WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1985

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 194

(By Mr. and Mr. Harmon)

PASSED April 13, 1985
In Effect Passage
AN ACT to amend article one, chapter twenty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, by adding thereto a new section, designated section seven, relating to authorizing a minimum security facility for the housing of youthful male offenders and certain female offenders at Punxsutown Correctional Center.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That article one, chapter twenty-five of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended by adding thereto a new section, designated section seven, to read as follows:
ARTICLE 1. ORGANIZATION AND INSTITUTIONS.

§25-1-7. Pruntytown Correctional Center established as a minimum security facility; limitations on type of residents therein.

1 The commissioner of corrections is hereby authorized to house youthful male offenders as defined in section six, article four, chapter twenty-five of this code, and any such other female criminal offenders as he deems necessary to the operation of a just, humane and efficient system of corrections at the facility located at Pruntytown, West Virginia, heretofore known as the West Virginia Industrial School for Boys. Henceforth, this facility shall be known as the Pruntytown Correctional Center and it may be operated as a minimum security facility according to rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner pursuant to the provisions of section four, article thirteen, chapter sixty-two.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
