(BY SENATORS TOMBLIN, MR. PRESIDENT, AND BOLEY, BY REQUEST OF THE EXECUTIVE)

[Passed March 9, 1996; in effect ninety days from passage.]

AN ACT to amend and reenact section one, article eight-b, chapter sixty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended; and to further amend said article by adding thereto four new sections, designated sections fifteen, sixteen, seventeen and eighteen, all relating to the definition of terms; creating a forensic medical examination fund; administration of the fund by the West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute; reimbursement of institute for expenses; payment from the forensic medical examination fund of the costs of forensic medical exams given to victims of certain sexual offenses; directing a study regarding reimbursement from private insurance companies; development and maintenance of a database; disclosure; confidentiality; and development of rules, instructional manuals and forms by the institute.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of West Virginia:

That section one, article eight-b, chapter sixty-one of the code of West Virginia, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, as amended, be amended and reenacted; and that said article be further amended by adding thereto four new sections, designated sections fifteen, sixteen, seventeen and eighteen, all to read as follows:

ARTICLE 8B. SEXUAL OFFENSES.

§61-8B-1. Definition of terms.

1 In this article, unless a different meaning plainly is required:

2 (1) "Forcible compulsion" means:

3 (a) Physical force that overcomes such earnest resis-
4 tance as might reasonably be expected under the circum-
5 stances; or

6 (b) Threat or intimidation, expressed or implied, placing a person in fear of immediate death or bodily
7 injury to himself or herself or another person or in fear
8 that he or she or another person will be kidnapped; or

9 (c) Fear by a person under sixteen years of age caused
10 by intimidation, expressed or implied, by another person
11 who is at least four years older than the victim.

12 For the purposes of this definition "resistance" in-
13 cludes physical resistance or any clear communication of 14 the victim's lack of consent.

15 (2) "Married", for the purposes of this article in 16 addition to its legal meaning, includes persons living
17 together as husband and wife regardless of the legal 18 status of their relationship.

19 (3) "Mentally defective" means that a person suffers
20 from a mental disease or defect which renders that 21 person incapable of appraising the nature of his or her conduct.

(4) "Mentally incapacitated" means that a person is rendered temporarily incapable of appraising or controlling his or her conduct as a result of the influence of a controlled or intoxicating substance administered to that person without his or her consent or as a result of any other act committed upon that person without his or her consent.

(5) "Physically helpless" means that a person is unconscious or for any reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act.

(6) "Sexual contact" means any intentional touching, either directly or through clothing, of the anus or any part of the sex organs of another person, or the breasts of a female or intentional touching of any part of another person's body by the actor's sex organs, where the victim is not married to the actor and the touching is done for the purpose of gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(7) "Sexual intercourse" means any act between persons not married to each other involving penetration, however slight, of the female sex organ by the male sex organ or involving contact between the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another person.

(8) "Sexual intrusion" means any act between persons not married to each other involving penetration, however slight, of the female sex organ or of the anus of any person by an object for the purpose of degrading or humiliating the person so penetrated or for gratifying the sexual desire of either party.

(9) "Bodily injury" means substantial physical pain, illness or any impairment of physical condition.

(10) "Serious bodily injury" means bodily injury which creates a substantial risk of death, which causes serious or prolonged disfigurement, prolonged impairment of health or prolonged loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ.

(11) "Deadly weapon" means any instrument, device or thing capable of inflicting death or serious bodily injury, and designed or specially adapted for use as a weapon, or possessed, carried or used as a weapon.

(12) "Forensic medical examination" means an examination provided to a possible victim of a violation of the provisions of this article by medical personnel qualified to gather evidence of the violation in a manner suitable for use in a court of law, to include: An examination for physical trauma; a determination of penetration or force; a patient interview; and the collection and evaluation of other evidence that is potentially relevant to the determination that a violation of the provisions of this article occurred and to the determination of the identity of the assailant.

