CHAPTER 29. MISCELLANEOUS BOARDS AND OFFICERS

ARTICLE 1. DEPARTMENT OF CULTURE AND HISTORY.

§29-1-1. Creation of department of culture and history; divisions and commissions; purposes; definitions; effective date.

1 Effective the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven, there is hereby created a department of culture and history and the office of commissioner of culture and history. The governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the commissioner, who shall be the chief executive officer of the department and shall be paid an annual salary, all as provided in section two-a, article seven, chapter six of this code. The commissioner so appointed shall hold a master's degree in either museum administration, history, library science, public administration or the arts. Such a person shall not have less than two years experience in administration.

The department shall consist of three divisions and three corresponding citizens commissions:

(1) An archives and history division, and an archives and history commission;

(2) An arts and humanities division, and an arts and humanities commission.

The commissioner shall exercise control and supervision of the department and shall be responsible for the projects, programs and actions of each of its divisions. The purpose and duty of the department is to advance, foster and promote the creative and performing arts, including both indoor and outdoor exhibits and performances; to identify, acquire, mark and care for historical, prehistori-cal, archaeological and unique architectural sites, structures and objects in the state; to coordinate all cultural and artistic activities in the state government and at the state-owned facilities; to acquire, preserve and classify books, documents and memorabilia of historical interest or importance; and, in general, to do all things necessary or convenient to preserve and advance the culture of the state.

The department shall have jurisdiction and control of all space in the building presently known as the West Virginia science and culture center, including the deck and court yards forming an integral part thereof.

For the purposes of this article “commissioner” means the commissioner of culture and history, and “department” means the department of culture and history.
§29-1-2. General powers of commissioner.

1 The commissioner shall assign and allocate space in all facilities assigned to the department, including all space in the building presently known as the West Virginia science and culture center, and may prescribe rules and regulations for the use and occupancy of said facilities, including tours of the science and culture center.

2 The commissioner shall coordinate the operations and affairs of the divisions and commissions of the department and assign each division or commission responsibilities according to criteria he deems most efficient, productive and best calculated to carry out the purposes of this article. He shall provide to the fullest extent possible for centralization and coordination of the bookkeeping, personnel, purchasing, printing, duplicating, binding and other services which can be efficiently combined. If the commissioner finds it necessary, he may establish an administrative division for such purposes and may operate the division and appoint a director thereof.

18 After consultation with the directors of the divisions of the department and the commissions, the commissioner shall prepare a proposed departmental budget for submission to the governor for each fiscal year.

22 No contract, agreement or undertaking may be entered into by any division of the department which involves the expenditure of funds without the express written approval of the commissioner as to fiscal responsibility.

26 The commissioner shall prepare and submit to the governor an annual report in accordance with the provisions of section twenty, article one, chapter five of this code, which report shall include a detailed account of the activities of each division and commission of the department.

31 The commissioner shall employ all personnel for the several divisions, except for persons in the professional positions established within the divisions as provided in this article; and shall supply support services to the commissions, the governor’s mansion advisory committee and to the library study committee.
The commissioner may appoint a director of the West Virginia science and culture center. Such director may employ such other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the duties and responsibilities with which he shall be charged by the commissioner.

§29-1-3. Power to accept and receive funds; power to apply for grants; disbursement of funds; restrictions on expenditure; disposition of funds heretofore received or appropriated.

