ENROLLED

Senate Bill No. 279
(By MR. DAVIS)

[Passed March 9, 1961; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section nine, article three, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to property tax exemption for area development corporations on property used for profit, but solely for the purpose of promoting employment opportunities through industrial and economic development.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section nine, article three, chapter eleven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:
Section 9. Property Exempt from Taxation.—All property, real and personal, described in this section, and to the extent herein limited, shall be exempt from taxation, that is to say: Property belonging to the United States, other than property permitted by the United States to be taxed under state law; property belonging exclusively to the state; property belonging exclusively to any county, district, city, village, or town in this state and used for public purposes; property used exclusively for divine worship; parsonages and the household goods and furniture pertaining thereto; mortgages, bonds and other evidence of indebtedness in the hands of bona fide owners and holders hereafter issued and sold by churches and religious societies for the purposes of securing money to be used in the erection of church buildings used exclusively for divine worship, or for the purpose of paying indebtedness thereon; cemeteries; property belonging to, or held in trust for, colleges, seminaries, academies and free schools, if used for educational, literary or scientific purposes, including books, apparatus, annuities, money and furniture; public and family libraries; property used for charitable purposes, and not held or leased out for profit; property used for area economic development purposes by non-profit corporations when such property is not leased out for profit; all real estate not exceeding one-half acre in extent, and the buildings thereon, and used exclusively by any college or university society as a literary hall, or as a dormitory or club room, if not leased or otherwise used with a view to profit; all property belonging to benevolent associations, not conducted for private profit; property belonging to any public institution for the education of the deaf, dumb or blind, or any hospital not held or leased out for profit, house of refuge, lunatic or orphan asylum; homes for children or for the aged, friendless or infirm, not conducted for private profit; fire engines and implements for extinguishing fires, and property used exclusively for the safekeeping thereof, and for the meetings of fire companies; and all property on hand to be used in the subsistence of livestock on hand at the commencement of the assessment year, household goods to the value of two hundred dollars, dead victuals laid away for family use and any other property or se-
