(By MR. HAGER and MR. QUEEN)

[Passed March 9, 1974; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section five, article seven, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to mileage and expenses of judges.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section five, article seven, chapter six of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7. COMPENSATION AND ALLOWANCES.

§6-7-5. Mileage and expenses of judges.

1 A judge of the supreme court of appeals and of a circuit
2 court shall be entitled to an allowance for mileage at the rate
3 of twelve cents for each mile, to be computed according to the 4 distance by the nearest practicable route, necessarily traveled
5 from his place of residence, to the place of holding any term
6 of court in a county other than that of his residence, and from
7 such place to his residence; and a judge of the circuit court
8 shall be paid the sum of twenty-five dollars per day as expenses
9 while holding court in a county other than that in which he
10 resides: Provided, That no judge of a circuit court shall be
11 paid mileage and expenses for holding more than ten terms
12 of court in any county in any one year, including regular, ad-
13 journed and special terms. The mileage and expenses provided
14 for in this article shall be paid to any judge out of the state
15 treasury as and when the salary of such judge is payable.

The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
