AN ACT to amend article two, chapter fifty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, by adding thereto a new section designated section twenty-one, relating to the tolling of statutes of limitation with respect to certain actions and claims.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article two, chapter fifty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section designated section twenty-one, to read as follows:

Section 21. When Running of Statutes of Limitation Shall Be Tolled As To Certain Actions and Claims.—After a civil action is commenced or a claim is asserted therein, the running of any statute of limitation shall be tolled as to any claim which the party against whom a claim has been asserted may assert, or be permitted by the court to assert, in the action against another person who is, or may be, liable to him for all or any part of the claim which was originally asserted against the party in the action. The running of any statute of limitation on any such claim shall be tolled so long as the claim originally asserted remains pending in the action.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
