(a) Each person subject to this article discharged from the state military forces who is later charged with having fraudulently obtained his discharge shall be, subject to section forty-six of this article, subject to trial by court-martial on said charge and shall after apprehension be subject to this article while in the custody of the military for such trial. Upon conviction of said charge he shall be subject to trial by court-martial for all offenses under this article committed before the fraudulent discharge.

(b) No person subject to this article who has deserted from the state military forces shall be relieved from amenability to the jurisdiction of this article by virtue of a separation from any subsequent period of service.

§15-1E-5. Dismissal of commissioned officer.

(a) Any commissioned officer, subject to this article dismissed by order of the governor, may make a written application for trial by court-martial, setting forth, under oath, that he has been wrongfully dismissed. In such event, the governor, as soon as practicable, shall convene a general court-martial to try such officer on the charges on which he was dismissed. A court-martial so convened shall have jurisdiction to try the dismissed officer on such charge, and he shall be considered to have waived the right to plead any statute of limitations applicable to any offense with which he is charged. The court-martial may, as part of its sentence, adjudge the affirmance of the dismissal, but if the court-martial acquits the accused or if the sentence adjudged, as finally approved or affirmed, does not include dismissal, the adjutant general shall substitute for the dismissal ordered by the governor a form of discharge authorized for administrative issue.

(b) If the governor fails to convene a general court-martial within six months from the presentation of an application for trial under this section, the adjutant general shall substitute for the dismissal ordered by the governor a form of discharge authorized for administrative issue.

§15-IE-6. Territorial applicability.
(a) This article applies throughout this state. It also applies to all persons otherwise subject to the article while they are serving outside this state, and while they are going to and returning from such service outside this state, in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were serving inside this state.
(b) Courts-martial and courts of inquiry may be convened and held in units of the state military forces while those units are serving outside this state with the same jurisdiction and powers as to persons subject to the article as if the proceedings were held inside this state and persons subject to this article accused of committing offenses outside this state shall be subject to trial and punishment either inside or outside this state.

(a) The adjutant general shall appoint a judge advocate officer of the state military forces as state judge advocate. To be eligible for appointment, such officer shall have been a member of the bar of the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia for at least five years, and shall have satisfactorily completed all educational requirements for active military service as a field grade judge advocate general corps officer.
(b) The adjutant general may appoint as many assistant state judge advocates as he considers necessary. To be eligible for appointment, assistant state judge advocates must be judge advocate officers of the state military forces and members of the bar of the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia.

(c) The state judge advocate or his assistants shall make inspections in the field in supervision of the administration of military justice.

(d) Convening authorities shall at all times communicate directly with their staff judge advocates or legal officer in matters relating to the administration of military justice; and the staff judge advocate or legal officer of any command is entitled to communicate directly with the staff judge advocate or legal officer of a superior or subordinate command, or with the state judge advocate.

(e) No person who has acted as member, military judge, trial counsel, assistant trial counsel, defense counsel, assistant defense counsel, or investigating officer, or who has been a witness for either the prosecution or defense, in any case may later act as staff judge advocate or legal officer to any reviewing authority upon the same case.

PART II. APPREHENSION AND RESTRAINT.

(a) Apprehension is the taking of a person subject to this article into custody.

(b) Any person authorized by this article, or by regulations issued under it, may apprehend persons subject to this article upon reasonable belief that an offense under this article has been committed and that the person apprehended committed it.

(c) Officers, petty officers and noncommissioned officers have authority to quell quarrels, frays, and disorders among persons subject to this article and to apprehend persons subject to this article who take part therein.

Any civil officer having authority to apprehend offenders under the law of the United States or of a state, territory, commonwealth, or possession, or of the District of Columbia, or any military officer subject to this article who has been authorized by the governor by regulations may summarily apprehend any person subject to this article absent without leave from the state military forces and deliver him into the custody of the state military forces.
§15-1E-10. Imposition of restraint.

(a) Arrest is the restraint of a person subject to this article by an order, not imposed as a punishment for an offense, directing him to remain within certain specified limits. Confinement is the physical restraint of a person subject to this article.

(b) An enlisted person subject to this article may be ordered into arrest or confinement by any officer by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or through other persons subject to this article or through any person authorized by this article to apprehend persons. A commanding officer may authorize officers, petty officers, or noncommissioned officers to order enlisted members of his command or subject to his authority into arrest or confinement.

(c) An officer subject to this article may be ordered apprehended or into arrest or confinement only by a commanding officer to whose authority he is subject, by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or by another commissioned officer. The authority to order such persons apprehended or into arrest or confinement may not be delegated.

(d) No person subject to this article may be ordered apprehended or into arrest or confinement except upon probable cause and written record of the facts and circumstances upon which probable cause was made shall be recorded.

(e) This section does not limit the authority of persons authorized to apprehend offenders to secure the custody of an alleged offender until proper authority may be notified.

(a) Any person subject to this article charged with an offense under this article may be ordered into arrest or confinement. When any person subject to this article is placed in arrest or confinement prior to trial, immediate steps shall be taken to inform him of the specific wrong of which he is accused, to try him, or to dismiss the charges and release him.

(b) The convening authority of any court-martial shall have the power to issue warrants of apprehension directed to the sheriff or police officer within the proper county to apprehend persons subject to this article charged with an offense under this article and to deliver such persons into the custody of the state military forces.
13  (c) In cases where the unit of which the accused is a 14 member is not in a status of active state duty or engaged in 15 annual field training, such accused, if apprehended or 16 ordered into confinement prior to or during trial by a military 17 court, may be admitted to bail by the officer exercising 18 special court-martial jurisdiction over him or by a superior 19 commanding officer, or the adjutant general.

