ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 554

(By Mr. MYLES)

PASSED FEBRUARY 9, 1971

In Effect FROM Passage
ENROLLED

House Bill No. 554
(By Mr. Myles)

[Passed February 9, 1971; in effect from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section four, article seven, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to salaries of judges of circuit courts.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section four, article seven, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7. COMPENSATION AND ALLOWANCES.

§6-7-4. Salaries of judges of circuit courts; additional compensation from counties.

1 The salaries of the judges of the circuit courts shall be paid out of the state treasury and shall, unless otherwise provided by law, be in the following annual amounts:
(1) In circuits having more than forty-five thousand population, nineteen thousand dollars;

(2) In circuits having forty-five thousand population or less, seventeen thousand five hundred dollars.

Any county court or the board of commissioners of Ohio county may pay the judge of the circuit court additional compensation, but the salary and additional compensation or combined contribution of the several county courts and board of commissioners shall not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

The population shall be according to the United States census, or the estimate of the United States bureau of census, as certified to the state auditor by the United States director of the census last preceding the beginning of the calendar year in which salary is payable.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
