ENROLLED

House Bill No. 1111

(By Mr. Romine and Mr. Rollins)

[Passed April 14, 1973; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article one-f, chapter fifteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to leave of absence for public officials and employees for national guard or military reserve drills, parades, etc.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article one-f, chapter fifteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 1F. PRIVILEGES AND PROHIBITIONS.

§15-1F-1. Leave of absence for public officials and employees for drills, parades, etc.

1 All officers and employees of the state, or subdivisions or municipalities thereof, who shall be members of the national guard or any military reserve unit of the United States armed services, shall be entitled to leave of absence from their respective offices or employments without loss of pay, status or efficiency rating, on the days during which they shall be engaged in drills, parades or other duty, during business hours ordered by proper authority, or for field training or active service of the state for a maximum period of thirty days in any one calendar year. The term “without loss of pay” means that the officer or employee shall continue to receive his normal salary or compensation, notwithstanding the fact that such officer or employee may have received other compensation from federal or state sources during the same period. Benefits of this section shall not accrue to individuals ordered or called to active duty by the president.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