There is hereby created "The Forensic Medical Examination Fund" created as a special fund in the state treasury into which shall be deposited the appropriations made to the fund by the Legislature. Expenditures from the fund shall be made by the West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute, created by the provisions of section six, article four, chapter seven of this code, for the payment of the costs of forensic medical examinations as they are defined in section sixteen of this article and for the reimbursement to the institute of its expenses in administering the payment of the costs from the fund.

§61-8B-16. Payment for costs of forensic medical examination.

(a) When any person alleges that he or she has been the victim of an offense proscribed by this article, the West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute shall pay to a licensed medical facility from the forensic medical examination fund the cost of the forensic medical examination for this person on the following conditions and in the following manner:
(1) The payment shall cover all reasonable, customary and usual costs of the forensic medical examination;

(2) The costs of additional nonforensic procedures performed by the licensed medical facility, including, but not limited to, prophylactic treatment, treatment of injuries, testing for pregnancy and testing for sexually transmitted diseases, may not be paid from the fund;

(3) The forensic medical examination must have been conducted within seventy-two hours of the alleged violation;

(4) The licensed medical facility must apply for payment of the costs of a forensic medical examination from the fund within ninety days of the examination;

(5) The licensed medical facility shall submit a statement of charges to the prosecuting attorney in the county in which the alleged offense occurred and the prosecuting attorney shall certify, if proper, that the forensic medical examination was conducted as a part of a criminal investigation; and

(6) The prosecuting attorney shall, within sixty days of receipt of a statement of charges from the licensed medical facility, forward the statement of charges and the certification to the West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute for payment from the fund and for the reimbursement of the institute from the fund for the reasonable costs of processing and recording the payment.

(b) No licensed medical facility may collect the costs of a forensic medical examination from the victim of an alleged violation of this article if the reasonable, customary and usual costs of the forensic medical examination qualifies for payment from the forensic medical examination fund as set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

§61-8B-17. Study of reimbursement; recordkeeping; disclosure; confidentiality.

(a) The West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute is Enr. Com. Sub. for Com. Sub. for S. B. No. 100) 6

2 hereby directed to undertake a study of the viability of
3 the state seeking reimbursement from private insurance
4 companies for the cost of forensic medical examinations.
5 The study shall be completed prior to the first day of the 6 regular legislative session, one thousand nine hundred
7 ninety-seven, and provided to the president of the Senate
8 and the speaker of the House of Delegates.

(b) The West Virginia prosecuting attorneys institute shall develop and maintain a database for use by law-11 enforcement personnel, prosecuting attorneys and
12 persons engaged in lawful research of the information
13 collected pursuant to its administration of the forensic
14 medical examination fund. The database shall include
15 the number of examinations performed, the facilities
16 performing the examination and where feasible, other
17 information considered to be of assistance to law-
18 enforcement and the prosecution of sexual offenses. The 19 database shall be maintained in a manner which assures
20 the confidentiality of the information.

1 The executive council of the West Virginia prosecuting
2 attorneys institute, created by the provisions of section
3 six, article four, chapter seven of this code, shall promul-
4 gate rules in accordance with article three, chapter
5 twenty-nine-a of this code, for the administration of the 6 forensic medical examination fund, establishing qualifi-
7 cations for medical personnel performing a forensic
8 medical examination and any other rules necessary to 9 the implementation of this program. The institute shall 10 also create and distribute to all licensed medical facili-
11 ties, law-enforcement agencies and prosecuting attor-
12 neys' offices the instructional manuals and forms neces-
13 sary to perform forensic medical examinations and to 14 receive payment from the fund. From the effective date
15 of this section until the date of the promulgation of these
16 rules, the executive council of the West Virginia prose-
17 cuting attorneys institute may file rules as emergency
18 rules in accordance with the applicable provisions of this code in order to govern during this period of time the administration of the fund.
That Joint Committee on Enrolled Bills hereby certifies that the foregoing bill is correctly enrolled.
