HOUSE BILL No. 2442

(By Delegates Hale and Overington)

Passed MARCH 14, 1987

In Effect Ninety Days From Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact section four, article fifteen, chapter seventeen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to the county and regional convict work force; work by county and regional jail inmates upon county grounds, institutions, roads and bridges to control litter; allowing good time credited to inmates for said work.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section four, article fifteen, chapter seventeen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 15. COUNTY CONVICT ROAD FORCE.

§17-15-4. Work by prisoners; relief of sheriffs and others from liability for injuries, etc.

(a) Any person convicted of a criminal offense and sentenced to confinement in a county or regional jail shall, as incident to such sentence of confinement, be required to perform labor within the jail, as a trustee or otherwise, or in and upon the buildings, grounds, institutions, roads, bridges, streams or other public works of the county or the area within which the
Enr. Com. Sub. for H.B. 2442] 2

(1) Such person is at least eighteen years of age;

(2) Such person is physically and mentally sound and has not been exempted for medical reasons from such work by a licensed physician or other medical professional; and

(3) Such person is deemed by the county commission, the sheriff or the regional jail commission not to pose a threat to the community if released for work purposes.

(b) The work described in the subsection (a) of this section shall be performed under the supervision, care and custody of the county commission, the regional jail commission, the sheriff, his deputies, correctional officers or other person charged with inmate supervision to perform maintenance or control litter in this state.

(c) In order to effectuate the provisions of this section the county commission, the sheriff or the regional jail commission shall promulgate rules and regulations for the safe and useful employment of inmate labor.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of this code to the contrary, the county commission, its members and agents, the regional jail commission, its members or agents, the sheriff, his deputies, correctional officers and agents shall be immune from liability of any kind for accidents, injuries or death to such inmate except for accident, injury or death resulting directly from gross negligence or malfeasance.

(e) The sheriff of the county in which the work is to be performed, with the approval of the county commission, or the regional jail commission may hire or appoint any personnel necessary for the supervision of inmate labor.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the use of inmate labor for private projects or as contract employees of for profit businesses.

(g) Any inmate who performs work pursuant to the provisions of this section shall receive as sole and full compensation therefor, a reduction in his or her term of incarceration of not more than twenty-five percent of the original sentence excluding any other statutorily granted "good time". Each eight-hour period of approved work shall entitle an inmate to one day's sentence reduction: Provided, That any "good time" earned pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be in addition to any other reduction of sentence the inmate may accumulate.

(h) Any person being held as a detainee or for contempt may voluntarily participate in such labor as provided for in this section under the terms and conditions hereinbefore set forth.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
