FILED IN THE OFFICE OF
JOE F. BURDETT
SECRETARY OF STATE
THIS DATE 3-19-65
AN ACT to repeal article fourteen, chapter forty-seven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, and to enact in lieu thereof a new article fourteen of said chapter, relating to the regulation of payments made under pre-need burial contracts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article fourteen, chapter forty-seven of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be repealed, and that a new article fourteen of said chapter be enacted in lieu thereof, to read as follows:

Section 1. Legislative Finding.—It is hereby determined and declared as a matter of legislative finding (a) that the public has a vital interest in proper disposition of deceased persons; (b) that pre-need contracts for furnishing of burial merchandise and services relating to the embalming, cremation or other services associated with the actual interment of dead human bodies, wherein delivery or performance is not immediately required, is a proper subject for the exercise of the police powers of this state; and (c) that the proper exercise of such police powers is regulatory rather than prohibitory.

Sec. 2. Pre-Need Contracts; Money Paid Thereunder to Be Deposited within Ten Days.—Any person, association, partnership, firm or corporation who shall receive any money under any agreement, contract or plan entered into after the effective date of this article, for the final disposition of a deceased person, or for the embalm-ing, cremation or other services relating to the actual interment of a dead human body, or for funeral or burial services, or for the furnishing of funeral or burial merchandise, including vaults and other outside burial receptacles, where the said embalming, cremation or other services or the delivery of funeral or burial merchandise or the furnishing of professional services by a funeral director or embalmer or both is not immediately required but shall be required at an undetermined future time, is hereby declared to be trustee thereof, and shall deposit any and all such money paid thereunder in a bank, trust company, or savings and loan association, insured by an agency of the United States federal government, and which is authorized to do business in this state, and subject to the terms of the said agreement, contract or plan for the benefit of the purchaser of the same, or of a third party beneficiary of the purchaser's designation, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this article. Said agreement, contract or plan shall be recorded within ten days in the office of the clerk of the county court in the county of residence of the purchaser.

All such money shall be so deposited within ten days of payment, and shall be held by such bank, trust company or savings and loan association in a separate interest-bearing account in the name of the trustee, as trustee, and shall be held in trust subject to the provisions of this article. The trustee at the time of making deposit shall furnish to the depositary the name of each payor, and the amount of payment on each such account for which deposit is being so made. Said trustee shall file with the clerk of the county court in which said county the trustee is doing business a blanket corporate surety bond on or before the tenth day of January of each year, in an amount sufficient to cover all contracts then of record.

Sec. 3. Funds Shall Remain on Deposit unless Withdrawn by Purchaser.—All payments made under said agreement, contract or plan and any earnings or interest thereon shall remain with such bank, trust company, or savings and loan association until the death of the person for whose funeral or burial the funds were paid: Provided, That said funds shall be released to the purchaser of the merchandise or services under said agreement, contract or plan, who shall be entitled to receive the same, or his or her legal representative, at any time, upon written demand upon said bank, trust company, or savings and loan association and upon ten days' notice, in writing, to the other party to the agreement: Provided further, That if the agreement, contract or plan provided for forfeiture and retention of any or all payments by reason of default in payment upon and according to the terms thereof, then upon any such default and forfeiture the trustee may withdraw such deposits: And provided further, That nothing herein contained prohibits the change of depositary by the trustee and the transfer of trust funds from one depositary to another.

Sec. 4. Payment of Funds by Bank, Trust Company, or Savings and Loan Association.—If any balance remains in said account upon the death of the purchaser or third party beneficiary, as the case may be, the same shall not be paid by such bank, trust company or savings and loan association, to the trustee until the expiration of at least ten days after the death of the purchaser or other beneficiary for whom such funds were deposited. Such funds shall not be paid by said bank, trust company or savings and loan association until a certified copy of the death certificate of such person shall have been furnished

13 ation. The payment of such funds and accumulated inter-14 est shall relieve the bank, trust company or savings and 15 loan association of any further liability for such funds 16 or interest. Any balance remaining in said fund after 17 payment for the merchandise and services as set forth 18 in said agreement, contract, or plan shall inure to the 19 benefit of the estate of the purchaser or other beneficiary, 20 as the case may be, under said agreement, contract, or

Sec. 5. Expenses in Custody and Administration of Funds. — This shall not be construed to prohibit the trustee and trustee's depositary from being reimbursed and receiving from such funds their reasonable expenses in the custody and administration of such funds and the usual and reasonable compensation for their services as such trustee and trustee's depositary: Provided, That the combined expenses and compensation shall not exceed the total of five per cent of the principal fund and five per cent of the earnings of the fund so deposited under each such agreement, contract or plan.
