ENROLLED
COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE
FOR
Senate Bill No. 123
(MR. SHAW, original sponsor)

[Passed April 10, 1981; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article three, chapter twenty-eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, and to further amend said article by adding thereto a new section, designated section one-a, all relating to the West Virginia industrial home for girls; changing the name of the industrial home; and allowing boys to be transferred from the West Virginia industrial school for boys to the West Virginia industrial home for youth.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article three, chapter twenty-eight of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted; and that said article be further amended by adding thereto a new section, designated section one-a, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 3. INDUSTRIAL HOME FOR YOUTH.

§28-3-1. Continuation; management.
1 The West Virginia industrial home for girls, heretofore established and located at Industrial, in Harrison County,
2 shall be continued and hereafter known as the “West Virginia
Industrial home for youth”. The industrial home shall be charged with the care, training and reformation of girls and boys committed to its custody. It shall be managed, directed and controlled as prescribed in article one, chapter twenty-five of this code.

§28-3-1a. Transfer of boys from West Virginia industrial school for boys.

Boys, fourteen years of age and younger, may be transferred from the West Virginia industrial school for boys to the West Virginia industrial home for youth in accordance with section sixteen, article one, chapter twenty-five of this code: Provided, That nothing in the foregoing shall prevent the temporary transfer of any male youth for a period not to exceed thirty days for the purpose of testing, evaluation, or diagnosis.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
