(By Mr. Salzman and Mr. Bethard)

PASSED March 2, 1969

In Effect July 1, 1969

FILED IN THE OFFICE
JOHN G. ROHNER, JR.
SECRETARY OF STATE
THIS DATE 3-12-69
ENROLLED

House Bill No. 783

(By Mr. Galperin and Mr. Bobbitt)

[Passed March 3, 1969; in effect July 1, 1969.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section two, article two-b, chapter eighteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended; to amend and reenact section one, article seventeen of said chapter; and to further amend said chapter by adding thereto a new article, designated article twenty-four, all relating to the state board of vocational education and the director of the division of vocational education; the control, supervision and management of the West Virginia schools for the deaf and blind; and the establishment of a West Virginia board of regents; its membership, organization, staff, powers, duties and authorities; the transfer of powers, duties and authorities, title to property, agreements, orders, resolutions, rules and regulations of the state commission on higher education, the board of governors of West Virginia university, and the West Virginia board of education with respect to state colleges and universities, to the West Virginia board of regents; the abolishment and repeal of the board of governors of West Virginia university; and the appointment of advisory boards for each state college and university.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section two, article two-b, chapter eighteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted; that section one, article seventeen, of said chapter be amended and reenacted; and that said chapter be further amended by adding thereto a new article, designated article twenty-four, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 2B. AREA VOCATIONAL PROGRAM.

§18-2B-2. State board of vocational education; authority to establish programs, etc., rules and regulations; director of vocational education to administer.

1 For the purpose of this article, the state board of education is designated as the state board of vocational education serving and meeting as the sole agency responsible for the administration of vocational education and for supervision of the administration thereof by local educational agencies and is hereby authorized and empowered to establish, operate and maintain area vocational educational programs including the acquisition by purchase, lease, gift or otherwise of necessary lands and the construction, expansion, remodeling, alteration and equipping of necessary buildings for the purpose of operating and conducting educational training centers.
To this end, there is hereby expressly established in the state board of education a division of vocational education which shall establish the area or areas in which the programs are to be conducted and shall have authrity to promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of this article. The administration and supervision of the area vocational educational programs shall be administered by the director of the division of vocational education.
ARTICLE 17. WEST VIRGINIA SCHOOLS FOR THE DEAF AND THE BLIND.

§18-17-1. Continuation; management.

1 The West Virginia schools for deaf pupils and blind
2 pupils heretofore established and located at Romney,
3 in Hampshire county, shall be continued and shall be 4 known as the "West Virginia schools for the deaf and 5 the blind." The schools shall be maintained for the care 6 and education of the deaf youth and blind youth of the 7 state. The educational or business affairs of the schools
8 shall be under the control, supervision and management 9 of the state board of education and the state board shall 10 employ the superintendent, principals, teachers and other 11 employees and shall fix the yearly or monthly salary to 12 be paid to each person so employed.

ARTICLE 24. WEST VIRGINIA BOARD OF REGENTS.

§18-24-1. Legislative purpose.

1 The purpose of the Legislature in the enactment of 2 this article is to establish a state agency to be known 3 as the West Virginia board of regents which will have 4 the general determination, control, supervision and man-5 agement of the financial, business, and educational policies and affairs of all state colleges and universities.

The board's responsibilities shall include, without limitation, the making of studies and recommendations respecting higher education in West Virginia; allocating among the state colleges and universities specific functions and responsibilities; and submitting budget requests for the state colleges and universities.

Except as otherwise provided in this article, the president of each state college and university shall exercise all the duties and powers conferred upon him by law in the government of the institution under his management and control.

§18-24-2. Definitions.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section one, article one of this chapter, the following words when used in this article shall have the meaning hereafter ascribed to them unless the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(a) The term “board” shall mean the West Virginia board of regents.
(b) The term "state colleges" shall mean Bluefield State College, Concord College, Fairmont State College, Glenville State College, Shepherd College, West Liberty State College, West Virginia Institute of Technology and West Virginia State College.

c) The term "state college" shall mean one of the state colleges.

d) The terms "state universities" and "universities" shall mean Marshall University and West Virginia University, including Potomac State College thereof.

e) The terms "state university" and "university" shall mean one of the state universities.

(f) The term "institutions of higher education" shall have the meaning ascribed to it by the federal higher education facilities act of one thousand nine hundred sixty-three, as amended.

§18-24-3. West Virginia board of regents created.

There is hereby created a state agency to be known as the West Virginia board of regents, which shall be a corporation and as such may contract and be contracted with, plead and be impleaded, sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

§18-24-4. Composition of board; terms of members; qualifications of members.