1 Persons subject to this article confined other than in a 2 military installation, whether before, during or after trial by a 3 military court, shall be confined in municipal, county, or state 4 places of confinement.

1 (a) No provost marshal, commander of a guard, warden,
2 keeper, or officer of a municipal, county, or state place of 3 confinement may refuse to receive or keep any prisoner 4 subject to this article, committed to his charge, when the 5 committing person furnishes a statement, signed by him, of 6 the offense charged against the prisoner.
7 (b) Every commander of a guard, warden, keeper, or 8 officer of a municipal, county, or state place of confinement to 9 whose charge a prisoner subject to this article is committed,
10 shall, within twenty-four hours after that commitment, report 11 to the commanding officer of the prisoner, report the name of 12 the prisoner, the offense charged against him, and the name 13 of the person who ordered or authorized the commitment.

1 No person subject to this article, while being held for trial 2 or the result of trial, may be subjected to punishment or 3 penalty other than arrest or confinement upon the charges
4 pending against him, nor shall the arrest or confinement 5 imposed upon him be any more rigorous than the 6 circumstances require to insure his presence: Provided, That 7 such persons may be subject to the same treatment and 8 discipline as persons similarly confined under the authority 9 of the state or any political subdivision thereof.

§15-1E-15. Delivery of offenders to civil authorities.
1 (a) Under such regulations as may be prescribed under this 2 article, a person subject to this article on active state duty, 3 accused of an offense against civil authority, may be delivered, upon request of such civil authority, to such civil authority for trial.
(b) When delivery under this section is made to any civil authority of a person undergoing sentence of a court-martial, the delivery, if followed by conviction in a civil tribunal, interrupts the execution of the sentence of the court-martial.
The offender, after having answered to the civil authorities for his offense, shall, upon the request of competent military authority, be returned to military custody for the completion of such sentence of the court-martial.

PART III. NONJUDICIAL PUNISHMENT.

(a) Under such regulations as the governor may prescribe, any commanding officer may, in addition to or in lieu of admonition or reprimand, impose one of the following disciplinary punishments for minor offenses without the intervention of a court-martial:
(1) Upon an officer of his command:
(i) Withholding of privileges for not more than two consecutive weeks;
(ii) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than two consecutive weeks; or
(iii) If imposed by the adjutant general, the commanding officer of a division or a wing or a separate brigade or a group or a similar organization, a fine or forfeiture of pay and allowances of not more than one hundred fifty dollars.
(2) Upon other military personnel of his command:
(i) Withholding of privileges for not more than two
consecutive weeks;
(ii) Restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for not more than two consecutive weeks;
(iii) Extra duties for not more than fourteen days, which need not be consecutive, and for not more than two hours per day, holidays included;
(iv) Reduction to next inferior grade if the grade from which demoted was established by the command or an equivalent or lower command; or (v) If imposed by an officer exercising special court-martial jurisdiction over the offender, a fine or forfeiture of pay and allowances of not more than fifty dollars.
(b) The governor may, by regulation, place limitations on the powers granted by this section with respect to the kind and amount of punishment authorized and the categories of commanding officers authorized to exercise those powers.

(c) A person punished under this section who considers his punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior authority. The appeal shall be promptly forwarded and decided. The officer who imposes the punishment, his successor in command, and superior authority, may suspend, set aside, or remit any part or amount of the punishment and restore all rights, privileges and property affected.

(d) The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under this section for any act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission, and not properly punishable under this section. The fact that a disciplinary punishment has been enforced may be shown by the accused upon trial, and when so shown shall be considered in determining the measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty.

(e) Whenever a punishment of forfeiture of pay and allowances is imposed under this section, the forfeiture may apply to pay or allowances accruing on or after the date that punishment is imposed and to any pay and allowances accrued before that date.

(f) Punishment may not be imposed upon any member of the state military forces under this section if the member has, before the imposition of such punishment, demanded trial by court-martial in lieu of such punishment.

PART IV. COURTS-MARTIAL JURISDICTION.

§15-1E-17. Courts-martial classified.

The three kinds of courts-martial in the state military forces are:

(1) General courts-martial, consisting of:

(i) A military judge and not less than five members; or

(ii) Only a military judge, if before the court is assembled the accused, knowing the identity of the military judge and after consultation with defense counsel, requests in writing a court composed only of a military judge and the military judge approves.
(2) Special courts-martial, consisting of:

(i) Not less than three members;

(ii) A military judge and not less than three members; or

(iii) Only a military judge, if one has been detailed to the court, and the accused under the same conditions as those prescribed in paragraph (ii), subdivision (1) so requests.

(3) Summary courts-martial, consisting of one commissioned officer.

The army national guard and the air force national guard each have court-martial jurisdiction over all persons subject to this article. The exercise of jurisdiction by the army national guard over air force personnel, or the air force national guard over army personnel shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the governor.

Subject to section eighteen of this article, general courts-martial have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this article for any offense made punishable by this article and may, under such limitations as the governor may prescribe, adjudge any of the following punishments:

(1) A fine of not more than two hundred dollars.

(2) Forfeiture of pay and allowances for a period not exceeding six months.

(3) A reprimand.

(4) Dismissal, dishonorable discharge or bad conduct discharge.

