member of the faculty with the rank of instructor or student body in good academic standing, enrolled for college credit work and duly elected by the student body; a member of the institutional classified staff duly elected by the classified staff; and, appointed by the board of regents, seven lay citizens of the state who have demonstrated a sincere interest in and concern for the welfare of the institution and who are representative of its population and occupations, including at least two alumni of the institution. Of the seven lay citizen members, no more than four may be of the same political party. The administrative officer, faculty member, student member and classified staff member shall serve for a term of one year and the seven lay citizen members shall serve terms of four years each, except that the initial appointments shall be for terms of one, two, three and four years. All members shall be eligible to succeed themselves for no more than one additional term. A vacancy in an unexpired term of a member shall be filled within sixty days of the occurrence thereof in the same manner as the original appointment or election. All initial terms shall begin on the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred eighty-one. Except in the case of a vacancy, all elections shall be held and all appointments shall be made no later than the thirtieth day of April preceding the commencement of the term.

(b) The board of advisors shall hold a regular meeting at least quarterly, commencing in July of each year.
Additional meetings may be held upon the call of the chairman, president of the institution, or upon the request of at least four members. One of the seven lay citizen members shall be elected as chairman by the board of advisors in July of each year: Provided, That a lay citizen member may not serve as chairman for more than two consecutive years at a time. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum for conducting the business of the board of advisors. The president of the institution shall make available resources of the institution for conducting the business of the board of advisors. The members of the board of advisors shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of their duties under this section upon presentation of an itemized sworn statement thereof. All expenses incurred by the board of advisors and the institution under this article shall be paid from funds allocated to the institution for such purpose.

(c) The board of advisors shall review, prior to their submission by the president to the board of regents, all proposals of the institution in the areas of mission, academic programs, budget, capital facilities and such other matters as requested by the president of the institution or the board of regents or otherwise assigned to it by law. The board of advisors shall comment on each such proposal in writing, with such recommendations for concurrence therein or revision or rejection thereof as it deems proper. Such written comments and recommendations shall accompany the proposal to the board of regents, and the board of regents shall include such comments and recommendations in its consideration of and action on the proposal. The board of regents shall promptly acknowledge receipt of the comments and recommendations and shall notify the board of advisors in writing of any action taken thereon.

(d) Upon request therefor in writing by the president of the institution, the board of advisors may authorize transfers between items of allocation or appropriation in accordance with the provisions of section nineteen-a, article two, chapter five-a of this code.

(e) The board of advisors shall review, prior to their implementation by the president, all proposals regarding institution-wide personnel policies. The board of advisors may comment on such proposals in writing.

(f) Upon the occurrence of a vacancy in the office of president of the institution, the board of advisors shall serve as a search and screening committee for candidates to fill the vacancy under guidelines established by the board of regents. When serving as a search and screening committee, the board of advisors and the board of regents are each authorized to appoint up to three additional persons to serve on the committee as long as the search and screening process is in effect. The three additional appointees of the board of advisors shall be faculty members of the institution. Only for the purposes of the search and screening process, such additional members shall possess the same powers and rights as the regular members of the board of advisors, including reimbursement for all reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred. Following the search and screening process, the committee shall submit the names of at least three candidates to the board of regents for consideration and appointment. If the board of regents rejects all candidates so submitted, the committee shall submit the names of at least three additional candidates, and this process shall be repeated until the board of regents appoints one of the candidates so submitted. The board of regents shall provide all necessary staff assistance to the board of advisors in its role as a search and screening committee.
