Senate Bill No. 112

(By MR. RILEY)

[Passed February 22, 1961; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend article twelve, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, by adding thereto a new section designated section thirteen-a, relating to an alternative procedure for the acquisition, construction, improvement, extension, equipment, operation and maintenance of a waterworks and the rehabilitation, reconstruction, improvement, extension, operation and maintenance of an existing waterworks.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article twelve, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section designated section thirteen-a, to read as follows:

Section 13-a. Alternative Procedure for Acquisition, Operation or Extension of a Waterworks.—As an alternative to the procedures herein provided, any municipality is hereby empowered to acquire, construct, improve, extend, equip, operate and maintain a waterworks as defined herein or to rehabilitate, reconstruct, improve, extend, operate and maintain an existing waterworks, and to collect the revenues therefrom for the services rendered thereby, through the supervision, operation and control of a board, committee or commission of all or of a portion of the council or similar governing body of such municipality or of a board, commission or committee, the majority of whose members shall be of such council or similar governing body as may be determined by general orders or ordinances of said council or similar governing body and if such alternative procedure is followed, said board, commission or committee shall have and be limited to all the powers, rights and duties possessed by a board, commission or committee established pursuant to article

20 four-a, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one 21 thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, except 22 that the right to lease said waterworks shall be strictly
