WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1968

ENROLLED
SENATE BILL NO. 136

PASSED ................ February 9, 1968

In Effect ................. Passage

FILED IN THE OFFICE
ROBERT D. BAILEY
SECRETARY OF STATE
THIS D.T.: 2-16-68
AN ACT to provide for the submission to the voters of the state of an amendment to the constitution of the state of West Virginia, authorizing the issuing and selling of state road bonds in an amount not exceeding three hundred fifty million dollars.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

§1. Submitting an amendment to the state constitution.

1 That the question of the ratification or rejection of an amendment to the constitution of West Virginia, proposed in accordance with the provisions of section two, article fourteen of said constitution, shall be submitted to the voters of the state at the next general election, to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty-eight, which proposed amendment is as follows:

"The Legislature shall have power to authorize the issuing and selling of state bonds not exceeding in the aggregate three hundred fifty million dollars. The proceeds of said bonds hereby authorized to be issued and sold shall be used and appropriated solely for the building and construction of free state roads and highways provided for by this constitution and the laws enacted thereunder. When a bond issue as aforesaid is authorized, the Legislature shall, at the same time provide for the collection of an annual state tax sufficient to pay as it may accrue the interest on such bonds and the principal thereof within and not exceeding twenty-five years. Such tax shall be levied in any year only to the extent that the moneys in the state road fund irrevocably set aside and appropriated for and applied to the payment of the interest on and principal of said bonds becoming due and payable in such year are insufficient therefor."

§2. Amendment to be known as the "Roads Development Amendment"; statement of purpose.

In accordance with the provisions of section thirteen, article six, chapter three of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, said proposed amendment is hereby designated as the "Roads Development Amendment," and the purpose of the proposed amendment is summarized as follows: "To authorize the Legislature to issue and sell state bonds not exceeding in the aggregate $350,000,000 for the development of the Appalachian Highway System and a network of modern roads and highways throughout the state of West Virginia."

§3. Publication of proposed amendment by governor.

The governor shall cause the said proposed amendment, with the proper designation and the summary of the purpose for the same as hereinbefore adopted and stated, to be published one time at least three months before such election in some newspaper in every county in which a newspaper is printed, and the cost of such advertising, determined in accordance with the provisions of section three, article three, chapter fifty-nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, shall in the first instance, if found necessary by 11 him, be paid out of the governor's contingent fund and 12 be afterwards repaid to such fund by appropriation of the 13 Legislature.

§4. Form of ballot; election.

1 For the purpose of enabling the voters of the state to 2 vote on the question of this proposed amendment to the 3 constitution and any other proposed amendments to the 4 constitution which may be submitted at the said general 5 election to be held in the year one thousand nine hundred 6 sixty-eight, the board of ballot commissioners of each 7 county is hereby required to place upon, and at the foot 8 of, the official ballot to be voted at that election under the 9 heading reading "Ballot on Constitutional Amend-10 ment(s)," in the second position under said heading, the 11 following:

12 No. 2. Roads Development Amendment.
13 □ For the amendment 14 □ Against the amendment

15 The said election on the proposed amendment at each 16 place of voting shall be superintended, conducted and re-17 turned, and the result thereof ascertained by the same officers and in the same manner as the election of officers to be voted for at said election, and all the provisions of the law relating to general elections, including all duties to be performed by any officer or board, as far as practicable, and not inconsistent with anything herein contained, shall apply to the election held under the provisions of this act, except when it is herein otherwise provided. The ballots cast on the question of said proposed amendment shall be counted as other ballots cast at said election.

§5. Certificates of election commissioners; canvass of vote; certifying result.

As soon as the result is ascertained, the commissioners, or a majority of them, and the canvassers (if there be any), or a majority of them, at each place of voting, shall make out and sign two certificates thereof in the following form or to the following effect:

"We, the undersigned, who acted as commissioners (or canvassers, as the case may be) of the election held at Precinct No._______, in the district of ________, in the county of__________, on the_______day of_______, one thousand nine hundred sixty-eight, upon the question of the ratification or rejection of the proposed constitutional amendment, do hereby certify that the result of said election is as follows:

"Amendment No. 2. Roads Development Amendment.

"For the amendment ........ votes.

"Against the amendment ........ votes.

"Given under our hands this........ day of ............... ,
one thousand nine hundred sixty-eight."

The said two certificates shall correspond with each other in all respects and contain the full and true returns in said election at each place of voting on said question.

The said commissioners, or any one of them (or said canvassers or any one of them, as the case may be), shall, within four days, excluding Sunday, after that on which said election was held, deliver one of said certificates to the clerk of the county court of the county, together with the ballots, and the other to the clerk of the circuit court of the county.

The said certificates, together with the ballots cast on the question of said proposed amendment, shall be laid before the commissioners of the county court at the courthouse at the same time the ballots, poll books and the certificates of election of the members of the Legislature are laid before them; and as soon as the result of said election in the county upon the question of such ratification or rejection is ascertained, two certificates of such result shall be made out and signed by said commissioners as a board of canvassers, in the form or to the following effect:

"We, the board of canvassers of the county of_________, having carefully and impartially examined the returns of the election held in said county, in each district thereof, on the________day of_______________, one thousand nine hundred sixty-eight, do certify that the result of the election in said county, on the question of the ratification or rejection of the proposed amendment is as follows:

"Amendment No. 2. Roads Development Amendment.

"For the amendment __________ votes.

"Against the amendment __________ votes.

"Given under our hands this________ day of_________,
one thousand nine hundred sixty-eight."
One of the certificates shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county court, and the other forwarded by mail to the secretary of state, who shall file and preserve the same until the day on which the result of said election in the state is to be ascertained; as hereinafter stated.

§6. Proclamation of results of election by governor.

On the twenty-fifth day after the election is held, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the said certificates shall be laid before the governor, whose duty it shall be to ascertain therefrom the result of said election in the state, and declare the same by proclamation published in one or more newspapers printed at the seat of government, the cost of such publication to be determined in accordance with the provisions of section three, article three, chapter fifty-nine of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended. If a majority of the votes cast at said election upon said question be for ratification of said amendment, the proposed amendment so ratified shall be in force and effect from and after the time of such ratification as part of the constitution of the state.