(5) Reduction of a noncommissioned officer to any lower enlisted grade.

(6) Any combination of these punishments.

Subject to section eighteen of this article, special courts-martial shall have jurisdiction to try persons subject to this article, except commissioned officers for any offense made punishable by this article and may, under such limitations as the governor may prescribe, adjudge any of the following punishments:

(1) A fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

(2) Forfeiture of pay and allowances for a period not exceeding three months.

(3) A reprimand.
   (a) Subject to section eighteen of this article, summary courts-martial shall have jurisdiction to try enlisted persons subject to this article for any offense made punishable by this article and may, under such limitations as the governor may prescribe, adjudge any of the following punishments:
   (1) A fine of not more than twenty-five dollars for a single offense.
   (2) Forfeiture of pay and allowances for a period not exceeding one month.
   (3) Reduction to the next lower grade.
   (b) No person with respect to whom summary courts-martial have jurisdiction may be brought to trial before a summary court-martial if he objects thereto. If objection to trial by summary court-martial is made by an accused, trial shall be ordered by special or general court-martial, as may be appropriate.

§15-IE-22. Sentences of dismissal, dishonorable discharge or bad conduct to be approved by the governor.
   In the state military forces, no sentence of dismissal, dishonorable discharge, or bad conduct discharge shall be executed until it is approved by the governor.

§15-IE-23. Record of bad conduct discharge proceedings.
   A bad conduct discharge may not be adjudged by any general or special court-martial unless a complete written record of the proceedings and testimony before the court has been made.

   In the state military forces, a court-martial may, instead of imposing a fine, sentence to confinement for not more than one day for each dollar of the authorized fine.

PART V. APPOINTMENT AND COMPOSITION OF COURTS-MARTIAL.

§15-IE-25. Who may convene general courts-martial.
   (a) General courts-martial may be convened by any of the following:
   (1) The governor.
§15-1E-26. Who may convene special courts-martial.
1 In the state military forces any person authorized to 2 convene a general court-martial, the commanding officer of a 3 garrison, fort, post, camp, station, air base, auxiliary air base, 4 or other place where troops are on duty, or of a brigade,
5 regiment, wing, group, separate battalion, separate squadron,
6 or other detached command, may convene special 7 courts-martial. When any such officer is an accuser, the court 8 shall be convened by superior competent authority and may, 9 in any case, be convened by such authority when deemed 10 advisable by him.

§15-1E-27. Who may convene summary courts-martial.
1 (a) In the state military forces any person authorized to 2 convene a general or special court-martial, the commanding
3 officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, station, air base, 4 auxiliary air base, or other place where troops are on duty, or 5 of a brigade, regiment, wing, group, separate battalion, separate squadron, or other detached command, may 6 convene a summary court-martial.
7 (b) When only one commissioned officer is present with a 8 command or detachment he shall be the summary
9 court-martial of that command or detachment and shall hear 10 and determine all summary court-martial cases brought 11 before him. Summary courts-martial may, however, be 12 convened in any case by superior competent authority when 13 considered desirable by him.

1 (a) Any commissioned officer of the state military forces is 2 eligible to serve on all courts-martial for the trial of any 3 person who may lawfully be brought before such courts for 4 trial.
5 (b) Any warrant officer of the state military forces is 6 eligible to serve on general and special courts-martial for the 7 trial of any person, other than a commissioned officer, who 8 may lawfully be brought before such courts for trial.
9 (c) (1) Any enlisted person of the state military forces who 10 is not a member of the same unit as the accused is eligible to 11 serve on general and special courts-martial for the trial of any 12 enlisted person who may lawfully be brought before such 13 courts for trial. He shall serve as a member of a court only if, 14 before the convening of the court, the accused personally has 15 requested in writing that enlisted members serve on it. After 16 such a request, the accused may not be tried by a general or 17 special court-martial, the membership of which does not 18 include enlisted persons in a number comprising at least one 19 third of the total membership of the court, unless eligible 20 members cannot be obtained on account of physical 21 conditions or military exigencies. If such members cannot be 22 obtained, the court may be convened and the trial held 23 without them, but the convening authority shall make a 24 detailed written statement, to be appended to the record, 25 stating why they could not be obtained.
26 (2) In this subsection, the word "unit" means any 27 regularly organized body of the state military forces not larger 28 in size than a company, or a corresponding body.
29 (d) (1) No person subject to this article may be tried by a 30 court-martial any member of which is junior to him in rank or 31 grade.
32 (2) When convening a court-martial, the convening 33 authority shall appoint as members thereof such members as, 34 in his opinion, are best qualified for the duty by reason of age, 35 education, training, experience, length of service, and judicial 36 temperament. No member is eligible to serve as a member of 37 a general or special court-martial when he is the accuser or a 38 witness for the prosecution or has acted as investigating 39 officer or as counsel in the same case.

§15-1E-29. Military judge of a general or special court-martial.
1 (a) The authority convening a general or special 2 court-martial shall appoint as military judge thereof a 3 commissioned officer who is a member of the bar of the 4 supreme court of appeals of West Virginia, and who is 5 certified as qualified for such duty by the state judge
6 advocate. No person shall be eligible to act as military judge 7 in a case when he is the accuser or a witness for the 8 prosecution or has acted as investigating officer or as counsel 9 in the same case.
(b) The military judge may not consult with the members of the court, other than on the form of the findings as provided in section fifty-four of this article, except in the presence of the accused, trial counsel, and defense counsel. He shall not vote with the members of the court.

