ENROLLED

Senate Bill No. 114

(By Mr. Brotherton)

[Passed February 7, 1968; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section thirteen, article five, chapter forty-nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to the right to counsel in proceedings concerning juveniles, certain mandatory advice with respect thereto, the appointment of such counsel under certain circumstances and the payment by the state to attorneys so appointed of a fixed maximum fee.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section thirteen, article five, chapter forty-nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:
ARTICLE 5. JUVENILE COURTS.

§49-5-13. Same—Right to counsel; mandatory advice with respect thereto; appointment of counsel; payment by state of fee for appointed attorney.

In any proceeding under the provisions of this article, the child shall have the right to be represented by counsel, and the child and his parents, his guardian, his custodian, or any other person standing in loco parentis to him, or the person named in the petition, must be informed at the outset of the child’s right to be represented by counsel, and if neither the child nor any other of the aforementioned persons can pay for the services of counsel, that counsel will be appointed to represent the child. Upon the presentation to the court or judge thereof of a written request for the appointment of counsel and an affidavit by the child, or by his parents, the guardian of his person, his custodian, or any other person standing in loco parentis to him, or by the person named in the petition, showing that neither the child nor any other of the aforementioned persons can pay for the services of counsel, the court or judge, upon being satisfied as to the truth of the information set forth in the affidavit, shall, by order entered of record, appoint an attorney at law to represent the child in any proceeding under the provisions of this article, and may, in the exercise of discretion, by order entered of record, allow any attorney so appointed a fee in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars.
Any such fee shall be paid by the state auditor in the same manner as fees for appointed counsel are paid in felony cases.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
