniform testamentary additions to trusts act.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