§15-1E-30. Appointment of trial counsel and defense counsel.
1. (a) For each general and special court-martial the authority convening the court shall appoint trial counsel and defense counsel, and such assistants as he considers appropriate. No person who has acted as investigating officer, military judge or court member in any case shall act subsequently as trial counsel, assistant trial counsel, or unless expressly requested by the accused, as defense counsel or assistant defense counsel in the same case. No person who has acted for the prosecution shall act later in the same case for the defense, nor shall any person who has acted for the defense act later in the same case for the prosecution.
2. (b) Any person who is appointed trial counsel or defense counsel in the case of a general or a special court-martial:
   1. Shall be a person who is a member of the bar of the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia.
   2. Shall be certified as competent to perform such duties by the state judge advocate.

§15-1E-31. Appointment or employment of reporters and interpreters.
1. Under such regulations as the governor may prescribe, the convening authority of a general or special court-martial or court of inquiry shall appoint or employ qualified court reporters, who shall record the proceedings of and testimony taken before that court. Under like regulations the convening authority of a military court may appoint or employ interpreters who shall interpret for the court.

§15-1E-32. Absent and additional members.
1. (a) No member of a general or special court-martial shall be absent or excused after the court has been assembled for the trial of the accused, except for physical disability or as the result of a challenge or by order of the convening authority for good cause.
2. (b) Whenever a general court-martial is reduced below five members, the trial shall not proceed unless the convening authority appoints new members sufficient in number to provide not less than five members. When such new members have been sworn, the trial may proceed after the recorded evidence previously introduced before the members of the court has been read to the court in the presence of the military judge, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

(c) Whenever a special court-martial is reduced below three members, the trial shall not proceed unless the convening authority appoints new members sufficient in number to provide not less than three members. When such new members have been sworn, the trial shall proceed with the new members present as if no evidence has previously been introduced at the trial, unless a verbatim record of the evidence previously introduced before the member of the court or a stipulation thereof is read to the court in the presence of the military judge, if any, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

PART VI. PRETRIAL PROCEDURE.

§15-1E-33. Charges and specifications.
1 (a) Charges and specifications shall be signed by a person
2 subject to this article under oath before a person authorized 3 by this part to administer oaths and shall state:
4 (1) That the signer has personal knowledge of, or has 5 investigated, the matters set forth therein.
6 (2) That they are true in fact to the best of his knowledge 7 and belief.
8 (b) Upon the preferring of charges, the proper authority
9 shall take immediate steps to determine what disposition 10 should be made thereof in the interest of justice and 11 discipline. The person accused shall be informed of the 12 charges against him as soon as practicable.

§15-1E-34. Compulsory self-incrimination prohibited.
1 (a) No person subject to this article shall compel any 2 person to incriminate himself or to answer any question the 3 answer to which may tend to incriminate him.
4 (b) No person subject to this article shall interrogate or 5 request any statement from an accused or a person suspected 6 of an offense without first informing him of the nature of the 7 accusation and fully advising him of his right to be 8 represented by counsel, that he does not have to make any 9 statement regarding the offense of which he is accused or 10 suspected, and that any statement made by him can and will be used as evidence against him in a trial by court-martial, as well as other constitutional safeguards provided for an accused or a person suspected of an offense.

(c) No person subject to this article shall compel any person to make a statement or produce evidence before any military tribunal if the statement or evidence is not material to the issue and may tend to degrade him.

(d) No statement obtained from any person in violation of this section, or through the use of coercion, unlawful influence, or unlawful inducement shall be received in evidence against him in a trial by court-martial.

(a) No charge or specification shall be referred to a general court-martial for trial until a thorough and impartial investigation of all the matters set forth therein has been made. This investigation shall include inquiry as to the truth of the matter set forth in the charges, consideration of the form of charges, and a recommendation as to the disposition which should be made of the case in the interest of justice and discipline.

(b) The accused shall be advised of the charges against him and of his right to be represented at that investigation by counsel. Upon his own request he shall be represented by civilian counsel if provided by him, or military counsel of his own selection if such counsel is reasonably available, or by counsel appointed by the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command. At such investigation full opportunity shall be given to the accused to cross-examine witnesses against him if they are available and to present anything he may desire in his own behalf, either in defense or mitigation, and the investigating officer shall examine available witnesses requested by the accused. If the charges are forwarded after such investigation, they shall be accompanied by a statement of the substance of the testimony taken on both sides and a copy thereof shall be given to the accused.

(c) If an investigation of the subject matter of an offense has been conducted before the accused is charged with the offense, and if the accused was present at the investigation and afforded the opportunities for representation, cross-examination, and presentation prescribed in subsection (b), no further investigation of that charge is necessary under this section unless it is demanded by the accused after he is informed of the charge. A demand for further investigation entitles the accused to recall witnesses for further cross-examination and to offer any new evidence in his own behalf.

(d) The requirements of this section are binding on all persons administering this article.

§15-1E-36. Forwarding of charges.
1 When a person is held for trial by general court-martial, the commanding officer shall, within eight days after the accused is ordered into arrest or confinement, if practicable, forward the charges, together with the investigation and allied papers, to the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction. If that is not practicable, he shall report in writing to such officer the reasons for delay.

§15-1E-37. Advice of staff judge advocate and reference for trial.
(a) Before directing the trial of any charge by general court-martial, the convening authority shall refer it to his staff judge advocate for consideration and advice. The convening authority shall not refer a charge to general court-martial for trial unless he has found that the charge alleges an offense under this article and is warranted by evidence indicated in the report of the investigation.

