WEST VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION, 1992

ENROLLED
SENATE BILL NO. 575

(By Senator Minard)

PASSED March 4, 1992
In Effect from Passage
AN ACT to repeal sections five, six, seven, eight, ten, twelve, fifteen, seventeen, twenty, twenty-five and twenty-eight, article seven, chapter thirty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended; and to amend and reenact sections one, two, three, four, eleven, thirteen, fourteen, sixteen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty-four, twenty-six and twenty-seven of said article, all relating to industrial banks and industrial loan companies; redefining terms; eliminating industrial banks; organizational requirements of industrial loan companies; powers of industrial loan companies; eliminating the ability of industrial loan companies to issue certificates of indebtedness to the public or buy and sell bonds; restricting the practices of industrial loan companies; permitting industrial loan companies to hold real estate for ten years; requiring supervision of the banking commissioner; annual assessments by the commissioner; branch offices permitted; penalties for violations; annual meetings and reports; bonds for directors; personal liability of directors for manager's acts; rights of stockholders; advertising requirements and restrictions; and powers of the banking commissioner.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:
That sections five, six, seven, eight, ten, twelve, fifteen, seventeen, twenty, twenty-five and twenty-eight, article seven, chapter thirty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be repealed; and that sections one, two, three, four, eleven, thirteen, fourteen, sixteen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty-four, twenty-six and twenty-seven of said article be amended and reenacted, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 7. INDUSTRIAL LOAN COMPANIES.

§31-7-1. Short title.

1 This article shall be known and may be cited as the “West Virginia Industrial Loan Company Act”.

§31-7-2. Construction of article; general corporation laws applicable.

1 (a) Except as otherwise specified herein the provisions of chapter thirty-one-a of this code, insofar as the same relates to the inspection, examination, supervision, regulation and control of banking institutions, including, but not limited to, all of the penalty provisions contained in said chapter, shall apply to industrial loan companies organized pursuant to this article to the extent that the provisions of this article and the provisions of said chapter are not inconsistent.

2 To the extent of any inconsistencies between the provisions of this article and provisions of said chapter, the provisions of this article shall prevail to the extent of such inconsistencies.

14 (b) The general corporation laws of the state, including the provisions of article one of this chapter, shall govern industrial loan companies.

§31-7-3. Definitions.

1 As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires a different meaning, the term:

3 (a) “Commissioner” or “commissioner of banking” means the commissioner of banking of West Virginia and includes the division of banking of West Virginia;

6 (b) “Deposit” or “deposits” means the unpaid

balance of money or its equivalent received or held in the usual course of business and for which there is given or there is obligated to give credit, either conditionally or unconditionally, to a checking, savings, time or thrift account, or which is evidenced by a certificate of deposit; and

(e) “Industrial loan company” means any corporation formed under the provisions of this article with the approval of the commissioner of banking of this state.

§31-7-4. Incorporators; name; minimum capital stock; voting rights of classes of stock; common stock to be paid in before business commenced; use of certain words in corporate name prohibited.

Any number of persons may become an industrial loan company on the terms and conditions and subject to the liabilities prescribed in this article. The name of any industrial loan company formed under this article shall not contain the words “savings” or “savings and loan” and shall not be that of any other existing corporation of this state: Provided, That any such corporation heretofore organized which uses the words “savings and loan” as a part of its corporate name shall be authorized to continue to use such words. The capital stock of any such corporation shall not be less than twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall consist of shares of common stock. The voting power and control of the corporation during its life shall be vested in the common stock only if more than one class of stock is to be issued. Such common stock, with which it will commence business, shall be paid in before such corporation shall be authorized to engage in business, except such business as is incidental and necessarily preliminary to its organization.

§31-7-11. Powers of industrial loan companies; limitation of powers.