The department may, in the name of the state of West Virginia, accept and receive grants, appropriations, gifts, bequests and funds from any public or private source for the purpose of carrying out the duties and purposes of this article. The department may apply for grants from the federal government, the national endowment for the arts, private foundations and any other source for the purposes of this article. All funds received from any source shall be paid into the treasury of the state and disbursed upon warrant by the state auditor following requisition by the department. Such requisitions shall be signed by the commissioner or by such other person as he may authorize by written document deposited with the auditor or, in the event of emergency, by the governor or his designee. No funds or gifts received from any source shall be expended or used for any purpose other than that intended as evidenced by a positive and affirmative declaration or by a negative restriction or limitation. The unexpended balance on the effective date of this article of any funds heretofore appropriated to or received from any source by the West Virginia antiquities commission, the West Virginia arts and humanities council, the department of archives and history, the arts and crafts division of the department of commerce, or the present science and culture center, is hereby transferred and appropriated to the department of culture and history for the purpose of carrying out its powers and duties and payment of any bills and encumbrances incurred by the aforesaid agencies, and their successor divisions within the department, except to the extent such funds are required to be retained and expended by an agency having citizen representation in which event they shall succeed to the appropriate commission established by this article. All books, papers, maps, 32 charts, plans, literature and other records, and all equipment in 33 the possession of the aforesaid agencies upon the effective date 34 of this article, or of any member, officer or employee thereof, 35 shall be delivered and turned over to the department of culture 36 and history.
37
38 All federal or state funds received to provide grants-in-aid 39 or awards to further the purposes of this article shall be ap-40 proved and distributed by the appropriate commission estab-41 lished by this article.

§29-1-4. Transfer of powers and duties; existing contracts and obligations.

1 Except as otherwise provided in this article, the powers
2 and duties of the West Virginia antiquities commission, the 3 West Virginia library commission, the West Virginia arts 4 and humanities council and the department of archives and 5 history are hereby transferred to the department of culture
6 and history. In addition, the department of commerce may 7 no longer continue the functions of its arts and crafts division, 8 but such functions may be performed by the department of 9 culture and history to the extent authorized by this article.
10 All existing contracts and obligations of the West Virginia
11 antiquities commission, the West Virginia arts and humanities 12 council and the department of archives and history, or relating 13 to the present science and culture center, shall remain in full 14 force and effect and shall be performed by the department of 15 culture and history.

§29-1-5. Archives and history division; director.

1 The purposes and duties of the archives and history division
2 are to locate, survey, investigate, register, identify, excavate,
3 preserve, protect, restore and recommend to the commissioner
4 for acquisition historic, architectural, archaeological and cul-5 tural sites, structures, documents and objects worthy of 6 preservation, relating to the state of West Virginia and the 7 territory included therein from the earliest times to the present, 8 upon its own initiative or in cooperation with any private or 9 public society, organization or agency; to conduct a con-
10 tining survey and study throughout the state to determine 11 the needs and priorities for the preservation, restoration and development of such sites, structures, documents and objects; to direct, protect, excavate, preserve, study, and develop such sites, structures, documents, and to operate and maintain a state library for the preservation of all public records, state papers, documents and reports of all three branches of state government including all boards, commissions, departments and agencies as well as any other private or public papers, books or documents of peculiar or historic interest or significance; to preserve and protect all battle or regimental flags borne by West Virginians and other memorabilia of historic interest; to designate appropriate monuments, tablets or markers, historic, architectural and science sites within the state and to arrange for the purchase, replacement, care of and maintenance of such monuments, tablets and markers and to formulate and prepare suitable copy for them; to operate and maintain a state museum; to cooperate with the state geological and economic surveys in the survey's archeological work; to edit and publish a quarterly historical magazine devoted to the history, bibliography and genealogy of West Virginia; and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to the division by the commissioner.

With the advice and consent of the archives and history commission, the commissioner shall appoint a director of the archives and history division, who shall have a master's degree in library science or one of the social sciences, training and experience in library or archives management, and three years' experience in administration. Notwithstanding these qualifications, the person serving as the state historian and archivist on the date of enactment of this article shall be eligible for appointment as the director of the archives and history division. The director of the archives and history division shall serve as the state historian and archivist.

With the approval of the commissioner, the director shall establish professional positions within the division. The director shall employ the personnel within these professional positions for the division.

The director may promulgate rules and regulations concerning the professional policies and functions of the archives and history division, subject to the approval of the archives and history commission.