The board shall consist of ten members, of whom one shall be the state superintendent of schools, ex officio, who shall not be entitled to vote. The other nine members shall be citizens of the state, appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for overlapping terms of six years, except that three of the original appointments shall be for terms of two years, three of the original appointments shall be for terms of four years, and three of the original appointments shall be for terms of six years.

Each of the members appointed to the board shall be especially qualified in the field of higher education by virtue of his knowledge, learning, experience or interest in the field.

No person shall be eligible for appointment to membership on the board who is an officer, employee or member of an advisory board of any state college or university, or an officer or member of any political party executive committee, or the holder of any other public office or public employment under the federal government or under the government of this state or any of its political subdivisions, or an appointee or employee of the board. Of the nine members appointed by the governor from the public at large, not more than five thereof shall belong to the same political party. At least one member of the board shall be appointed from each congressional district.”

§18-24-5. Commencement of original term of members; vacancies; eligibility for reappointment; oath of office;
removal from office.

The governor shall appoint the nine members of the board to be appointed by him as soon after the effective date of this article as is practicable, and the original terms of the nine members appointed by the governor and of the one member, who is such by virtue of being the state superintendent of schools, shall commence on July one, one thousand nine hundred sixty-nine.

The governor shall appoint a member to fill any vacancy among the nine members of the board appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, which member appointed to fill such vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of the vacating member.

All members of the board appointed by the governor shall be eligible for reappointment. A person who has served as a member during all or any part of two consecutive terms shall be ineligible to serve as a member for a period of three years immediately following the second of the two consecutive terms.

Before exercising any authority or performing any duties as a member of the board, each member shall qualify as such by taking and subscribing to the oath of office prescribed by section five, article four of the state constitution, the certificate whereof shall be filed with the secretary of state.

No member of the board appointed by the governor may be removed from office by the governor except for official misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty, or gross immorality and then only in the manner prescribed by law for the removal by the governor of state elective officers.
§18-24-6. Meetings; quorum; expenses of members.

The board shall hold at least six meetings in every fiscal year commencing July one and ending the following June thirty, one of which meetings, to be known as the annual meeting, shall be held in July, or as soon thereafter as practicable, in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty-nine and in June of each subsequent year. The first annual meeting of the board to be held in July, or as soon thereafter as practicable, in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty-nine, shall be called by the governor on such date and at such place as he may prescribe. Subsequent annual meetings, as well as the five additional required meetings in each fiscal year, shall be held on such dates and at such places as the board may prescribe, subject only to the requirement that the annual meeting shall be held in June. In addition to the statutorily required meetings, the board may meet at such other times as may be necessary, such meetings to be held upon its own resolution or at the call of the president of the board.
Of the nine appointed, five members of the board shall constitute a quorum, and a majority vote of the quorum shall be necessary to pass upon matters before the board.

The members of the board shall be paid fifty dollars per diem for actual time spent in the performance of duties under this article, and shall be reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incident to the performance of their duties, upon presentation of an itemized sworn statement thereof. The foregoing per diem and reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses shall be paid from appropriations made by the Legislature to the board.

§18-24-7. Organization of board; staff.

At its first annual meeting in July, or as soon thereafter as practicable, in the year one thousand nine hundred sixty-nine, the board shall elect a president and such other officers as the board may deem necessary or desirable from the members of the board appointed by the governor, to serve for a term ending June thirty, one thousand nine hundred seventy. At its annual meeting in June, one thousand nine hundred seventy, and at 9 each annual meeting held in each June thereafter, the 10 board shall elect a president and such other officers as 11 the board may deem necessary or desirable from the 12 members of the board appointed by the governor for a 13 one year term commencing on July one following the 14 annual meeting and ending June thirty the following 15 year. The president of the board shall not be eligible to 16 succeed himself.
17 The board shall employ a chancellor, and such other 18 professional, administrative, clerical and other employees 19 as may be necessary to assist the board in the perform-20 ance of its duties and responsibilities. The board shall 21 prescribe the duties and fix the compensation and emolu-22 ments of all such employees, and they shall serve at the 23 will and pleasure and under the direction and control of 24 the board or its designated representative. The board 25 shall provide suitable offices for the chancellor and his 26 staff in Charleston.

1 On and after the effective date of this article, the 2 general determination, control, supervision and manage-
3 ment of the financial, business and educational policies and affairs of all state colleges and universities shall be under the control, supervision and management of the board. In addition, the board is fully authorized and empowered to make studies and recommendations relating to all aspects of higher education in the state; it shall, upon reasonable basis, prescribe and allocate among the state colleges and universities specific functions and responsibilities to meet the higher educational needs of the state and avoid unnecessary duplication; and it shall consider, revise, and submit to the appropriate agencies of the executive and legislative branches of state government separate budget requests on behalf of the state colleges and universities or the board may, in its discretion, submit a single budget for the state colleges and universities and allocate among them appropriations made for the state colleges and universities.

