WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1969

ENROLLED
SENATE BILL NO. 230

(By Mr. Swezey and Mr. Deem)

PASSED March 7, 1969

In Effect ninety days from Passage
Senate Bill No. 230
(By Mr. Sawyers and Mr. Deem)

(Passed March 7, 1969; in effect ninety days from passage.)

AN ACT to amend section seven, article nine, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to the functions of the chief inspector of public offices in the conducting of post-audits of local governmental offices or agencies.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section seven, article nine, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 9. SUPERVISION OF PUBLIC OFFICES.

§6-9-7. Examinations into affairs of local public officers.

1. The chief inspector shall have power by himself, or by

2. any person appointed by him to perform the service, to examine into all financial affairs of every local governmental office or political subdivision and all boards, commissions, authorities, agencies or other offices created under authority thereof and shall make such an examination at least once a year, if practicable. On every such examination inquiry shall be made as to the financial conditions and resources of the agency having jurisdiction over the appropriations and levies disbursed by the office, whether the requirements of the constitution and statutory laws of the state and the ordinances and orders of the agency have been properly complied with, and also inquire into the methods and accuracy of the accounts, and as to such other matters of audit and accounting as the chief inspector may prescribe. He or any of his assistants shall have power and may exercise all the authority to issue subpoenas and compulsory process, and to direct the service thereof by any constable or sheriff, to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers before him at any designated time and place, selected in their respective county, and to administer oaths. If any person shall refuse to appear before said chief inspector or his assistants when required so to do, or shall refuse to testify in regard to any matter or refuse to produce any books or papers in his possession or under his control, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars and imprisoned not more than six months. Wilful false swearing in such examinations shall be punishable as such. A report of each examination shall be made in duplicate, one copy to be filed in the office of the state tax commissioner and one in the auditing department of the agency. If any such examination discloses misfeasance, malfeasance or nonfeasance in of-face on the part of any public officer or employee, a certified copy of the report shall be filed with the proper legal authority of the agency, the prosecuting attorney of the county wherein the agency is located and with the attorney general for such legal action as is proper in the premises. At the time of the filing of such certified audit the chief inspector shall notify the proper legal authority, the said prosecuting attorney, and the attorney general, in writing, of his recommendation as to the legal action that the chief inspector considers proper in the premises, whether criminal prosecution or civil action to effect restitution, or both. If the proper legal authority or said prosecuting attorney, within nine months of the receipt of such certified audit and recommendations, refuses, neglects or fails to take efficient legal action by a civil suit to effect restitution or by prosecuting criminal proceedings to a final conclusion, in accordance with the said recommendations, then the chief inspector shall have the right to institute the necessary proceedings, or to participate therein, and to prosecute the same in any of the courts of the state, to a final conclusion.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