§29-1-5a. Archives and history commission.

The West Virginia antiquities commission established by article twelve, chapter five of this code shall continue in existence until the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven at which time it shall be abolished, and replaced by an archives and history commission which is hereby created and which shall be composed of nine appointed members.

The governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the members of the commission for staggered terms of three years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the remainder of that term. Of the members of the archives and history commission first appointed, three shall be appointed for a term ending the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred seventy-eight, and three each for terms ending one and two years thereafter: Provided, That each person serving as a member of the West Virginia antiquities commission, for a term which has not expired on the effective date of this article, shall be appointed by the governor without Senate confirmation to the archives and history commission, as one of the nine appointed members, for the term ending the thirtieth day of June in the year in which his term would expire as a member of the West Virginia antiquities commission.

No more than five members may be of the same political party. Members of the commission shall be appointed so as to fairly represent both sexes, the ethnic and cultural diversity of the state and the geographic regions of the state.

The commission shall elect one of its members chairman. It shall meet at such time as shall be specified by the chairman. Notice of each meeting shall be given to each member by the chairman at least five days in advance of the meeting. The director of the archives and history division shall be an ex officio nonvoting member of the commission and shall serve as secretary. The director, or a majority of the members, may also call a meeting upon such notice as provided in this section.

Each member or ex officio member of the commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties; except that in the event the expenses are paid, or are to be paid,
by a third party, the member or ex officio member,
as the case may be, shall not be reimbursed by the state.

In addition to the nine appointed members, the following persons shall serve as ex officio nonvoting members of the archives and history commission: The director of the state geological and economic survey, the president of the state historical society, the president of the state historical association of college and university teachers and the state historic preservation officer.

The commission shall have the following powers:

(1) To advise the commissioner and the director of the archives and history division concerning the accomplishment of the purposes of that division and to establish a state plan with respect thereto;

(2) To approve and distribute grants-in-aid and awards from federal and state funds relating to the purposes of the archives and history division;

(3) To request, accept or expend federal funds to accomplish the purposes of the archives and history division when federal law or regulations would prohibit the same by the commissioner or division director, but would permit the same to be done by the archives and history commission;

(4) To otherwise encourage and promote the purposes of the archives and history division;

(5) To approve rules and regulations concerning the professional policies and functions of the division as promulgated by the director of the archives and history division; §29-1-6. Arts and humanities division; director.

1 The purposes and duties of the arts and humanities division are to stimulate, encourage, assist, promote, foster and develop the performing and creative arts and crafts in the state; and in furtherance thereof to make awards, prizes and grants to individual performers or artists and to public or private corporations or associations in the field of either the performing or creative arts that would tend to encourage and foster the advancement of such arts; to present cultural or artistic exhibits or performances at the department's facilities or on tour; to conduct or participate in arts and crafts fairs or festivals; and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to said division by the commissioner.

With the advice and consent of the arts and humanities commission, the commissioner shall appoint a director of the arts and humanities division, who shall have a master's degree in the fine arts or related field and two years' experience in administration or personnel, or a bachelor's degree or its equivalent in any field and five years' experience in arts' administration or personnel. Notwithstanding these qualifications, the person serving as the executive director of the arts and humanities council on the date of the enactment of this article shall be eligible for appointment as the director of the arts and humanities division.

With the approval of the commissioner, the director shall establish professional positions within the division. The director shall employ the personnel within these professional positions for the division.

The director may promulgate rules and regulations concerning the professional policies and functions of the arts and humanities division, subject to the approval of the arts and humanities commission.

§29-1-6a. Arts and humanities commission.

1 The West Virginia arts and humanities council established by article seventeen, chapter twenty-nine of this code shall... continue in existence until the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven, at which time it shall be abolished, and replaced by an arts and humanities commission which is hereby created and which shall be composed of fifteen appointed members.

The governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint the members of the commission for staggered terms of three years. A person appointed to fill a vacancy shall be appointed only for the remainder of that term. Of the members of the arts and humanities commission first appointed, five shall be appointed for a term ending the thirtieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred seventy-eight, and five each for terms ending one and two years thereafter: Provided, That each person serving as a member of the West Virginia arts and humanities council, for a term which has not expired on the effective date of this article, shall be appointed by the governor without Senate confirmation to the arts and humanities commission as one of the fifteen appointed members, for the term ending the thirtieth day of June in the year in which his term would expire as a member of the West Virginia arts and humanities council.

Effective the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-eight, no more than eight members may be of the same political party. Members of the commission shall be appointed so as to fairly represent both sexes, the ethnic and cultural diversity of the state and the geographic regions of the state.

The commission shall elect one of its members chairman. It shall meet at such time as shall be specified by the chairman. Notice of each meeting shall be given to each member by the chairman at least five days in advance of the meeting. The director of the arts and humanities division shall be an ex officio nonvoting member of the commission and shall serve as secretary. The director or a majority of the members may also call a meeting upon such notice as provided in this section.

Each member or ex officio member of the commis-
41. Commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duties; except that in the event the expenses are paid, or are to be paid,
by a third party, the member or ex officio member,
as the case may be, shall not be reimbursed by the state.

48. Upon recommendation of the commissioner, the governor may also appoint such officers of the state as may be appropriate to serve on the commission as ex officio non-voting members.

52. The commission shall have the following powers:

53. (1) To advise the commissioner and the director of the arts and humanities division concerning the accomplishment of the purposes of that division and to establish a state plan with respect thereto;

57. (2) To approve and distribute grants-in-aid and awards
from federal and state funds relating to the purposes of the arts and humanities division;

60. (3) To request, accept or expend federal funds to ac-accomplish the purposes of the arts and humanities division
when federal law or regulations would prohibit the same by the commissioner or division director, but would permit the same to be done by the arts and humanities commission;

65. (4) To otherwise encourage and promote the purposes of the arts and humanities division;

67. (5) To approve rules and regulations concerning the professional policies and functions of the division as promulgated by the director of the arts and humanities division;
and

71. (6) To advise and consent to the appointment of the director by the commissioner.

§29-1-6b. Protection of archeological sites; penalties.

1. Archaeological sites, identified as such by the archives and
2. history division, on lands owned or leased by the state, or on private lands where investigation and development rights have been acquired by the state by lease or contract, shall not be disturbed, developed or destroyed except with permission of the commissioner.

Any person violating the provisions of this section will be guilty of a misdemeanor and be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisoned for a term of six months, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

§29-1-14. Publication of materials; agreements.

The department of culture and history shall have the power, responsibility and duty to publish or republish material of prehistorical, historical archaeological, architectural or cultural interest. The department of culture and history may sell such publications as well as postcards and other items of such interest at the state museum or any other site or property administered by the state or at any special event sponsored by the state; and any revenue derived therefrom shall be paid into the treasury of the state and disbursed upon warrant by the state auditor following requisition by the department, as provided in section three of this article. The department shall have the right to enter into agreement with responsible private historical, archaeological, architectural or cultural associations, foundations or similar organizations or the national park service, the national endowment for the arts or any agency of the federal or state government for the purpose of carrying out its purposes or for raising money to fund the functions of the department.

§29-1-15. Land; control and disposal; rules and regulations.

All land owned or leased by the department shall be titled in the name of the public land corporation of West Virginia but shall be controlled, administered and supervised by the department. The department, in the discretion of its commissioner, may sell or dispose of any real or personal property which, in his or her opinion, does not have sufficient prehistorical, historical, archaeological, architectural or cultural value to justify its retention.

The commissioner shall have the power to make and promulgate rules and regulations relating to the general management and administration of the department.