The power herein given to the board to prescribe and allocate among the state colleges and universities specific functions and responsibilities to meet the higher educational needs of the state and avoid unnecessary duplication shall not be restricted by any provision of law assigning specified functions and responsibilities to designated state colleges and universities but such power shall supersede any such provision of law: Provided,
That the board may delegate, with prescribed standards and limitations, such part of its power and control over the business affairs of a particular university or state college to the president or other administrative head of such university or college in any case where it deems such delegation necessary and prudent in order to enable such institution to function in a proper and expeditious manner. Any such delegation or power and control may be rescinded by the board at any time, in whole or in part.

The board is authorized and empowered, from time to time, to promulgate such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary and convenient to insure the full implementation of its powers and duties.

Each state college and university president or other administrative head shall be authorized to nominate persons for appointment to an advisory board, consisting of seven members, to serve as advisors and consultants to him.
The board of regents shall appoint members of the advisory board from the persons so nominated for terms of seven years, except that the original appointments shall be for terms of one, two, three, four, five, six and seven years. Thereafter each member shall be appointed to serve for a term of seven years or until his successor is appointed. An appointment to fill a vacancy shall be for the unexpired term of the vacating member.

Members of advisory boards shall be eligible to succeed themselves. Members of advisory boards shall serve without compensation, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of their office to be paid by the state college or university served.

§18-24-10. State agency for participation in federal and private grants to higher education.

With the exception of Titles I, II and III of the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963 and Titles I and VI of the Higher Education Act of 1965, the administration of which are reserved to the commission on higher education, the board of regents, on behalf of the state of West Virginia, is authorized and empowered to apply for, to accept and administer and expend for the purpose or purposes designated, any funds which now are, or may be, made available to the board or institutions under its authority from federal or private grants, appropriations, allocations and programs.

§18-24-11. Transfer of powers, duties, and authorities, title to property, agreements and orders, resolutions, etc., of board of governors of West Virginia University to board.

All powers, duties and authorities which the board of governors of West Virginia University, established by article eleven of this chapter or by any other provisions of law, may have had immediately prior to the effective date of this article, are hereby transferred from the board of governors of West Virginia University to the West Virginia board of regents; and on and after the effective date of this article all of the policies and affairs of West Virginia University shall be determined, controlled, supervised and managed, and all such powers, duties and authorities of the board of governors of West Virginia University shall be exercised and performed by the West Virginia board of regents, and the board of governors of West Virginia University shall be abolished and repealed.

The title to all property vested in the board of governors of West Virginia University is hereby transferred to and vested in the West Virginia board of regents.

Each valid agreement and obligation of the board of governors of West Virginia University shall on or after the effective date of this article become and be deemed the agreement and obligation of the West Virginia board of regents.

All orders, resolutions, rules and regulations adopted or promulgated by the board of governors of West Virginia University, and in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this article, shall continue in effect and shall be deemed the orders, resolutions, rules and regulations of the West Virginia board of regents until rescinded by the board; and all such orders, resolutions, rules and regulations may be rescinded, revised, altered or amended by the board in the manner and to the extent authorized and permitted by law.
§18-24-12. Transfer of powers, duties and authorities, title to property, agreements and orders, resolutions, etc., of the West Virginia board of education with respect to state colleges and universities to board.

1 All powers, duties and authorities which the West Virginia board of education may have had with respect to state colleges and universities immediately prior to the effective date of this article, are hereby transferred from the West Virginia board of education to the West Virginia board of regents; and on and after the effective date of this article, all of the policies and affairs of the state colleges and universities shall be determined, controlled, supervised and managed, and all powers, duties and authorities shall be exercised and performed by the West Virginia board of regents: Provided, That the standards for education of teachers and teacher preparation programs at the state colleges and universities shall continue to be under the general direction and control of the West Virginia board of education, and the West Virginia board of education shall have sole authority to continue, as authorized by section six, article two of this chapter, to enter into agreements with county boards of education for the use of the public schools to give prospective teachers teaching experience.
The title to all property heretofore acquired in the name of the state board of control or the West Virginia board of education and used by or for the state colleges and universities, is hereby transferred to and vested in the West Virginia board of regents.

Each valid agreement and obligation of the state board of education with respect to the state colleges and universities shall on or after the effective date of this article become and be deemed the agreement and obligation of the West Virginia board of regents.

All orders, resolutions, rules and regulations respecting the state colleges and universities adopted or promulgated by the West Virginia board of education and in effect immediately prior to the effective date of this article shall continue in effect and shall be deemed the orders, resolutions, rules and regulations of the West Virginia board of regents until rescinded by the board; and all such orders, resolutions, rules and regulations may be rescinded, revised, altered or amended by the board in the manner and to the extent authorized and permitted by law.