(b) If the charges or specifications are not formally correct or do not conform to the substance of the evidence contained in the report of the investigating officer, formal corrections and such changes in the charges and specifications as are needed to make them conform to the evidence may be made by the convening authority.

§15-1E-38. Service of charges.
The trial counsel to whom court-martial charges are referred for trial shall cause to be served upon the accused a copy of the charges upon which trial is to be had. In time of peace, no person shall, against his objection, be brought to trial, or be required to participate by himself or counsel in a session called by the military judge under section forty-two of this article in a general court-martial case within a period of five days after the service of the charges upon him, or in a special court-martial within a period of three days after the service of the charges upon him.
PART VII. TRIAL PROCEDURE.

(a) The procedure, including modes of proof, in cases before military courts and other military tribunals may be prescribed by the governor by regulations, which shall apply the principles of law and the rules of evidence generally recognized in the trial of criminal cases in the courts of the state but which shall not be contrary to or inconsistent with this article.
(b) All rules and regulations made pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be uniform insofar as practicable among the state military forces.

(a) No authority convening a general, special, or summary court-martial nor any other commanding officer, or officer serving on the staff thereof, shall censure, reprimand, or admonish the court or any member, military judge or counsel thereof, with respect to the finding or sentence adjudged by the court, or with respect to any other exercise of its or his functions in the conduct of the proceeding. No person subject to this article shall attempt to coerce, or by any unauthorized means, influence, the action of the court-martial or any other military tribunal or any member thereof, in reaching the findings or sentence in any case, or the action of any convening, approving, reviewing authority with respect to his judicial acts.
(b) In the preparation of an effectiveness, fitness or efficiency report or any other report or document used in whole or in part for the purpose of determining whether a member of the state military forces is qualified to be advanced, in grade, or in determining the assignment or transfer of a member of the state military forces, no person subject to this article may, in preparing any such report:
(1) Consider or evaluate the performance of duty of any such member as a member of a court-martial; or
(2) Give a less favorable rating or evaluation of any member of the state military forces because of the zeal with which such member, as counsel, represented any accused before a court-martial.
§15-1E-41. Duties of trial counsel and defense counsel.

(a) The trial counsel of a general or special court-martial shall prosecute in the name of the state of West Virginia, and shall, under the direction of the court, prepare the record of the proceedings.

(b) The accused has the right to be represented in his defense before a general or special court-martial by civilian counsel if provided by him, or by military counsel of his own selection if reasonably available, or by the defense counsel appointed under section thirty of this article. Should the accused have counsel of his own selection, the defense counsel, and assistant defense counsel, if any, who were appointed, shall, if the accused so desires, act as his associate counsel; otherwise they shall be excused by the military judge or by the president of a court-martial without a military judge.

(c) In every court-martial proceeding, the defense counsel may, in the event of conviction, forward for attachment to the record of proceedings a brief of such matters he feels should be considered in behalf of the accused on review, including any objection to the contents of the record which he considers appropriate.

(d) An assistant trial counsel of a general court-martial may, under the direction of the trial counsel or when he is qualified to be a trial counsel as required by section thirty of this article, perform any duty imposed by law, regulation, or the custom of the service upon the trial counsel of the court.

An assistant trial counsel of a special court-martial may perform any duty of the trial counsel.

(e) An assistant defense counsel of a general or special court-martial may, under the direction of the defense counsel or when he is qualified to be the defense counsel as required by section thirty of this article, perform any duty imposed by law, regulations, or the custom of the service upon counsel for the accused.

§15-1E-42. Sessions.

(a) At any time after the service of charges which have been referred for trial to a court-martial composed of a military judge and members, the military judge may, subject to section thirty-eight of this article, call the court into session without the presence of the members for the purpose of:
(1) Hearing and determining motions raising defenses or objections which are capable of determination without trial of the issues raised by a plea of not guilty;

(2) Hearing and ruling upon any matter which may be ruled upon by the military judge under this section, whether or not the matter is appropriate for later consideration or decision by the members of the court;

(3) Holding the arraignment and receiving the pleas of the accused; and

(4) Performing any other procedural function which may be performed by the military judge under this part or under rules prescribed pursuant to section thirty-nine of this article, and which does not require the presence of the members of the court. In the absence of a military judge, the presiding officer of the court-martial may make such ruling.

These proceedings shall be conducted in the presence of the accused, the defense counsel, and the trial counsel and shall be made a part of the record.

(b) When the members of a court-martial deliberate or vote, only the members may be present. All other proceedings, including any other consultation of the court with counsel or the military judge, shall be made a part of the record and shall be in the presence of the accused, the defense counsel, the trial counsel, and, in cases in which a military judge has been detailed to the court, the military judge.

The military judge or a court-martial without a military judge may, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to any party for such time, and as often, as may appear to be just.

§15-IE-44. Challenges.

(a) The military judge and members of a general or special court-martial may be challenged by the accused or the trial counsel for cause stated to the court. The military judge, or if none, the court, shall determine the relevancy and validity of challenges for cause, and shall not receive a challenge to more than one person at a time. Challenges by the trial counsel shall ordinarily be presented and decided before those by the accused are offered.

(b) Each accused and the trial counsel is entitled to one

10 peremptory challenge, but the military judge may not be 11 challenged except for cause.

