WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1990

ENROLLED

SENATE BILL NO. 610

Originating in the Committee
(By Senator on the Judiciary)

PASSED March 7, 1990
In Effect 90 days from Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact sections one and two, article twenty-nine, chapter sixteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, relating to revising methods by which health care records are furnished to patients; and limiting copying fees.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections one and two, article twenty-nine, chapter sixteen of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted to read as follows:

ARTICLE 29. HEALTH CARE RECORDS.

§16-29-1. Copies of health care records to be furnished to patients.

1 Any licensed, certified or registered health care provider so licensed, certified or registered under the laws of this state shall, upon the written request of a patient, his authorized agent or authorized representa-

...ive, within a reasonable time, furnish a copy, as requested, of all or a portion of the patient's record to the patient, his authorized agent or authorized representative subject to the following exceptions:

(a) In the case of a patient receiving treatment for psychiatric or psychological problems, a summary of the record shall be made available to the patient, his authorized agent or authorized representative following termination of the treatment program.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed to require a health care provider responsible for diagnosis, treatment or administering health care services in the case of minors for birth control, prenatal care, drug rehabilitation or related services, or venereal disease according to any provision of the code, to release patient records of such diagnosis, treatment or provision of health care as aforesaid to a parent or guardian, without prior written consent therefore from the patient, nor shall any thing in this article be construed to apply to persons regulated under the provisions of chapter eighteen of this code or the rules and regulations established thereunder.

(c) The furnishing of a copy, as requested, of the reports of X ray examinations, electrocardiograms and other diagnostic procedures shall be deemed to comply with the provisions of this article.

(d) This article shall not apply to records subpoenaed or otherwise requested through court process.

(e) The provisions of this article may be enforced by a patient, authorized agent or authorized representative, and any health care provider found to be in violation of this article shall pay any attorney fees and costs, including court costs incurred in the course of such enforcement.

(f) Nothing in this article shall be construed to apply to health care records maintained by health care providers governed by the AIDS-related medical testing and records confidentiality act under the provisions of article three-c of this chapter.
§16-29-2. Reasonable expenses to be reimbursed.

1 The provider shall be reimbursed by the person requesting in writing a copy of such records at the time of delivery for all reasonable expenses incurred in complying with this article. However, such cost shall not exceed seventy-five cents per page for the copying of any such record or records which have already been reduced to written form.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
