House Bill No. 377

(By MR. SEIBERT)

[Passed March 8, 1961; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section thirteen, article five, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to city-county planning commissions and the powers thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section thirteen, article five, chapter eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

Section 13. City-County Commission; Powers.—The governing body of any city located in a county having an established planning commission may, by ordinance, designate such county commission as the city planning commission. The county court of any county within which is located a city having an established planning commis-

7 sion may, by order, designate such city commission as the 8 county planning commission.

9 A county planning commission designated as a city
10 commission shall have for that city all the powers and 11 duties granted under this article to a city planning com-
12 mission. A city planning commission designated as a 13 county commission shall have for that county all the 14 powers and duties granted under this article to a county
15 planning commission.

16 Any city designating a county planning commission as 17 its city planning commission may contract annually to 18 pay the county a proportionate part of the expenses which 19 is properly chargeable to the planning service rendered
20 such city, and any such payments received by the county
21 shall be appropriated by the county to the county plan-
22 ning commission in addition to any funds budgeted for 23 planning purposes. Any county designating a city plan-
24 ning commission as its county planning commission may 25 contract annually to pay the city a proportionate part of 26 the expenses which is properly chargeable to the plan-
27 ning service rendered such county, and any such pay-

28 ments received by the city shall be appropriated by the 29 city to the city planning commission in addition to any 30 funds budgeted for planning purposes.