1 (a) Before performing their respective duties, military
2 judges, members of general and special courts-martial, trial
3 counsel, assistant trial counsel, defense counsel, assistant 4 defense counsel, reporters and interpreters shall take an oath 5 to perform their duties faithfully. The form of the oath, the 6 time and place of the taking thereof, the manner of recording 7 the same, and whether the oath shall be taken for all cases in 8 which these duties are to be performed or for a particular 9 case, shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by 10 the governor. These regulations may provide that an oath to 11 perform faithfully duties as a military judge, trial counsel, 12 assistant trial counsel, defense counsel, or assistant defense 13 counsel may be taken at any time by any judge advocate, or 14 other person certified to be qualified or competent for the duty, and if such an oath is taken it need not again be taken at the time the judge advocate or other person is detailed to that duty.
18 (b) Each witness before a military court shall be examined 19 on oath or affirmation.

1 (a) A person subject to this article, charged with desertion 2 or absence without leave in time of war or with aiding the 3 enemy or with mutiny may be tried and punished at any time 4 without limitation.
5 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person 6 subject to this part charged with desertion in time of peace or 7 with the offense punishable under section one hundred 8 eighteen of this article shall not be liable to be tried by 9 court-martial if the offense was committed more than three 10 years before the receipt of sworn charges and specifications
11 by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction 12 over the command.
13 (c) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a person 14 subject to this article charged with any offense is not liable to 15 be tried by court-martial or punished under section sixteen of 16 this article, if the offense was committed more than two years 17 before the receipt of sworn charges and specifications by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the command or before the imposition of punishment under section sixteen of this article.
(d) Periods in which the accused was absent from territory in which the state has the authority to apprehend him or in the custody of civil authorities, or in the hands of the enemy, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation prescribed in this section.

§15-1E-47. Former jeopardy.
  (a) No person subject to this article shall, without his consent, be tried a second time for the same offense in a military court convened under this article. Prosecution under this article shall not bar prosecution by civil authorities for a crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission committed in violation of the laws of the civil jurisdiction, unless prohibited by res judicata or double jeopardy.
   (b) No proceeding in which an accused has been found guilty by a court-martial upon any charge or specification is a trial in the sense of this section until the finding of guilty has become final after review of the case has been fully completed. However, a proceeding which, after the introduction of evidence but before a finding, is dismissed or terminated by the convening authority, or on motion of the prosecution for failure of available evidence or witnesses without any fault of the accused, is a trial in the sense of this section.

  (a) A plea of not guilty shall be entered in the record, and the court shall proceed as though the accused had pleaded not guilty, if after arraignment before a court-martial:
  (1) An accused makes an irregular pleading;
  (2) After a plea of guilty an accused sets up a matter inconsistent with the plea;
  (3) It appears that an accused has entered a plea of guilty improvidently or through lack of understanding of its meaning or effect; or
  (4) An accused fails or refuses to plead.
  (b) With respect to any charge or specification to which a plea of guilty has been made by the accused and accepted by the military judge or by a court-martial without a military judge, a finding of guilty of the charge or specification may be entered immediately without vote. This finding shall constitute the finding of the court unless the plea of guilty is withdrawn prior to announcement of the sentence, in which event the proceedings shall continue as though the accused had pleaded not guilty.

§15-IE-49. Opportunity to obtain witnesses and other evidence.
(a) The trial counsel, the defense counsel, and the court-martial shall have equal opportunity to obtain witnesses and other evidence in accordance with such regulations as the governor may prescribe.
(b) Process issued in court-martial cases to compel witnesses to appear and testify and to compel the production of other evidence shall be similar to that which the courts of this state having criminal jurisdiction may lawfully issue and shall run to any part of the state and to any other state or territory, district or possession in which the court-martial may be sitting.

§15-IE-50. Refusal to appear or testify.
Any person not subject to this article who has been duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness or to produce books and records before a military court or before any military or civil officer designated to take a deposition to be read in evidence before such a court and who willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or to testify or to produce any evidence which that person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce is guilty of an offense against the state and a military court may punish him in the same manner as the civil courts of this state.

A military court may punish for contempt any member of the national guard who uses any menacing word, sign, or gesture in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder. The punishment may not exceed confinement for thirty days or a fine of one hundred dollars, or both. Any person other than a member of the national guard who shall resort to disorderly, contemptuous or insolent behavior in, or use any insulting or indecorous language or expressions to or before, any military court, or any member of either of such courts, in open court, to interrupt the proceedings or to impair the authority of such courts, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be arrested by the order of the president of the court, and at once delivered to the civil authorities; and such person, if found guilty, shall be fined not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or both fined and imprisoned.

§15-1E-52. Depositions.
(a) At any time after charges have been signed, as provided in section thirty-three of this article, any party may take oral or written depositions unless the military judge or court-martial without a military judge hearing the case, or if the case is not being heard, an authority competent to convene a court-martial for the trial of those charges forbids it for good cause. If a deposition is to be taken before charges are referred for trial, such an authority may designate commissioned officers to represent the prosecution and the defense and may authorize those officers to take the deposition of any witness.
(b) The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition.
(c) Depositions may be taken before and authenticated by any military or civil officer authorized by the laws of the state or by the laws of the place where the deposition is taken to administer oaths.
(d) A duly authenticated deposition taken upon reasonable notice to the other parties, so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be read in evidence before any military court or in any proceeding before a court of inquiry, if it appears:
(1) That the witness resides or is beyond the state in which the court is ordered to sit, or beyond the distance of one hundred miles from the place of trial or hearing;
(2) That the witness by reason of death, age, sickness, bodily infirmity, imprisonment, military necessity, non-amenability to process, or other reasonable cause, is unable or refuses to appear and testify in person at the place of trial or hearing; or
(3) That the present whereabouts of the witness is unknown.

