WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1981

ENROLLED

HOUSE BILL No. 1352

(By Mr. Speaker, Mr. Lee)

Passed April 7, 1981
In Effect Ninety Days From Passage
AN ACT to provide a stable method of financing the operation of the Hardy County public library, Hardy County, West Virginia, organized under article one, chapter ten of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

HARDY COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY.

§1. Levies by county commission, county board of education and town of Moorefield to support the Hardy County public library.

In order to provide for the support, maintenance and operation of the Hardy County public library, Hardy County, West Virginia, and any and all branches thereof, the Hardy County board of education, the Hardy County commission and the town of Moorefield, hereinafter described as the supporting agencies, shall, upon written request by the board of directors of the Hardy County public library, levy annually on each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation of the property taxable according to the last assessment for state and county purposes, amounts as follows: By the board of education of the County of Hardy, Class I, two mills; Class II, two mills; Class III, two mills; Class IV, two mills; by the county commission of Hardy County, Class I, one-half cent; Class II, one cent; Class III, one cent; Class IV, one cent; and by the town of Moorefield, Class I, half cent; Class II, one cent; Class IV, half cent.

Each year the board of directors shall request each of the three supporting agencies to levy within the above rates on each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation of property of the same class, and each of the three supporting agencies shall levy within the rates aforesaid. In addition, each supporting agency may contribute to the public library any other general or specific revenues or excess levies. All income realized by the operation of the public library from any sources other than the above levies shall be used by the board of directors for the support and maintenance of the public library.

§2. Disbursements.

All money collected or appropriated by the three supporting agencies for library purposes shall be deposited in a bank account as directed by the library board of directors and disbursed by it for salaries, wages, books and other library materials such as magazines, pamphlets, papers, works of art, records, machinery, equipment, supply services and other costs and expenses of operating a public library and maintaining, repairing, improving and replacing its property as well as acquiring additional property.

§3. Effect of future amendments of general law.

Amendments to article one, chapter ten of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, and other general laws shall not control this act except to the extent that they do not conflict with the special features hereof, or unless the intent to amend this act is clear, specific and unmistakable.

§4. Severability.

If any provision hereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions hereof which can be given effect without the invalid provision, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