§29-1-16. Department employees classified by civil service; exceptions.

Effective the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven, any person employed in any of the agencies consolidated by this article who is a classified civil service employee shall, within the limits provided in article six of this chapter, remain in the civil service system as a covered employee; and all persons employed by the department of culture and history shall be employed under the classified service of the civil service system within the limits provided in article six of this chapter.

CHAPTER 4. THE LEGISLATURE.

ARTICLE 8. CAPITOL BUILDING COMMISSION.

§4-8-1. Creation; composition; qualifications.

There is continued a capitol building commission, hereinafter referred to as the commission, which shall be composed of five members who shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the Senate on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventy-six, plus the commissioner of the department of finance and administration who shall be a nonvoting member. No more than three members shall be of the same political party. One member shall be an architect selected from three persons recommended by the board of architects, one member shall be a registered professional engineer selected from three persons recommended by the board of engineers, one member shall be selected from three persons who are interested in the historical beauty, value and preservation of the capitol building recommended by the commissioner of culture and history and two members shall be selected from the public at large.
ARTICLE 8. PUBLIC RECORDS MANAGEMENT AND PRESERVATION ACT.

§5-8-6. Records management and preservation advisory committee.

A records management and preservation advisory committee is continued, to advise the administrator and to perform such other duties as this article requires. The records management and preservation advisory committee shall be composed of the following members: The governor, auditor, attorney general, president of the Senate, speaker of the House of Delegates, the chief justice of the supreme court of appeals, a judge of a circuit court to be appointed by the governor, the director of the office of emergency services, and the director of the division of archives and history of the department of culture and history, or their respective designated representatives.

The advisory committee shall designate one of its members to be chairman, and it shall adopt rules for the conduct of its business. The advisory committee shall meet whenever called by its chairman or the administrator. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties as members of the advisory committee.
§5-8-17. Disposal of records.

1 No record shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of by any agency of the state, unless it is determined by the administrator and the director of the division of archives and history of the department of culture and history that the record has no further administrative, legal, fiscal, research or historical value.

CHAPTER 5A. DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

ARTICLE 4A. GOVERNOR'S MANSION ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

§5A-4A-1. Committee created; appointment, terms, etc., of members; meetings and responsibilities; annual report.

1 There is hereby created the governor's mansion advisory committee. The commissioner of finance and administration, the commissioner of culture and history and the spouse of any governor during the term of office of that governor, or the designated representative of such governor, shall be ex officio members of the committee. In addition, the governor shall appoint three additional members of the committee, one to be a curator in the field of fine arts, one to be an interior decorator who is a member of the American institute of decorators, and one to be a building contractor. The appointive members of the committee shall serve for a term of four years. The members of the committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties. The governor shall designate from the committee a chairman to serve for a term of one year. The commissioner of finance and administration shall serve as secretary. The committee shall meet upon the call of the chairman annually and may meet at such other times as may be necessary for the performance of its functions.

2 The committee shall be charged with the following responsibilities:

(1) To make recommendations to the governor for the maintaining, preserving and replenishing of all articles of furniture, fixtures, decorative objects, linens, silver, china, crystal and objects of art used or displayed in the state rooms of the governor's mansion, which state rooms shall consist of the front hall, the reception room, the ballroom and its sitting room, the state dining room, the front upstairs hall and the music room;

(2) To make recommendations to the governor as to the decor and arrangements best suited to enhance the historic and artistic values of the mansion in keeping with the architecture thereof and of such articles of furniture, fixtures, decorative objects, linens, silver, china, crystal and objects of art, which recommendations shall be considered by the governor in decorating said mansion; and

(3) To invite interested persons to attend its meetings or otherwise to assist in carrying out its functions.

All departments, boards, agencies, commissions, officials and employees of the state are hereby authorized to cooperate with and assist the committee in the performance of its functions and duties whenever possible. As soon after the close of each fiscal year as possible, the committee shall make an annual report to the governor and the Legislature with respect to its activities and responsibilities.