(a) The sworn testimony, contained in the duly authenticated record of proceedings of a court of inquiry, of a person whose oral testimony cannot be obtained, may, if otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, be read in evidence by any party before a court-martial if the accused was a party before the court of inquiry and if the same issue was involved or if the accused consents to the introduction of such evidence.
(b) Such testimony may also be read in evidence before a court of inquiry or a military board by either party.

§15-1E-54. Voting and rulings.
(a) Voting by members of a general or special court-martial on the findings and on the sentence and by members of a court-martial without a military judge upon questions of challenge shall be by secret written ballot. The junior member of the court shall count the votes. The count shall be checked by the president, who shall forthwith announce the result of the ballot to the members of the court.
(b) The military judge and, except for questions of challenge, the presiding officer of a court-martial without a military judge shall rule upon all questions of law and all interlocutory questions arising during the proceedings. Any such ruling made by the military judge upon any question of law or any interlocutory question other than the factual issue of mental responsibility of the accused, or by the presiding officer of a court-martial without a military judge upon any question of law other than a motion for a finding of not guilty, constitutes the ruling of the court.
(c) Before a vote is taken on the findings, the military judge or the president of a court-martial without a military judge shall, in the presence of the accused and counsel, instruct the members of the court as to the elements of the offense and charge them:
(1) That the accused must be presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond reasonable doubt;
(2) That in the case being considered, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused, the doubt shall be resolved in favor of the accused and he shall be acquitted;
(3) That, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree of guilt, the finding must be in a lower degree as to which there is no reasonable doubt; and (4) That the burden of proof of establishing the guilt of the accused beyond reasonable doubt is upon the prosecution.
Subsections (a), (b) and (c) do not apply to a court-martial composed of a military judge only. The military judge of such a court-martial shall determine all questions of law and fact arising during the proceedings and, if the accused is convicted, adjudge an appropriate sentence. The military judge of such a court-martial shall make a general finding and shall in addition on request find the facts specially. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact appear therein.

§15-1E-55. Number of votes required.
1 (a) No person subject to this article shall be convicted of any offense, except as provided in subsection (b), section forty-eight of this article, or by the concurrence of two thirds of the members present at the time the vote is taken.
2 (b) All sentences shall be determined by the concurrence of two thirds of the members present at the time the vote is taken: Provided, That whenever two thirds of the court does not consist of an integral number, the next higher number shall be construed to represent two thirds of the court.
3 (c) All other questions to be decided by the members of a general or special court-martial shall be determined by a majority vote but a determination to reconsider a finding of guilty or to reconsider a sentence, with a view toward decreasing it, may be made by any lesser vote which indicates that the reconsideration is not opposed by the number of votes required for that finding or sentence. A tie vote on a challenge disqualifies the member challenged. A tie vote on a motion for a finding of not guilty or on a motion relating to the question of the accused’s sanity is a determination against the accused. A tie vote on any other question is a determination in favor of the accused.

§15-1E-56. Court to announce action.
1 Every court-martial shall announce its findings and sentence to the parties as soon as determined.

§15-1E-57. Record of trial.
1 (a) Each general court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case brought before it, and the record shall be authenticated by the signatures of the military judge. If the record cannot be authenticated by the military judge by reason of his death, disability or absence, it shall be authenticated by the signature of the trial counsel or by that of a member if the trial counsel is unable to authenticate it by reason of his death, disability or absence. If the proceedings have resulted in an acquittal of all charges and specifications or in a sentence not including discharge and not in excess of that which may otherwise be adjudged by a special court-martial, the record need not contain a verbatim account of the proceedings and testimony before the court, but shall contain such matters as the governor may by regulation prescribe.

(b) Each special and summary courts-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case, which record shall contain such matter and shall be authenticated in such manner as the governor may by regulation prescribe.

(c) A copy of the record of the proceedings of each general and special court-martial shall be given to the accused as soon as authenticated. If a verbatim record of trial by general court-martial is not required by subsection (a) of this section, but has been made, the accused may buy such a record under such regulations as the governor may prescribe.

PART VIII. CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENTS PROHIBITED.

§15-1E-58. Cruel and unusual punishments prohibited.

Punishment by flogging, or by branding, or marking or tattooing on the body, or any other cruel or unusual punishment, may not be adjudged by any court-martial or inflicted upon any person subject to this part. The use of irons, single or double, except for the purpose of safe custody, is prohibited.

The punishment which a court-martial may direct for any offense may not exceed such limits as the governor may prescribe for that offense subject to the limits prescribed by this article.

§15-1E-60. Effective date of sentences.

(a) Whenever a sentence of a court-martial as lawfully adjudged and approved includes a forfeiture of pay or allowances in addition to confinement not suspended, the forfeiture may apply to pay or allowances accrued before that date.