(a) In addition to the general powers conferred upon corporations by the laws of this state, each industrial loan company shall have power to exercise by its board of directors or duly authorized officers or agents, subject to law, all such powers as shall be necessary to:

1. Lend money to any person, firm or corporation, secured by the obligation of such person, firm or corporation, or otherwise;

2. Demand and receive for loans or for notes, bills or evidences of debt discounted or purchased, such rate of interest as may be agreed upon by the parties, not exceeding the lawful rate of interest, and it shall be lawful to receive such interest in advance. This section does not limit or restrict the manner of calculating the loan finance charge, whether by way of add-on, discount or otherwise, so long as the rate of loan finance charge does not exceed that permitted by this section;

3. Charge for a loan made pursuant to this section, one dollar for each fifty dollars, or fraction thereof, loaned, for expenses including any examination or investigation of the character and circumstances of the borrower, comaker or surety, and the drawing and taking the acknowledgment of necessary papers, or other expenses, incurred in making the loan. No additional charge shall be made except to reimburse the corporation for money actually expended for additional service actually rendered the borrower. No charge shall be collected unless a loan shall have been made as the result of such examination or investigation;

4. Purchase, hold and convey real estate as follows:

   A. Such as shall be necessary for the convenient transaction of its business;

   B. Such as is mortgaged to it in good faith by way of security for loans made by or money due to such industrial loan company;

   C. Such as is conveyed to it in satisfaction of debts previously contracted in the course of its dealings;

   D. Such as is acquired by sale on execution or judgment or decree of any court in its favor.
(b) Industrial loan companies shall not purchase, hold or convey any real estate in any other case or for any other purpose whatever. Real estate shall be conveyed only by authority of the board of directors of any such industrial loan company. No real estate acquired in the cases contemplated in paragraphs (B), (C) and (D), subdivision (4) of this subsection shall be held for a longer time than ten years, unless such period shall be extended by the commissioner of banking.

(c) An industrial loan company shall not:

(1) Accept or receive deposits or sell or offer for sale its secured or unsecured evidences or certificates of indebtedness;

(2) Pay any fees, bonuses, commissions, rewards or other consideration to any person, firm or corporation for the privilege of using any plan of operation, scheme or device for the organization or carrying on of business under this article, or the use of any name, trademark or copyright to be so used.

§31-7-13. Supervision and control.

(a) Every industrial loan company shall be subject to the inspection, examination, supervision, jurisdiction and control of the commissioner. Where forty percent or more of the common stock of any industrial loan company is owned or is held in trust for the benefit of or by any other single firm, corporation, partnership or association, such other firm, corporation, partnership or association shall also be subject to the same jurisdiction and powers of inspection, examination, supervision and control of the commissioner, as if such other firm, corporation, partnership or association were an industrial loan company.

(b) The commissioner of banking shall charge and collect from each industrial loan company and pay into a special revenue account for the department of banking an annual assessment payable on the first day of July, computed upon the total assets of the industrial loan company shown on the report of condition of the industrial loan company as of the last business day in December of the previous year as is set out in section eight, article two, chapter thirty-one-a of this code.

§31-7-14. Branch industrial loan company permitted; penalties.

(a) No industrial loan company shall install or maintain any branch industrial loan company, unless it has applied for and received a branch office certificate from the commissioner. Application for a branch office certificate shall be filed in duplicate with the commissioner, on forms prescribed by the commissioner, accompanied by an examination and investigation fee of one thousand dollars payable to the commissioner. The provision of section five, article two, chapter thirty-one-a of this code, insofar as the same relates to financial institutions, other than banking institutions, shall apply to the application and issuance of a branch office certificate or license by the commissioner to an industrial loan company.

(b) Any violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor offense punishable by applicable penalties as provided in section fifteen, article eight, chapter thirty-one-a of this code.

§31-7-16. Annual and special meetings of stockholders; quorum; annual report; voting; proxies.

