WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1990

ENROLLED Committee Substitute for SENATE BILL NO. 77

(By Senator Edmund)

PASSED March 8, 1990
In Effect July 1, 1990, Passage
AN ACT to amend and reenact sections one and four, article eight, chapter four of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, all relating to continuing the capitol building commission; members of the commission; and powers and duties generally.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That sections one and four, article eight, chapter four, of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 8. CAPITOL BUILDING COMMISSION.

§4-8-1. Creation; composition; qualifications.

1 There is continued a capitol building commission, hereinafter referred to as the commission, which shall be composed of five members, who shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, plus the secretary of the department of admin-Enr. Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 77] 2 istration who shall be a nonvoting member. No more than three members shall be of the same political party. One member shall be an architect selected from three persons recommended by the board of architects, one member shall be a registered professional engineer selected from three persons recommended by the board of engineers, one member shall be the commissioner of the division of culture and history, who is chairman of the commission, and two members shall be selected from the public at large.

To allow for the completion of a performance audit through its joint committee on government operations, pursuant to section nine, article ten, chapter four of this code, the Legislature hereby finds and declares that the capitol building commission should be continued and reestablished. Accordingly, notwithstanding the provisions of section four, article ten, chapter four of this code, the capitol building commission shall continue to exist until the first day of July, one thousand nine hundred ninety-two.

§4-8-4. Powers and duties generally.

The capitol building commission shall review and approve or reject all plans recommending substantial physical changes inside or outside the state capitol building or surrounding complex, including the public meeting rooms, hallways and grounds, which affect the appearance thereof. The approval of the commission is mandatory before a contract may be let for work which constitutes a substantial physical change, or before changes are started if the work is not done under a contract. As used in this article, the surrounding complex shall include the governor's mansion and other buildings used by the governor as part of his residence, the state science and cultural center, all state office buildings located in the immediate vicinity of the state capitol, and the roadways, structures and facilities which are incidental to such buildings. As used in this article, substantial physical change shall include, but not be limited to, permanent physical changes that alter the appearance of the public areas of the capitol building and surrounding complex. The secretary of the department of administration shall promulgate rules and regulations, pursuant to the provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code, which rules and regulations shall be subject to the approval of the capitol building commission, to implement the provisions of this article.
The Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