(b) Any period of confinement included in a sentence of a court-martial begins to run from the date the sentence is adjudged by the court-martial but any period of time prior to §15-1E-61. Execution of confinement.
1 (a) A sentence of confinement adjudged by a military 2 court, whether or not the sentence includes discharge or 3 dismissal, and whether or not the discharge or dismissal has 4 been executed, may be carried into execution by confinement 5 in any place of confinement under the control of any of the 6 forces of the state military forces or in any county or state jail, 7 prison or other place of confinement. Persons so confined in a 8 jail or prison are subject to the same discipline and treatment 9 as persons confined or committed to the jail or prison by the 10 courts of this state or of any political subdivision thereof.
11 (b) The omission of the words “hard labor” from any 12 sentence or punishment of a court-martial adjudging 13 confinement does not deprive the authority executing that 14 sentence or punishment of the power to require hard labor as 15 a part of the punishment.
16 (c) The keepers, officers and wardens of county jails or 17 prisons under section twelve of this article shall receive 18 persons ordered into confinement before trial and persons 19 committed to confinement by a military court and shall 20 confine them according to law. Any such keeper may require 21 payment of a reasonable fee for so receiving or confining a 22 person, to be paid upon requisition of the office of the 23 adjutant general after confinement.

PART IX. REVIEW OF COURTS-MARTIAL.

§15-1E-62. Error of law; lesser included offense.
1 (a) A finding or sentence of court-martial shall not be held
2 incorrect on the ground of an error of law unless the error 3 materially prejudices the substantial rights of the accused.
4 (b) Any reviewing authority with the power to approve or 5 affirm a finding of guilty may approve or affirm so much of 6 the finding as includes a lesser included offense.

§15-1E-63. Initial action on the record.
1 After a trial by court-martial the record shall be forwarded
2 to the convening authority, as reviewing authority, and action thereon may be taken by the person who convened the court, a commissioned officer commanding for the time being, in the absence of the convening authority, a successor in command, or by any officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction.

§15-IE-64. Action on general court-martial records.

1. The convening authority shall refer the record of each general court-martial to his staff judge advocate or legal officer who shall submit his written opinion thereon to the convening authority. If there is no qualified staff judge advocate or legal officer available, the state judge advocate shall assign a judge advocate officer for such purpose. If the final action of the court has resulted in an acquittal of all charges and specifications, the opinion shall be limited to questions of jurisdiction.

§15-IE-65. Reconsideration and revision.

1. (a) If a specification before a court-martial has been dismissed on motion and the ruling does not amount to a finding of not guilty, the convening authority may return the record to the court for reconsideration of the ruling and any further appropriate action.

2. (b) Where there is an apparent error or omission in the record or where the record shows improper or inconsistent action by a court-martial with respect to a finding or sentence which can be rectified without material prejudice to the substantial rights of the accused, the convening authority may return the record to the court for appropriate action. In no case, however, may the record be returned:

1. (1) For reconsideration of a finding of not guilty of any specification or a ruling which amounts to a finding of not guilty;

1. (2) For reconsideration of a finding of not guilty of any charge, unless the record shows a finding of guilty under a specification laid under that charge, which sufficiently alleges a violation of some section of this article; or

1. (3) For increasing the severity of the sentence unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory.

§15-IE-66. Rehearings.

1. (a) If the convening authority disapproves the findings and sentence of a court-martial he may, except where there is lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings, order a rehearing, in which case he shall state the reasons for disapproval. If he disapproves the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, he shall dismiss the charges.

(b) Every rehearing shall take place before a court-martial composed of members not members of the court-martial which first heard the case. Upon such rehearing the accused shall not be tried for any offense of which he was found not guilty by the first court-martial, and no sentence in excess of or more severe than the original sentence may be imposed, unless the sentence is based upon a finding of guilty of an offense not considered upon the merits in the original proceedings, or unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is mandatory.

§15-1E-67. Approval by the convening authority.

1 In acting on the findings and sentence of a court-martial, 2 the convening authority shall approve only such findings of guilty, and the sentence or such part or amount of the sentence, as he finds correct in law and fact and as he in his discretion determines should be approved. Unless he indicates otherwise, approval of the sentence shall constitute approval of the findings and sentence.

§15-1E-68. Disposition of records after review by the convening authority.

1 (a) When the governor has taken final action in a court-martial case in which he is the convening authority, there shall be no further review.
2 (b) When a convening authority other than the governor has taken final action in a general court-martial case, he shall forward the entire record, including his action thereon and the opinion or opinions of the staff judge advocate or legal officer, to the state judge advocate.
3 (c) Where the sentence of a special court-martial as approved by the convening authority includes a bad-conduct discharge, whether or not suspended, the record shall be forwarded to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to be reviewed in the same manner as a record of trial by a general court-martial. If the sentence as approved by an officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction includes a bad-conduct discharge, whether or not suspended, the record shall be forwarded to the state judge advocate.
19 (d) All other special and summary court-martial records shall be reviewed by a judge advocate of the army national guard or air national guard and shall be transmitted and disposed of as the adjutant general may prescribe by regulations.

§15-IE-69. Review in the office of the state judge advocate.
1 Every record of trial by general court-martial in which there has been a finding of guilty and a sentence, and every record of trial by special court-martial in which the sentence as approved by an officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction includes a bad-conduct discharge, shall be examined in the office of the state judge advocate. If the state judge advocate so directs, the record shall be reviewed by a board of review in accordance with section seventy of this article.

§15-IE-70. Review by a board of review.
1 (a) The state judge advocate may constitute one or more boards of review, each composed of not less than three commissioned officers, each of whom shall be a member of the bar of the supreme court of appeals of West Virginia, and one of whom shall be a judge advocate of the army or air national guard.
2 (b) In a case referred to it, the board of review may act only with respect to the findings and sentence as approved by the convening authority.