(a) The stockholders of each industrial loan company shall meet annually, a majority of the outstanding voting stock to constitute a quorum; and it shall be the duty of the secretary to prepare and submit to the stockholders a clear and concise statement of the financial condition of the corporation as of the close of business on the last day of the year next preceding. At such meeting the stockholders shall elect a board of directors of not less than five nor more than twenty-five. Special meetings may be called by order of the board of directors or by request in writing of ten percent of the stockholders.

(b) In all elections of directors of the corporation
each stockholder shall have the right to cast one vote for each share of stock owned by him and entitled to vote, and he may cast the same in person or by proxy, for as many persons as there are directors to be elected, or he may cumulate such votes and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of his shares of stock shall equal; or he may distribute them on the same principle among as many candidates and in such manner as he may desire, and the directors shall not be elected in any other manner, and on any other question to be determined by a vote of shares at any meeting of stockholders each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock owned by him and entitled to vote, and he may exercise this right in person or by proxy, but if by proxy, in no instance can it be voted in any meeting other than which it was first intended.

§31-7-18. Chief executive and other officers to be bonded;
personal liability of directors for manager's defalcation.

The directors of every industrial loan company shall require the manager or other chief executive officer appointed by them in lieu of a manager, before he performs or enters upon any duties as such manager
or chief executive officer, to give a bond or bonds,
with a surety company authorized to transact business in this state as surety thereon, the amount to be fixed by them, but in no case shall the penalty be less than five thousand dollars. Other officers and personnel are to be bonded in amounts commensurate with their duties and responsibilities, to be fixed by the board of directors, and all bonds are to be approved by the commissioner of banking and a copy filed with his department; and it shall be the duty of the directors, as often as once in every year, to pass upon the sufficiency of such bond or bonds, and if insufficient, to require without delay new and additional bonds and securities to be given. If the directors shall fail to perform any or all of the requirements of this section, they shall be jointly and severally liable to the industrial loan company, as the case may be, to the extent of any defalcation of or deficiency in the funds of company created or caused by such manager, not in excess of the penalty of his bond, the same to be recovered by such industrial loan company in any court of competent jurisdiction of this state.

§31-7-19. List of stockholders; right of inspection.

1 The president, manager or treasurer of every industrial loan company shall at all times cause to be kept a true and accurate list of the names of stockholders of record, with the amount of stock held by each, which list shall at all times during business hours be open to the inspection of any stockholder or to the inspection of the commissioner or his duly authorized representative or to the authorized personnel or representatives of the federal deposit insurance corporation.

§31-7-24. Advertising requirements and prohibitions.

1 (a) An industrial loan company shall not advertise itself as a bank nor shall any of its advertisements, irrespective of the media used, contain the word or term “bank”, “banker”, “banking company”, “banking association”, “bankers association”, “savings bank” or “trust company”.

1 (b) An industrial loan company shall not use in any of its advertisements, signs, displays, stationery or documents nor in any other manner use any symbol, device, trademark or seal which is alike or deceptively similar to any device, symbol, trademark, or seal of the federal deposit insurance corporation or of any other federal agency or of any other corporation authorized to transact business in this state. Any such symbol, device, trademark or seal proposed to be adopted or used by any industrial loan company shall, prior to its adoption or use, be approved in writing by the commissioner.

§31-7-26. Rules and regulations.

1 The commissioner may, from time to time, adopt and promulgate such rules as are deemed necessary and appropriate to carry into effect the provisions of this article in accordance with the provisions of chapter thirty-one-a of this code. All such rules shall be adopted and promulgated pursuant to the provisions of chapter twenty-nine-a of this code.

§31-7-27. Additional powers and duties of the commissioner; fees; powers of the board; appeals and judicial review.

Except as may be inconsistent with the provisions of this article, all of the duties, powers and authority vested in the commissioner of banking pursuant to the provisions of chapter thirty-one-a of this code shall apply to industrial loan companies. Appeals from any orders or actions of the commissioner or judicial review thereof shall be in the same manner as may be prescribed in chapter twenty-nine-a of this code.