CHAPTER 8. MUNICIPAL LAW, MUNICIPALITIES AND COUNTIES; INTERGOVERNMENTAL RELATIONS.

ARTICLE 26A. MUNICIPAL AND COUNTY HISTORICAL LANDMARKS COMMISSIONS.

§8-26A-6. Assistance of state agencies; coordination.

Upon the request of any such commission, all agencies of the state shall assist such commission in the discharge of its duties and functions.

Every such commission shall cooperate and coordinate its activities with the West Virginia historical society and the West Virginia department of culture and history, with the view of developing a unified program for the identification, study, preservation and protection of all historic buildings, structures and sites in this state.
CHAPTER 20. NATURAL RESOURCES.

ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

The public land corporation of West Virginia, heretofore created and established, shall be continued as an activity of the department of natural resources. The corporation may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, plead and be impleaded, and have and use a common seal. It shall be a public benefit corporation composed of the governor as chairman, the director of the department of natural resources as secretary, the commission of agriculture, the attorney general, the director of the engineering experiment station at West Virginia University and the commissioner of culture and history, none of whom shall receive additional compensation as members of the corporation.

The corporation shall be vested with the title of the state in public land, the title to which now is or may hereafter become absolutely vested in the state of West Virginia by reason of any law governing the title of lands within the state, except such public lands of the state as may be by law specifically allocated to and used by other state agencies, institutions and departments.

The corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to:

(1) Acquire from any persons or the state commissioner of forfeited lands, by purchase, lease or other agreement, any lands necessary and required for public use;

(2) Acquire by purchase, condemnation, lease, or agreement, receive by gifts and devises, or exchange, rights-of-way, easements, water and minerals suitable for public use;

(3) Sell, purchase or exchange lands or stumpage for the purpose of consolidating lands under state or federal government administration;

(4) Negotiate and effect loans or grants from the government of the United States or any agency thereof for acquisition and development of such lands as may be authorized by law to be acquired for public use;
(5) Expend the income from the use and development of public lands for the purpose of liquidating obligations incurred in the acquisition, development and administration of such lands, until all such obligations have been fully discharged, and thereafter pay such income into the state fund for general revenue purposes and uses;

(6) Expend the income from the use and development of public lands for the purchase, development, restoration and preservation for public use, of sites, structures, objects and documents of prehistoric, historical, archeological, architectural and cultural significance to the state of West Virginia; and

(7) Expend the income from the use and development of public lands for the purpose of obtaining grants or matching moneys available from the government of the United States or any of its instrumentalities for prehistoric, historic, archeological, architectural and cultural purposes.

The corporation shall have the authority to designate lands to which it has title for development and administration for the public use including forestation, recreation, wildlife, stock grazing, agricultural rehabilitation and homesteading or other conservation activities and may contract or lease for the proper development of oil, gas or minerals, except that no contract or lease may be entered into for the extraction and removal by stripping or auger mining of coal, and water rights within or upon the lands or property under its control. It shall convey, assign, or allot lands to the title or custody of proper departments or other agencies of state government for administration and control within the functions of such departments or other agencies as provided by law. The corporation shall make proper lands available for the purpose of cooperating with the government of the United States in the relief of unemployment and hardship or for any other public purpose. The corporation shall report annually to the Legislature on its public land holdings, its financial condition and its operations and shall make such recommendations to the Legislature as deemed proper concerning the acquisition, development, disposition and use of public lands.

During the continuance of the Blennerhassett historical commission, the public land corporation and its members... shall consult with and keep the said Blennerhassett historical park commission fully informed as to any official action to be taken or proposed to be taken pursuant to this act regarding or affecting Blennerhassett Island and its prehistoric, historic, archeological, architectural, cultural and recreational significance or development or any of the powers and duties of the Blennerhassett historical commission.
